Telling Stories of Pain and Hope Mary Elizabeth Lange, Ruth Teer-Tomaselli, 2024-06-07 The histories of South Africa and Ireland have been tumultuous and traumatic Both countries have experienced political repression sectarian violence and oppression that still impact the spiritual well being of people today Their parallel histories are of colonialism displacement and division and a fight for land and sovereignty Both countries have embarked on a process of healing and reconciliation yet there is an ongoing struggle for reparation and or reversal of previous injustices

Recognising that museums of the 21st century have the potential to contribute to catharsis and mutual understanding this book reflects on selected museums in South Africa and Ireland that commemorate the pain of the past and the hope for the future The primary focus of the book is the way in which museum guides curators and managers share their stories and the stories of their ancestors and the stories of other people s ancestors who were caught up in the conflict while interweaving the stories of the authors as well Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa

Race, Racism, and International Law Devon W. Carbado, Kimberlé Williams Crenshaw, Justin Desautels-Stein, Chantal Thomas, 2025-08-19 What would it look like to place race at the center of international legal scholarship From its inception in the 70s and 80s critical race theory s target was the field of law revealing it to be a repository for racial power This particular critique of law was explosive because of law s putatively apolitical status making it a unique site for an intellectual sit in that has forever changed the way that race and racism are understood in American society Several decades later as indicators of populism and white nationalism spread across North America and Europe critical race theory remains markedly absent from discourses in global affairs and international law This volume opens the door for CRT to enter the international sphere Featuring contributions from 30 of today s leading scholars from around the world Race Racism and International Law explains how the concept of racial difference sits at the foundation of the legal political and social structures of hierarchy that shape the contemporary global order Helmed by four pioneering experts two in CRT and two in international law the volume s approach targets regimes of power and violence that implicate racism capitalism and colonialism This volume lays the groundwork for urgent and provocative new modes of critique and analysis The Changing Face of Colonial Education in Africa Peter Kallaway, 2021-07-29 The Changing Face of Colonial Education in Africa offers a detailed and nuanced perspective of colonial history based on 15 years of research that throws fresh light on the complexities of African history and the colonial world of the first half of the twentieth century It provides an analytical background to the history of education in the colonial context by balancing contributions by missionary agencies colonial government humanitarian agencies scientific experts and African agents It offers a foundation for the analysis of modern educational policy for the postcolonial state It attempts to move beyond clichés about colonial education to an understanding of the complexities of how educational policy was developed in different places at different times while giving credence to arguments that see schooling as a form of social control in the colonial environment It is essential reading for academics researchers and policymakers looking to better understand colonial education and contextualize modern developments related to the decolonizing African education It is intended to provide an essential background for policy makers by demonstrating the significance of a historical perspective for an understanding of contemporary educational challenges in Africa and elsewhere International Perspectives on Older Adult Education Brian Findsen, Marvin Formosa, 2015-12-29 This important book builds on recent publications in lifelong learning which focus on learning and education in later life This work breaks new ground in international understandings of what constitutes later life learning across diverse cultures in manifold countries or regions across the world Containing 42 separate country regional analyses of later life learning the overall significance resides in insiders conceptualisations and critique of this emerging sub field of lifelong learning and adult education International perspectives on older adult education provides new appreciation of what is happening in countries from Europe 14 Africa 10 the Americas 7 Asia 9 and Australasia 2 as authored by adult educators and or social gerontologists in respective geographical areas These analyses are contextualised by a thorough introduction and critical appraisal where trends and fresh insights are revealed The outcome of this book is a never before available critique of what it means to be an older learner in specific nations and the accompanying opportunities and barriers for learning and education The sub title of research policy and practice conveys the territory that authors traverse in which rhetoric and reality are interrogated Coverage in chapters includes conceptual analysis historical patterns of provision policy developments theoretical perspectives research studies challenges faced by countries and success stories of later life learning The resultant effect is a vivid portrayal of a vast array of learning that occurs in later life across the globe Brian Findsen is Professor of Education and Postgraduate Leader for Te Whiringa School of Educational Leadership and Policy Faculty of Education University of Waikato Hamilton New Zealand Marvin Formosa is Head of the Department of Gerontology Faculty for Social Wellbeing University of Malta and Director of the International Institute on Ageing United Nations Malta Memory Mosaics: Researching Teacher Professional Learning Through Artful
