Un Homme Qui Dort Georges Perec:

Un homme qui dort Georges Perec, 1967 Georges Perec Manet van Montfrans, 1999 Jongleur virtuose de mots et de formes observateur attentif de son époque conteur intarissable Georges Perec 1936 1982 est un écrivain dont la renommée ne cesse de croître auprès d'un public très diversifié en France et à l'étranger La discrétion et l'humour de Perec ont pu masquer en un premier temps le véritable enjeu de son œuvre Depuis le milieu des années quatre-vingt on voit cependant se développer une sensibilité accrue à la place que l'Histoire tient dans l'œuvre de cet auteur né en 1936 à Paris dans une famille d'immigrants d'origine juive polonaise Cet ouvrage retrace d'une part l'élaboration progressive de la poétique perécquienne qui s'est nourrie des expérimentations littéraires et des échanges intellectuels au sein de l'Oulipo D'autre part il confronte ce projet d'écriture à l'analyse de trois textes narratifs Un homme qui dort W ou le souvenir d'enfance et Un cabinet d'amateur Écrire est selon Perec un jeu qui se joue à deux entre l'écrivain et le lecteur Une fois qu'il s'est laissé séduire par les énigmes de ces textes le lecteur doit accepter de suivre Perec à tâtons dans les méandres de son labyrinthe Ce n'est que lorsqu'il consent à s'associer patiemment au mouvement de l'auteur qu'il comprendra ce autour de quoi tournent ces textes et vers quoi sans cesse ils retournent Un homme qui dort, pièce de Georges Perec, 2012

Autobiographies Claire Boyle, 2007 Since 1975 French literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the French term criture de soi This coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned In the first book length study in English to address this phenomenon Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post war authors Nathalie Sarraute Georges Perec Jean Genet and Hélène Cixous She identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self Everyday Life Michael Sheringham, 2006-03-09 In the last twenty years the concept of the quotidien or the everyday has been prominent in contemporary French culture and in British and American cultural studies This book provides the first comprehensive analytical survey of the whole field of approaches to the everyday It offers firstly a historical perspective demonstrating the importance of mainstream and dissident Surrealism the indispensable contribution over a 20 year period 1960-80 of four major figures Henri Lefebvre Roland Barthes Michel de Certeau and Georges Perec and the recent proliferation of works that investigate everyday experience Secondly it establishes the framework of philosophical ideas on which discourses on the everyday depend but which they characteristically subvert

Thirdly it comprises searching analyses of works in a variety of genres including fiction the essay poetry theatre film photography and the visual arts consistently stressing how explorations of the everyday tend to question and combine genres in richly creative ways By demonstrating the enduring contribution of Perec and others and exploring the Surrealist inheritance the book proposes a genealogy for the remarkable upsurge of interest in the everyday since the 1980s A second main objective is to raise questions about the dimension of experience addressed by artists and thinkers when they invoke the quotidien or related concepts Does the everyday refer to an objective content defined by particular activities or is it best thought of in terms of rhythm repetition festivity ordinariness the generic the obvious the given Are there events or acts that are uniquely everyday or is the quotidien a way of thinking about events and acts in the here and now as opposed to the longer term What techniques or genres are best suited to conveying the nature of everyday life The book explores these questions in a comparative spirit drawing new parallels between the work of numerous writers and artists including Andr Breton Raymond Queneau Walter Benjamin Michel Leiris Maurice Blanchot Michel Foucault Stanley Cavell Annie Ernaux Jacques R da and Sophie Calle

Life as Creative Constraint Anna Kemp, 2021-08-15 Life as Creative Constraint is the first book to focus on the extraordinary life writing of the French experimental writing group the Oulipo The Oulipo s enthusiasm for literary games and formal gymnastics has seen its work caricatured as lifeless impressively virtuoso but more interested in form than content and ultimately disengaged from the world This book examines a broad corpus of work by Georges Perec Marcel B nabou Jacques Roubaud and Anne F Garr ta to show that despite the group s early devotion to the radical impersonality of mathematics later generations of oulipians have brought the group s fascination with systems games and constraints to bear on autobiography Far from being lifeless oulipian constraints and concepts provide the tools that allow writers to engage critically and creatively with lived experience and mine the potential of the autobiographical genre The games played by these writers are not simply pastimes or cunning writing techniques but modes of survival self examination self invention and relating to the world and to others As the title of Georges Perec s masterpiece suggests they are a mode d emploi for life
