The Business of Higher Institutional Education: Integrating Academic Freedom, Pedagogical Approaches and Constitutionalism Wesahl Domingo,Michele van Eck,2024-12-31

Higher education is facing increasing challenges Economic and financial pressures have heightened the strain on the sustainability of higher education institutions HEIs These pressures have prompted a shift toward adopting business models and commercial practices to maintain institutional operations While these changes have enabled some innovations they have also placed traditional academic dynamics under significant pressure After all the commercialisation of HEIs comes with its own challenges and has influenced directly and indirectly academic freedom constitutional values and established approaches to teaching learning and research This co edited book explores the growing tension between academic freedom and the commercial priorities of HEIs highlighting the challenge of balancing financial sustainability with higher education s function of being centres of knowledge innovation and social change Through an analysis of selected legal academic and operational dimensions this book examines how HEIs can navigate these demands while maintaining their core identity Organised around three key themes the first focuses on the business and commercial aspects of HEIs analysing how these influence institutional operations Topics under this theme include issues such as corruption procurement practices the use of demand guarantees in construction contracts and the legal nature of the student university relationship The second theme examines how the business and commercial focus of HEIs can influence academic freedom Topics under this theme includes an analysis of the rights of academics to freedom of expression and their ability to critique their employers the implications of Ghana s proposed Anti LGBTQ Bill on academic freedom and the effects of disciplinary procedures on academic freedom in Zimbabwean state universities The third theme addresses the impact of commercialisation on teaching learning and pedagogical approaches within HEIs Topics under this theme include the challenges faced by students with disabilities and the role of HEIs in breaking down barriers to inclusion the influence of HEI structures on the decolonisation of international law and the ways in which HEIs responded to the effects of Covid 19 on first year law students at the University of Johannesburg The academic contribution in this book highlights that HEIs serve a critical social function that goes beyond profit making or financial viability This social responsibility rooted in knowledge creation and societal advancement should remain the primary focus Although commercialisation is an unavoidable reality HEIs should ultimately prioritise their social mandate over profit driven objectives ensuring that their core mission is not overshadowed by commercial imperatives

Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country s developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy

Ideology in Postcolonial Texts and Contexts ,2020-11-23 Ideology in Postcolonial Texts and Contexts reflects that critiques of ideological formations occur within intersecting social political and cultural configurations where each position is in itself ideological and subject to asymmetrical power relations Postcolonialism has become an object of critique as ideology but postcolonial studies highly diversified engagement with ideology remains a strong focus that exceeds Ideologiekritik

Fourteen contributors from North America Africa and Europe focus I on the complex relation between postcolonialism postcolonial theory and conceptualizations of ideology II on ideological formations that manifest themselves in very specific postcolonial contexts highlighting the potential continuities between colonial and postcolonial ideology and III on further expanding and complicating the nexus of postcolonial ideology from veiling as both ideological practice and individual resistance to home as ideological construct from palimpsestic readings of colonial photography to aesthetics as ideology

Tell Our Story Julie Reid, Dale T. McKinley, 2020-05-02 Focusing on three South African communities the authors dismiss the idea that some groups are voiceless arguing that they are being deliberately ignored by dominant news media The dominant news media are often accused of reflecting an elite bias privileging and foregrounding the interests of a small segment of society while ignoring the narratives of the majority The authors of Tell Our Story investigate this problem and offer a hands on demonstration of listening journalism and research in practice In the process they dismiss the idea that some groups are voiceless arguing that what is often described in such terms is mostly a matter of those groups being deliberately ignored Focusing their attention on three very different South African communities they delve into the life and struggle narratives of each exposing the divide between the stories told by the people who actually live in the communities and the way in which those stories have been understood and shaped by the media The three communities are those living in the Glebelands hostel complex in Durban where over 100 residents have been killed in politically motivated violence in the past few years the Xolobeni community on the Wild Coast which has been resisting the building of a new toll road and a dune mining venture and Thembelihle a settlement south west of Johannesburg that has been resisting removal for many years The book concludes with a set of practical guidelines for journalists on the practice of listening journalism
