

Theme: Outsiders and Outcasts Part Two

Learning intention:

Understand the key ideas and themes presented within each text and how these are similar or different within individual scenes.

Success criteria:

I can identify the similarities and differences between the scenes, and can discuss this in terms of character, language, themes and structure/conventions.

Task:

For this pair of scenes, first read and annotate the passages, using the highlight and comment functions. You should make note of commonalities and points of difference between the passages.

Then answer the following questions for each of the selected scenes, as well as the additional questions listed below.

- What are the common underlying ideas and issues* related to the theme of outsiders and outcasts that the passages share?
- What similarities exist in how the passages deal with these ideas? What are the main differences?
- What do the characters appear to have in common? What are the differences based on how the passages are presented?
- Compare how the author has written each passage. What is the prevailing mood or tone? How do the texts differ in this?

The following are quotations from the selected scenes.

The Dressmaker, pp.55 – 56.

They used to march to class in a crooked line...Stewart Pettyman played the drum, a big solid ten-year old boy banging away with a worn stick. p.55

'Myrtle Dunnage you're on ink-well duty again for fighting after school yesterday.' p.55

Ink bubbled to the top of Stewart Pettyman's [ink-well] rimming the white marble so he bumped the desk. The ink spilled... p.56

Miss Dimm came, cuffed Myrtle over the head and dragged her from the room by her plait. The other kids leaned on the glass windows laughing out loud. Myrtle sat for the rest of the morning on the verandah where everyone in the whole town could see her. p.56

After school she ran as fast as she could but they...held her and gave her Chinese burns...and Stewart ran at her, head down like a charging bull so his head banged into her tummy. p.56

The girls sang, "Dunny's Mum's a slut, Dunnyburn's Mum's a slut, Myrtle's a bar-std, Myrtle's a bar-std." p.56

The Crucible, Act 1, pp.48 – 49

HALE: Tituba. You must have no fear to tell us who they are, do you understand? We will protect you. The Devil can never overcome a minister... p. 48

TITUBA [deeply relieved]: Oh, God bless you, Mr Hale! p.48

TITUBA [in a fury]: He say Mr Parris must be kill! Mr Parris no goodly man, Mr Parris mean man...But [the Devil] say, "You work for me Tituba, and I make you free! I give you pretty dress to wear..." and he say, Look! I have white people belong to me." And I look – and there was Goody Good...and Goody Osburn. pp. 48 – 49

MRS PUTNAM: I knew it! Goody Osburn were midwife to me three times. I begged you Thomas...not to call Osburn because I feared her. My babies always shriveled in her hands! p.49

HALE: Take courage, you must give us all their names. How can you bear to see this child suffering? Look at her Tituba. [He is indicating BETTY on the bed.] Look at her God-given innocence; her soul is so tender; we must protect her, Tituba; the Devil is out and preying on her like a beast upon the flesh of the pure lamb. God will bless you for your help. p.49

Christianity and Social Scientific Perspectives on Sport Tom Gibbons, Stuart Braye, 2020-06-29 There has been a dramatic increase in academic research activity and practical initiatives on the topic of sports and Christianity and its cultural significance during the past decade The Faculty of Health and Life Sciences at York St John University York UK hosted the Inaugural Global Congress on Sports and Christianity IGCSC 24-28th August 2016 in collaboration with the Bible Society at which there were 180 delegates from 22 countries in attendance For the area of sports studies the social scientific study of sport there was a thematic strand at the congress titled Christian sociological perspectives on sport from which a special edition of the journal Sport in Society partially emanated This book is based upon this journal special edition The papers selected for inclusion in the special edition were purposely eclectic in order to demonstrate the diversity of current research occurring in the area of Christianity and social scientific perspectives on sport The goal was to bridge divisions between various social science disciplines and theology or religious studies through varied novel and interesting explorations of sport in its various forms We hope this collection inspires further studies into this area The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue in Sport in Society Economic Analysis of the Digital Economy Avi Goldfarb, Shane M. Greenstein, Catherine E. Tucker, 2015-05-08 As the cost of storing sharing and analyzing data has decreased economic activity has become increasingly digital But while the effects of digital technology and improved digital communication have been explored in a variety of contexts the impact on economic activity from consumer and entrepreneurial behavior to the ways in which governments determine policy is less well understood Economic Analysis of the Digital Economy explores the economic impact of digitization with each chapter identifying a promising new area of research The Internet is one of the key drivers of growth in digital communication and the first set of chapters discusses basic supply and demand factors related to access Later chapters discuss new opportunities and challenges created by digital technology and describe some of the most pressing policy issues As digital technologies continue to gain in momentum and importance it has become clear that digitization has features that do not fit well into traditional economic models This suggests a need for a better understanding of the impact of digital technology on economic activity and Economic Analysis of the Digital Economy brings together leading scholars to explore this emerging area of research

Standard Lesson Commentary King James Version Ninety Four Ninety Five Standard Publishing, Standard Publishing, 1994-04 The Poetics of Evil Philip Tallon, 2011-06-01 What role does art play in unravelling the theological problem of evil What can aesthetics show us about God's goodness in a world of iniquity Philip Tallon constructs an aesthetic theodicy through a fascinating examination of Christian aesthetics ranging from the writings of Augustine to contemporary philosophy Tallon offers a new framework for theodicy that allows the substantial inclusion of aesthetics building on the work of Eleonore Stump He then examines the concept of cosmic harmony the predominant aesthetic motif within medieval theodicy and shows how Augustine develops this theme by interweaving his metaphysical moral and aesthetic views of reality Tallon then examines other aesthetic themes within theodicy with special attention to tragedy a motif that has become increasingly integrated into theodicy in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries He shows where tragedy falls short as a sufficient theme for theodicy but also demonstrates how it complements Augustine's theme of cosmic harmony Finally Tallon considers the horror of evil an aesthetic theme that has often been used as an attack on the existence of God but which has recently been used to understand how theodicy should be formulated to respond to the worst evils By digging more deeply into the darker side of aesthetics The Poetics of Evil offers a deeper perception of tragedy and malevolence but also a richer understanding of the Christian response to the problem of evil Theoretical Nursing Afaf Ibrahim Meleis, 2011 An additional assumption was that the processes for theory development were new to nursing and hence nurses in graduate programs learned strategies for advancing knowledge from other disciplines This assumption was debunked with the knowledge that nurses were always engaged in knowledge development driven by their experiences in clinical practice Because of these assumptions most of the early writing about theory development was about outlining strategies that should be used rather than strategies that have already been used in the discipline to develop theories. Theorists themselves did not uncover or adequately discuss ways by which they developed their theories; therefore the tendency was to describe processes that were based on theories developed in other disciplines, mainly the physical and social sciences. And an implicit assumption was made that there should be a single strategy for theory development, some claiming to begin the process from practice and others believing it should be driven by research. Taxes connect us to one another, to the common good, and to the future. This is a book about taxes: who pays what and who gets what. More than that, it's about the role of government, about citizenship, and our collective well-being. About Canada, we want. The contributors, leading Canadian practitioners and scholars, explore how taxes have become a political no-go zone and how changes in taxation are changing Canada. They challenge the view that any tax is a bad tax and provide broad directions for fairer and smarter approaches. This is a book that will be of interest to anyone concerned with public policy and public affairs, economics, and political science, and to anyone interested in challenging the conventional wisdom that lower taxes and smaller government are the cures to what ails us. ABA Journal, 1974-11.
