Study on impacts of farmer-led research supported by civil society organizations Wettasinha, C.,Waters-Bayer, A.,van Veldhuizen, L.,Quiroga, G.,Swaans, K.,2015-01-15 Decades of scientific research related to agriculture and natural resource management have brought limited benefits to smallholder farmers including crop farmers fishers livestock keepers and other resource users Therefore donors policymakers and civil society organizations CSOs such as farmer organizations and nongovernmental organizations NGOs are urging the formal research sector to make its work more useful to smallholder farmers Many institutions of agricultural research and development are now seeking ways to engage more closely with smallholders in order to conduct research that is more relevant for and accessible to them and are seeking examples and good practices as sources of learning Some examples of research that is focused on smallholders and in which the process is co managed and driven by smallholders can be found in informal research initiatives specifically those which are facilitated by CSOs The purpose of this study was to identify such examples of informal agricultural research and development that could be documented and thus made accessible to formal researchers This report also describes farmer led research findings and their dissemination and analyzes available evidence on the impact of farmer led approaches to agricultural research and development on rural livelihoods local capacity to innovate and adapt and influence on governmental institutions of agricultural research and development Just Work? Track Land Reform in Zimbabwe Lionel Cliffe, Jocelyn Alexander, Ben Cousins, Rudo Gaidzanwa, 2014-06-11 The struggle over land has been the central issue in Zimbabwe ever since white settlers began to carve out large farms over a century ago. Their monopolisation of the better watered half of the land was the focus of the African war of liberation war and was partially modified following Independence in 1980. A dramatic further episode in this history was launched at the start of the last decade with the occupation of many farms by groups of African veterans of the liberation struggle and their supporters which was then institutionalised by legislation to take over most of the large commercial farms for sub division. Sustained fieldwork over the intervening years by teams of scholars and experts and by individual researchers is now generating an array of evidence based findings of the outcomes: how land was acquired and disposed of, how it has been used, how far new farmers have carved out new livelihoods and viable new communities, the major political and economic problems they and other stakeholders such as former farm workers, commercial farmers and the overall rural society now face. This book will be an essential starting place for analysts, policy makers, historians and activists seeking to understand what has happened and to spotlight the key issues for the next decade. This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies.

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society Robert W. Kolb, 2018-03-27 Thoroughly revised, updated and expanded, The SAGE Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society Second Edition explores current topics such as mass social media, cookies and cyber attacks as well as traditional issues including accounting, discrimination, environmental concerns and management. The new edition also includes an in depth examination of current and recent ethical affairs such as the dangerous work environments of off shore factories for Western retailers, the negligence resulting in the 2010 BP oil spill, the gender wage gap, the minimum wage debate and increasing income disparity and the unparalleled level of debt in the U S and other countries with the challenges it presents to many societies and the considerable impact on the ethics of intergenerational wealth transfers. Key Features Include: Seven volumes available in both electronic and print formats contain more than 1 200 signed entries by significant figures in the field. Cross references and suggestions for further readings to guide students to in depth resources. Thematic Reader's Guide groups related entries by general topics. Index allows for thorough browse and search capabilities in the electronic edition.

Advances in Managing Humanitarian Operations

Christopher W. Zobel, Nezi Altay, Mark P. Haselkorn, 2015-12-17 This volume provides a survey of current research problems and results in humanitarian operations research. Additionally it discusses existing applications of humanitarian operations research and considers new research efforts that clearly extend existing research and applications. The book is divided into three sections that provide an overview of the subject, a look at the theory and an examination of applications. The overview section presents chapters on modeling approaches and metrics to evaluate nonprofit operations, chief findings of fieldwork research in disaster response logistics, the use of cash as a form of relief and measuring markets that supply cash based humanitarian interventions The theory section includes chapters that examine the partner proliferation problem in disaster response networks a case study of humanitarian logistics that examines how humanitarian culture informs change adoption and a look at the current state of the art for information visibility in humanitarian operations Finally the application section focuses on blood products vaccines and food assistance with individual chapters on efficient inventorying and distribution of blood products during disasters a detailed look at modeling in the context of the vaccine supply chain a framework for achieving equity effectiveness and efficiency in food bank operations and a spatio temporal vulnerability assessment of the resilience of a population affected by sudden lack of food Evaluating Climate Change Action for Sustainable Development Juha I. Uitto, Jyotsna Puri, Rob D. van den Berg, 2017-01-11 This book is open access under a Creative Commons license This authoritative book presents the ever progressing state of the art in evaluating climate change strategies and action It builds upon a selection of relevant and practical papers and presentations given at the 2nd International Conference on Evaluating Climate Change and Development held in Washington DC in 2014 and includes perspectives from independent evaluations of the major international organisations supporting climate action in developing countries such as the Global Environment Facility The first section of the book sets the stage and provides an overview of independent evaluations carried out by multilateral development banks and development organisations Important topics include how policies and organisations aim to achieve impact and how this is measured whether climate change is mainstreamed into other development programs and whether operations are meeting the urgency of climate change challenges The following sections focus on evaluation of climate change projects and policies as they link to development from the perspective of international organisations NGO s multilateral and bilateral aid agencies and academia The authors share methodologies or approaches used to better understand problems and assess interventions strategies and policies They also share challenges encountered what was done to solve these and lessons learned from evaluations Collectively the authors illustrate the importance of evaluation in providing evidence to guide policy change to informed decision making Political Handbook of the World 2015 Tom Lansford, 2015-03-24 The Political Handbook of the World provides timely thorough and accurate political information with more in depth coverage of current political controversies than any other reference guide The updated 2015 edition will continue to be the most authoritative source for finding complete facts and analysis on each country s governmental and political makeup Compiling in one place more than 200 entries on countries and territories throughout the world this volume is renowned for its extensive coverage of all major and minor political parties and groups in each political system It also provides names of key ambassadors and international memberships of each country plus detailed profiles of more than 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies And this annual update includes coverage of current events issues crises and controversies from the course of this year Achieving a nutrition revolution for Africa Hendriks, Sheryl L., 2016-10-17 Focusing the 2015 Annual Trends and Outlook Report ATOR on nutrition will contribute to a broader understanding of the critical role of nutrition in achieving international continental and national economic growth targets through agriculture food security and nutrition This report presents information and analysis in support of evidence based policy making that should inform the second generation of CAADP national investment plans now being developed This is an important moment for shaping the region s future and ensuring that the much needed agriculture led growth and development agenda can simultaneously deliver on improving nutrition saving lives improving productivity and health and curbing nutrition related diseases and the associated public health expenditures These investment plans should address not only the usual elements of undernutrition but also widespread micronutrient deficiencies termed hidden hunger and the growing problem of overweight and obesity that is associated with economic growth
