Andrea Cornwall, Frank G.
Karioris, Nancy Lindisfarne

Zimsec June 2014 Science Paper 3:

Masculinities under Neoliberalism Andrea Cornwall, Frank G. Kariotis, Nancy Lindisfarne, 2016-05-15 Neoliberalism has had a radical impact on the lived gendered experiences of people around the world But while the gendered dimensions of neoliberalism have already received significant scholarly attention the existing literature has given little consideration to men's identities and experiences Building on the work of Cornwall and Lindisfarne's landmark text Dislocating Masculinity this collection provides a fresh perspective on gender dynamics under neoliberalism Bringing together a series of short readable case studies drawn from new ethnographic fieldwork its subjects range from the experiences of working class men in Putin's Russia to colonial masculinities in Southern Rhodesia and from young British Muslim men to amateur footballers in Jamaica

Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove, Geoff Harris, 2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub-Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub-Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it

Sustainable Development in Africa Walter Leal Filho, Rudi Pretorius, Luiza Olim de Sousa, 2021-07-09 This book serves the purpose of documenting and promoting African experiences on sustainable development which encompasses both formal and non formal education Sustainable development is very important to Africa but there is a paucity of publication which documents and promotes experiences from African countries Due to their complexity the interrelations between social economic and political factors related to sustainable development especially at universities need to be better understood There is also a real need to showcase successful examples of how African institutions are handling their sustainability challenges It is against this background that this book has been produced It is a truly interdisciplinary publication useful to scholars social movements practitioners and members of governmental agencies and private companies undertaking research and or executing projects focusing on sustainability from across Africa As African nations strive to pursue the UN Sustainable Development Goals it is imperative to cater for the information needs seen across the continent and foster the dissemination of experiences and case studies which may support both on going and future efforts The scope of the book is deliberately kept wide and we are looking for contributions across the spectrum of sustainable development from business and economics to arts and fashion administration environment languages and media studies

The Right to Development in Africa Carol Chi Ngang, 2021-10-18 In The Right to Development in Africa Carol Chi Ngang provides a conceptual analysis of the human right to development with a decolonial critique of the requirement to have recourse to development cooperation as a mechanism for its realisation In his argumentation the setbacks to development in Africa are not necessarily caused by the absence of development assistance but principally as a result of the lack of an operational model to steer the processes for development towards the highest attainable standard of living for the peoples of Africa Basing on the decolonial and capability theories he posits for a shift in development thinking from dependence on development assistance to an alternative model suited to Africa which he defines as the right to development governance Zimbabwe Youth Investment Case

Centre,2015 Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Publications,2015-09-10 The African continent is currently in the midst of simultaneously unfolding and highly significant demographic economic technological environmental urban and socio political transitions Africa s economic performance is promising with booming cities supporting growing middle classes and creating sizable consumer markets Despite significant overall growth the continent continues to suffer under very rapid urban growth accompanied by massive urban poverty and many other social problems These seem to indicate that the development trajectories followed by African nations since post independence may not be able to deliver on the aspirations of broad based human development and prosperity for all This report therefore argues for a bold re imagining of prevailing models in order to steer the ongoing transitions towards greater sustainability based on a thorough review of all available options That is especially the case since the already daunting urban challenges in Africa are now being exacerbated by the new vulnerabilities and threats associated with climate and environmental change

More than two years into the life of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development this report calls for dramatic advances in statistics financing and policies for gender equality as well as more determined steps towards democratic governance and accountability Based on robust data and expert analysis the report takes stock of where we stand on key aspects of gender equality globally tells us what is needed to monitor progress meaningfully and provides wideranging recommendations for change Urbanization and Industrialization for Africa's Transformation ,2017 The 2017 Economic Report on Africa focuses on the linkages between industrialization and urbanization Urbanization is one of Africa mega trends with profound implications for the social economic environmental dimensions of growth and transformation Theory and experience demonstrate that industrialization and urbanization can be mutually reinforcing processes It is therefore imperative to explore the linkages between urbanization and industrialization given the profound implications for structural transformation in Africa So far current policy narratives and frameworks on structural transformation and industrialization in Africa have largely failed to factor in the spatial and urban dimensions of industrialization and in particular the advantages presented by productivity enhancement and agglomeration effects generated by cities Yet the nexus between urbanization and industrialization is of particular relevance for Agenda 2063 and the 2030 Agenda on Sustainable Development Both agendas recognize urbanization as a critical factor for sustainable development It is also important to consider urbanization and industrialization in light of Africa s engagement with the Third United Nations Conference on Housing and Sustainable Urban Development Habitat III to be held in Quito Ecuador in October 2016 In this context African policy makers have clearly recognized urbanization as an engine of structural transformation for inclusive and sustainable growth Regional Development Dialogue ,2014 An international journal focusing on third world development problems Accessions List, Eastern and Southern Africa Library of Congress.
