Inside South Africa's Foreign Policy John Siko,2014-06-16 South Africa is a major player in African diplomacy Its economic diplomatic and military resources far outstrip those of other nations on the continent and it has since the country s 1994 democratic transition sought to take a lead role in the continent s relations with other power blocs particularly during the 1999 2008 presidency of Thabo Mbeki While Mbeki s push for greater African engagement in the global political sphere drew widespread praise other positions notably its seeming inaction toward Zimbabwe and perceived abandonment of its stated emphasis on human rights in foreignpolicy were more controversial both at home and abroad John Siko has had insider access to South Africa s leading foreign policy players and has been able to ask why Pretoria has taken its various stances and who has mattered in influencing those decisions a topic little examined since 1994 In addition he examines the foreign policy process over the past century determining that despite ANC promises of greater democratic engagement on foreign policy the process has changed quite little

Bongila,2024-11-15 This comparative study of teacher attrition in the Global South and OECD countries examines the exceptionality of twenty selected learning leaders in the D R Congo Ghana and Uganda who have stayed in the teaching profession and led their student learning with devotion and integrity Like any learning leader exceptional teachers live the challenges and pressures that have caused some of their peers to leave the profession The extraordinary learning leaders from elementary secondary and higher education have stood victorious amid education devaluations and professional tensions The author gives voice to those exceptional teachers and analyzes the ethical rationale behind their unfailing commitment to their teaching vocation Their teaching philosophies and personal accounts revealed altruistic impulses This book further explores the exceptional teachers narratives and their selfless actions through the lens of philanthropic and leadership ethics theories Although the exceptional teachers altruism appears self sacrificing it embodies some form of self benefit because one can hardly fathom altruism for altruism s sake Nevertheless the twenty exceptional teachers acted in a self sacrificing manner The author appeals to the Global South countries to implement education policies that should redecorate the profession of learning leadership
