Zimsec November 2013 History Paper 1

Graham Connah

Zimsec November 2013 History Paper 1:

Presidents for Life in Sub-Saharan Africa Teresa Nogueira Pinto, 2025-11-13 Teresa Nogueira Pinto analyzes how Robert Mugabe and Paul Kagame developed narratives to legitimize and entrench their power in Rwanda and Zimbabwe. From South America to Eastern Europe, semi-authoritarian leaders often deploy strategies of power legitimation rooted in historical legacies, political institutions, legal and constitutional frameworks, economic conditions, and shifting regional and international dynamics. This framework is particularly pertinent in an era when authoritarianism is evolving and liberal democracy is facing a prolonged period of decline. In Presidents for Life in Sub-Saharan Africa, Unpuzzling Authoritarianism in Zimbabwe and Rwanda, Pinto examines how Robert Mugabe and Paul Kagame used these strategies in their personalized semi-authoritarian and resilient regimes in Sub-Saharan Africa, as well as how their claims to legitimacy were challenged by opponents and civil society. She emphasizes that these strategies are not developed in isolation but have instead emerged from leaders' continuous interactions and negotiations in legal, political, and economic spheres. Recognizing that the legitimation of power operates across different dimensions, this book adopts a multidimensional approach to show how authoritarian leadership is constructed and challenged. Through comparison of these two African leaders, this book unveils the tactics used by authoritarian leaders to consolidate power and navigate threats to their authority.

Remembering Colonialism in Zimbabwe Ivan Marowa, Ushehweu Kufakurinani, 2023-12-14 This book examines the various ways in which colonialism in Zimbabwe is remembered, looking both at how people analyse, perceive, and interpret the past and how they rewrite that past, elevating some players and their historical agency. Inspired by the ongoing movement on decoloniality, this book examines the ways in which generations of today question and challenge colonialism's legacies and their role in Zimbabwe's collective memories and history. The book analyses the memorialising of both Mugabe and Mnangagwa in their speeches and during the political transition, before going on to trace the continuing impact of colonialism across areas as diverse as dress code, place naming, agriculture, religion, gender, and in marginalised communities such as the BaKalanga. Drawing on the expertise of Zimbabwean scholars, this book will appeal to researchers of decolonisation and of African history and memory.

Post-colonial struggles for a democratic Southern Africa Carolyn Bassett, Marlea Clarke, 2017-06-26 National liberation, one of the grand narratives of the twentieth century, has left a weighty legacy of unfulfilled dreams. This book explores the ongoing struggle for legitimate, accountable political leaders in postcolonial Southern Africa, focussing on dilemmas arising when ex-liberation movements form the governments. While the spread of multi-party democracy to most countries in the region is to be celebrated, democratic practice often has been superficial, a limited elitist politics that relies on the symbols of the liberation struggle to legitimate de facto one-party rule and authoritarian practices. Using country cases from Tanzania, Swaziland, Zimbabwe, South Africa, and Zambia, the collection explores three subthemes relevant to postcolonial governance in Southern Africa: how the struggle for liberation shapes the character of political transformation.

the nature of rule in one party dominant states headed by former liberation movements and the processes of governance and resistance in post liberation contexts This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies Memory and Cultural Landscape at the Khami World Heritage Site, Zimbabwe Ashton

Sinamai, 2018-10-10 This book focuses on a forgotten place the Khami World Heritage site in Zimbabwe It examines how professionally ascribed values and conservation priorities affect the cultural landscape when there is a disjuncture between local community and national interests and explores the epistemic violence that often accompanied colonial heritage management and archaeology in southern Africa The central premise is that the history of the modern Zimbabwe nation in terms of what is officially remembered and celebrated inevitably determines how that past is managed It is about how places are experienced and remembered through narratives and how the loss of this heritage memory may mark the un-inheriting of place Memory and Cultural Landscape at the Khami World Heritage Site Zimbabwe is informed by the author's experience of living near and working at Great Zimbabwe and Khami as an archaeologist and uses archives and traditional narratives to build a biography for this lost cultural landscape Whereas Great Zimbabwe is a resource for the state's contentious narrative of unity and a tool for cultural activism among communities whose cultural rights are denied through the nationalisation and globalisation heritage at Khami which has lost its historical gravity there is only silence Researchers and students of cultural heritage will find this book a much needed case study on heritage identity community and landscape from an African perspective Regional Intervention Politics in Africa Stefanie Wodrig, 2017-02-24 This book analyses regional interventions in African conflict spaces by engaging with political discourse theory Interventions are a performance of agency but what happens if interventions are performed by forces that scholars have hardly ever considered as relevant agents in this regard Based on a study of regional politics towards the crises in Burundi and Zimbabwe the book analyses how these interventions shaped and changed the emerging regional interveners The book engages political discourse theory proposing an understanding of intervention as a field in which multiple and heterogeneous interpretations of the violence the crisis and the future post conflict order meet It is not hard to imagine that this encounter is not harmonious per se but full of frictions By making use of political discourse theory as a grammar for studying the complexity of an intervention the focus is directed to the emerging subjectivities of regional interveners This enables a view of regional interventions that neither reduces their subjectivity to universalist categories associated with liberal peace nor overenthusiastically embraces them as the solution to all problems This book will be of interest to students of international intervention discourse theory African politics war and conflict studies security studies and IR New Leaders, New Dawns? Chris Brown, David Moore, Blair

Rutherford, 2022-06-17 In late 2017 and early 2018 South Africa and Zimbabwe both experienced rapid and unexpected political transitions In Zimbabwe Robert Mugabe the only leader the country had ever known was replaced in a soft coup by his erstwhile vice president Emmerson Mnangagwa Over a twelve day period in February 2018 South African president Jacob

Zuma was prematurely forced from office by his former deputy president Cyril Ramaphosa. The widespread popular rejoicing that accompanied their arrival compounded the shock of these sudden transitions. New Leaders New Dawns explores these political transitions and the way they were received. Contributors consider how the former liberation heroes Mugabe and Zuma could have fallen so low, the underlying reasons for their ouster, what happened to their liberation movements, turned ruling parties and perhaps most importantly, what the rise to power of Ramaphosa and Mnangagwa foreshadowed. Bringing together fourteen leading international scholars of southern Africa and adopting a political economy framework, this volume argues that the changes in leadership are welcome but insufficient. While the time had come for Zuma and Mugabe to go, there is little in the personal histories or early policy actions of Ramaphosa and Mnangagwa that suggests they will be capable of addressing the profound social, economic and political problems both countries face. New Leaders New Dawns reveals that despite what these new leaders may have promised, a new dawn has not yet arrived in southern Africa.

African Transnational Diasporas D. Pasura, 2014-05-19. Pasura proposes a framework for understanding African diasporas as core, epistemic, dormant and silent diasporas. The book explores the origin, formation and performance of the Zimbabwean transnational diaspora in Britain and examines how the diaspora is constituted in the hostland and how it maintains connections with the homeland. The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Human Settlements Programme, 2013. Nairobi: UN Habitat. c2014. 9789211325980. The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Publications, 2015-09-10. The African continent is currently in the midst of simultaneously unfolding and highly significant demographic, economic, technological, environmental, urban and socio-political transitions. Africa's economic performance is promising, with booming cities supporting growing middle classes and creating sizable consumer markets. Despite significant overall growth, the continent continues to suffer under very rapid urban growth accompanied by massive urban poverty and many other social problems. These seem to indicate that the development trajectories followed by African nations since post-independence may not be able to deliver on the aspirations of broad-based human development and prosperity for all. This report therefore argues for a bold re-imagining of prevailing models in order to steer the ongoing transitions towards greater sustainability, based on a thorough review of all available options. That is especially the case since the already daunting urban challenges in Africa are now being exacerbated by the new vulnerabilities and threats associated with climate and environmental change. Accumulation by Dispossession and Local Livelihood Insecurity La Ring, 2018. The Times Index, 2007. Indexes the Times and its supplements. International African Bibliography, 2004. The So Pota of Central Africa Graham Connah, 2019. African Archaeology Volume 91. This book is an original study of very large pots in parts of Chad, Cameroon and Nigeria. Found in excavations and surface fieldwork, they have been attributed to the So, a group of pre-Islamic inhabitants of the area before the sixteenth century AD, who have become mythologised as giants. Originally for burial, in some cases the pots have been dug up by villagers and reused for brewing beer or as dye pits for indigo cloth. The book focuses on a group of these pots that survived until the late twentieth century in villages in a small part of Borno north eastern Nigeria With the passage of time and terrorist activities in the region their fate is now unknown and the photographs from 1963 to 1993 reproduced in this book have become a major archive of an unusual pottery group Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Africa Human Development Report 2016 United Nations Publications,2016 This year s report on gender equality reviews the ongoing efforts of African countries to accelerate the pace of assuring women s empowerment through all spheres of society in the home and community in health and educational attainment in the workplace and in political participation and leadership
