Notes:

- 1 This agreement sets out the names and address of the co-writers, the name(s) of the song(s), each c-writer's share in the song(s) and whether that share is in respect of words only, music only, or words and music, e.g. Max Smith 25% (words); Zoe Jones 75% (words/music). If the same co-writers' shares apply to more than one song then all such songs can be included on the same agreement. Where the co-writers' contributions are different from song to song then use separate agreements.
- 2 Without a Song Share Agreement a publisher or the courts may infer equal contributions, and the potential for dispute between contributors, particularly if the song writing team splits up, is greatly increased. This Song Share Agreement also includes an assertion of each contributor's 'paternity right' – that is their moral right to be identified as a co-writer of the song(s). Such an assertion is necessary under s 78 of the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 (as amended) before the paternity right can be enforced against those with notice of it.

Scott, 2015 This Handbook re-examines the concept of early modern history in a European and global context The term early modern has been familiar especially in Anglophone scholarship for four decades and is securely established in teaching research and scholarly publishing More recently however the unity implied in the notion has fragmented while the usefulness and even the validity of the term and the historical periodisation which it incorporates have been questioned The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern European History 1350-1750 provides an account of the development of the subject during the past half century but primarily offers an integrated and comprehensive survey of present knowledge together with some suggestions as to how the field is developing It aims both to interrogate the notion of early modernity itself and to survey early modern Europe as an established field of study The overriding aim will be to establish that early modern is not simply a chronological label but possesses a substantive integrity Volume II is devoted to Cultures and Power opening with chapters on philosophy science art and architecture music and the Enlightenment Subsequent sections examine Europe beyond Europe with the transformation of contact with other continents during the first global age and military and political developments notably the expansion of state power
