

The Actual UC Essay Prompts

- #1: Describe an example of your leadership experience in which you have positively influenced others, helped resolve disputes, or contributed to group efforts over time.
- #2: Every person has a creative side, and it can be expressed in many ways: problem solving, original and innovative thinking, and artistically, to name a few. Describe how you express your creative side.
- #3: What would you say is your greatest talent or skill? How have you developed and demonstrated that talent over time?
- #4: Describe how you have taken advantage of a significant educational opportunity or worked to overcome an educational barrier you have faced.
- #5: Describe the most significant challenge you have faced and the steps you have taken to overcome this challenge. How has this challenge affected your academic achievement?
- #6: Think about an academic subject that inspires you. Describe how you have furthered this interest inside and/or outside of the classroom.
- #7: What have you done to make your school or your community a better place?
- #8: Beyond what has already been shared in your application, what do you believe makes you stand out as a strong candidate for admissions to the University of California?

How to Tell the UC Essay Prompts Apart

To help tell the UC personal statement prompts apart, sort them into big-picture categories, so when you're brainstorming ideas you can see where your event or life experience would fit.

- Topics 1 and 7 are about your engagement with the people, things, and ideas around you. Consider the impact of the outside world on you and how you handled that impact.
- Topics 2 and 6 are about your inner self, what defines you, and what makes you the person that you are. Consider your interior makeup, the characteristics of the inner you.
- Topics 3, 4, 5, and 8 are about your achievements. Consider what you've accomplished in life and what you are proud of doing.

These very broad categories will help when you're brainstorming ideas and life experiences to write about for your essay. Of course, it's true that many of the stories you think of can be shaped to fit each of these prompts. Still, think about what the experience most reveals about you.

If it's an experience that shows how you have handled the people and places around you, it'll work better for questions in the first group. If it's a description of how you express yourself, it's a good match for questions in group two. If it's an experience that tells how you acted or what you did, it's probably a better fit for questions in group three.

want to understand how colleges can get better at their most important work they will find invaluable guidance in Changing the Conversation about Higher Education Robert Thompson has brought together the work of more than twenty professionals across thirteen universities to present important research on the obscure issues of vision structure and cultural transformation as they pertain to administrators and faculty The result is a much needed discussion on how to improve faculty and curricular reform for student success Changing the Conversation about Higher Education addresses the contributions and findings from this research and is intended for academic administrators faculty and graduate students who are dedicated to improving undergraduate teaching and learning The research was directed at two core aims of a liberal education critical thinking and writing

Teaching U.S.-Educated Multilingual Writers Mark Roberge, Kay M. Losey, Margi Wald, 2015-06-04 This volume was born to address the lack of classroom oriented scholarship regarding U S educated multilingual writers Unlike prior volumes about U S educated multilinguals this book focuses solely on pedagogy from classroom activities and writing assignments to course curricula and pedagogical support programs outside the immediate classroom Unlike many pedagogical volumes that are written in the voice of an expert researcher theorist this volume is based on the notion of teachers sharing practices with teachers All of the contributors are teachers who are writing about and reflecting on their own experiences and outcomes and interweaving those experiences and outcomes with current theory and research in the field The volume thus portrays teachers as active reflective participants engaged in critical inquiry Contributors represent community college college and university contexts academic ESL developmental writing and first year composition classes and face to face hybrid and online contexts This book was developed primarily to meet the needs of practicing writing teachers in college level ESL basic writing and college composition classrooms but will also be useful to pre service teachers in TESOL Composition and Education graduate programs

The Quest for a Universal Theory of Intelligence Christian Hugo Hoffmann, 2022-05-09 Recent findings about the capabilities of smart animals such as corvids or octopi and novel types of artificial intelligence AI from social robots to cognitive assistants are provoking the demand for new answers for meaningful comparison with other kinds of intelligence This book fills this need by proposing a universal theory of intelligence which is based on causal learning as the central theme of intelligence The goal is not just to describe but mainly to explain queries like why one kind of intelligence is more intelligent than another whatsoever the intelligence Shiny terms like strong AI superintelligence singularity or artificial general intelligence that have been coined by a Babylonian confusion of tongues are clarified on the way

Schissel, 2019-03-07 This book constructs a historical narrative to examine the social consequences of testing faced by language minoritized bilinguals in the United States These consequences are understood with respect to what language minoritized bilinguals faced when they have sought 1 access to civic participation 2 entry into the United States 3 education in K 12 Schools and 4 higher education opportunities By centering the test taker perspective with a use oriented testing approach the historical narrative describes the cumulative nature of these consequences for this community of individuals which demonstrates how the mechanism of testing often in conjunction with other structural and political forces has contributed to the historic systemic marginalization of language minoritized bilinguals in the United States By viewing these experiences with respect to consequential validity the book poses questions to those involved in testing to not only acknowledge these histories but to actively and explicitly incorporate efforts to dismantle these legacies of discrimination The conclusions drawn from the historical analysis add an important perspective for educators and researchers concerned with inequities in the testing of language minoritized bilinguals

The Uses of Photography Jill Dawsey, Pamela M. Lee, Benjamin Young, Judith Rodenbeck, David Antin, 2016-09-21 The Uses of Photography examines a network of artists who were active in Southern California between the late 1960s and early 1980s and whose experiments with photography opened the medium to a profusion of new strategies and subjects These artists introduced urgent social issues and themes of everyday life into the seemingly neutral territory of conceptual art through photographic works that took on hybrid forms from books and postcards to video and text and image installations Tracing a crucial history of photoconceptual practice The Uses of Photography focuses on an artistic community that formed in and around the young University of California San Diego founded in 1960 and its visual arts department founded in 1967 Artists such as Eleanor Antin Allan Kaprow Fred Lonidier Martha Rosler Allan Sekula and Carrie Mae Weems employed photography and its expanded forms as a means to dismantle modernist autonomy to contest notions of photographic truth and to engage in political critique The work of these artists shaped emergent accounts of postmodernism in the visual arts and their influence is felt throughout the global contemporary art world today Contributors include David Antin Pamela M Lee Judith Rodenbeck and Benjamin J Young Published in association with the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego Exhibition dates Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego September 24 2016 January 2 2017 The Routledge International Handbook of Automated Essay Evaluation Mark D. Bodies on the Verge Joseph A. Marchal, 2019-05-24 A collection that resets the terms of interpreting the Pauline letters Interpretation of Paul s letters often proves troubling since people frequently cite them when debating controversial matters of gender and sexuality Rather than focusing on the more common defensive responses to those expected prooftexts that supposedly address homosexuality the essays in this collection reflect the range rigor vitality and creativity of other interpretive options influenced by queer studies Thus key concepts and practices for understanding these letters in terms of history theology empire gender race and ethnicity among others are rethought through queer interventions within both ancient settings and more recent history and literature Features New options for how to interpret and use Paul s letters particularly in light of their use in debates about sexuality and gender Developing approaches in queer studies that help with understanding and using Pauline letters and interpretations differently Key reflections on the two clobber passages Rom 1 26 27 and 1 Cor 6 9 that demonstrate the relevance of a far wider range of texts throughout the Pauline corpus can I balance responsiveness to current demands with responsibility to future generations Every chapter closes with suggestions for group exercises and questions for individual reflection

The Minoan Epiphany - A Bronze Age Visionary Culture Bruce Rimell, 2021-01-02 The art and iconography of the Minoan civilisation of Bronze Age Crete is rightly described as having a refreshing vitality with a fortunate combination of stylisation and spontaneity in which the artist is able to transform conventional imagery into a personal expression The dynamism torsion and naturalism evident in Minoan art stands in stark contrast to the hieratic rigidity of other ancient civilisations and nowhere is this more apparent than in the iconography of the Minoan Epiphany a set of mainly glyptic rings seals and seal impression images which appear to depict religious celebrants experiencing direct and seemingly ecstatic encounters with deities This collection of essays explores this central aspect of Minoan religion taking a strongly archaeological focus to allow the artefacts to speak for themselves and moving from traditional representational interpretations into embodied perspectives in which the ecstatic capabilities of the human body throw new light on Aegean Bronze Age ritual practices Such ideas challenge rather passive assumptions modern Western observers hold about the nature of religious feelings and experiences in particular the depictions of altered states of consciousness in ancient art and the visionary potential of dance gestures Speculative asides on the potential for a Minoan origin for Classical Greek humanism and hints in the imagery on ancient Cretan conceptions of the cosmos are set against sound archaeological theories to explain this lively and dynamic corpus of images Beautifully illustrated with images and sketches of the relevant artefacts this wide ranging volume will stimulate audiences with archaeological prehistorical and spiritual interests as well as historians of religion and art The Minoan Epiphany also represents an influential antecedent to the Visionary Humanist philosophy which forms the majority of Bruce's current independent research interests
