Un Avenir Pour La Jeunesse:

La Politique de la jeunesse en Roumanie Conseil de l'Europe. Comité directeur européen pour la jeunesse. Congrès, 2001-01-01 La correspondance entre Louis Dantin et la « jeunesse littéraire » des années 1930 Collectif, 2022-04-13 T00:00:00-04:00 Un nouveau pan de l'extraordinaire correspondance du critique etcrivain Louis Dantin est désormais mis au grand jour grâce à ce deuxième tome rassemblant plus de 300 lettres pour la plupart inédites échangées avec la jeunesse littéraire des années 1930 Ces sept correspondances livrent un tableau saisissant de ce qu'il est convenu d'appeler la première modernité littéraire au Québec par le regard de ceux et celles qui la font naître la nouvelle garde d'crivains d'crivaines et d'citeurs et leur aînés Ces correspondances dévoilent les arcanes d'un groupe étroitement lié par l'amitié littéraire qu'Alfred DesRochers a appelé les Individualistes de 1925 tous nés autour de 1900 Jovette Bernier Robert Choquette Alice Lemieux Simone Routier et va Sen cal Elles sont présentes dans des lettres de deux grands acteurs de l'édition et de la critique du temps Albert Lévesque et Albert Pelletier Véritable chronique des années 1930 ces lettres donnent la parole aux acteurs et actrices incontournables du renouveau littéraire qui s'amorce alors attestant entre autres de l'accession souvent périlleuse des femmes à la critique de leurs luttes pour l'émancipation littéraire De plus elles témoignent du rôle stratégique d'Albert Lévesque comme principal critique littéraire et d'Albert Pelletier comme critique incisif souvent craint Au centre de ce réseau la figure de Louis Dantin se pose comme mentor dont la critique intime a constitué un encouragement décisif pour cette jeune troupe comme le lui confie Alice Lemieux J'ai dit si souvent en France comme ici que Dantin était notre seul critique Les autres me coupaient les ailes Les traductions françaises du De regimine principum de Gilles de Rome Noëlle-Laetitia Perret, 2011-05-23 This book deals with the different translations into Old French of Giles of Rome's De regimine principum dedicated to Philippe le Bel around 1279 and their readership First hand manuscript research has permitted us to understand not only the general context of their production but also the social conditions of their transmission and circulation This work concentrates on different aspects of the reception of Giles of Rome's pedagogical ideas by his translators who are by no means passive in this process This book provides not only a concrete idea of what Giles of Rome's educational ideas became when mediated for the consumption of a lay public but also how the translators in their translations supported the transmission of reappropriated knowledge La politique de la jeunesse à Malte Conseil de l'Europe, 2001-01-01 Le journal de la jeunesse Francisque Sarcey, 1903 Les jeunes non scolarisés d'Afrique subsaharienne Keiko Inoue, Emanuela di Gropello, Yesim Sayin Taylor, James Gresham, 2015-07-14 The economic and social prospects are daunting for the 89 million out of school youth who comprise nearly half of all youth in Sub-Saharan Africa Within the next decade when this cohort becomes the core of the labor market an estimated 40 million more youth will drop out and will face an uncertain future with limited work and life skills Furthermore out of school youth often are policy orphans positioned between sectors with little data low implementation capacity lack of interest in long term sustainability of programs insufficient funds and little coordination across the different government agencies This report provides a diagnostic analysis of the state of out of school youth in Sub Saharan Africa focusing on the 12 to 24 year old cohort This report also examines the decision path youth take as they progress through the education system and the factors that explain youth s school and work choices It finds that individual and household characteristics social norms and characteristics of the school system all matter in understanding why youth drop out and remain out of school In particular six key factors characterize out of school youth i most out of school youth drop out before secondary school ii early marriage for female youth and iii rural residence increase the likelihood of being out of school iv parental education level and v the number of working adults are important household factors and vi lack of school access and low educational quality are binding supply side constraints Policy discussions on out of school youth are framed by these six key factors along with three entry points for intervention retention remediation and integration This report also reviews policies and programs in place for out of school youth across the continent Ultimately this report aims to inform public discussion policy formulation and development practitioners actions working with youth in Sub Saharan Africa

Problèmes de la jeune génération Ernst Fischer, 1968

Cent ans de catholicisme au Mali Pierre Diarra, 2009

Quel bilan peut-on établir de cent années de mission catholique au Mali ? Tel est l'objet de ce livre de Pierre Diarra où il revient de solides qualités d'historien d'anthropologue et de théologien de la mission. Ce livre est un constat courageux lucide fondé sur une analyse précise des données historiques. Le dépouillement des archives des congrégations missionnaires et surtout celui de nombreux diaires lui permettent d'appréhender les réalités quotidiennes aussi bien dans le domaine de la santé de l'instruction du rôle des femmes que dans celui des relations entre missionnaires et administrateurs coloniaux. La précision des notes les citations de documents inédits sur la colonisation puis sur le clergé malien attestent de la richesse de l'information réunie par l'auteur. Au Soudan puis au Mali la très grande majorité de la population 92 % est musulmane. Le reste qualifié animiste et de traditionnel a constitué le champ ouvert à l'évangélisation mais ne représente que 2,5 %. Ce qui explique le choix des missions de s'implanter parmi les peuples résistants à l'islam à l'instar des Bwa qui ont accueilli assez largement le catholicisme. Hostiles à l'islam il faut se demander pourquoi ils se convertissent. A cette question complexe mais fondamentale Pierre Diarra apporte plusieurs réponses. L'auteur tente aussi de comprendre les diverses attitudes de l'Eglise face aux problèmes socio-économiques de la période de l'indépendance. S'il note le caractère ethnique du catholicisme au Mali source d'un certain désengagement des nouveaux chrétiens et de leur mise à l'écart de la vie politique faut-il pour autant parler de échec ? Se fondant sur la conception de la vie dans l'initiation coutumière et faisant sien l'apport de la sagesse traditionnelle il esquisse une théologie de la mission qui insiste sur la gratuité du christianisme mais en même temps implique une responsabilité des chrétiens du Mali appelés à une action politique et sociale. Il faut saluer la parution d'un tel livre qui au-delà de l'exemple particulier du Mali informe questionne suggère de nombreuses pistes de réflexion sur l'inculturation de la foi chrétienne en Afrique au sud du Sahara.
