Civil Society in Zimbabwe Mandlenkosi Mpofu, Dion Nkomo, Kirk Helliker, 2025-09-01 This book considers the historical and spatial dimensions of civil society in Zimbabwe's Matabeleland region an area suffering from severe development and democratic deficits over many decades Transcending an organisational conception of civil society and a simplistic state civil society dualist understanding it recognises the dynamic character of civil society as a social space inclusive of less formalised associational forms of collective life as well as the colonial character and legacies of civil society both analytically and empirically This book facilitates a nuanced understanding of the specificities of the social political and economic evolution of Matabeleland in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe and the region's troubled relations with the central state Historically it traces civil society in Matabeleland from the region's resistance against the colonial settler state to contemporary struggles for justice given the unresolved Gukurahundi legacy Civil society is depicted as constituted by a set of complex and shifting struggles for justice not simply between Matabeleland and the central state but also internally within Matabeleland along multiple fault lines including class and culture The relevance of understanding civil society in Matabeleland for Zimbabwe and Africa more widely is brought to the fore The book will be of interest and value to scholars of civil society politics and democratisation across the African continent

On the public role of the Bible in Zimbabwe Masiwa Ragies Gunda, 2015-03-26 Volume 18 of BiAS series is dedicated to critically unpack the meaning of the call to re write the Bible made by the first President of Zimbabwe Canaan S Banana in 1991 In this book the author engages with Banana's written works and makes critical observations regarding the call to re write the Bible This book argues that re writing was proposed as a means to an end by Banana It is demonstrated that what Banana intended was eradicating injustice violence and inequality in the Middle East which was fuelled by the ideology of chosenness which was sustained by a use of the Bible Once it became clear the end was not re writing the Bible this work moved on to consider alternative means to achieving the same end The search for alternatives leads the author to consider the way of Europe that is de biblification or a watered down biblification which is named partial de biblification in this work Finally the author proposes a critical biblification as a viable alternative to re writing or de biblification This book in honor of Banana calls for socially and contextually relevant biblical studies

Accessions List, Eastern and Southern Africa Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, Nairobi, Kenya,1997 Historical Dictionary of Zimbabwe Steven C. Rubert,Kent R. Rasmussen,2001-07-17 Zimbabwe one of Africa s longer more promising countries has been in the news a lot recently for all the wrong reasons This more than justifies a third edition Zimbabwe has witnessed an incredible amount of history in the relatively short span of eighteen years The new edition of this dictionary updates the dictionary to keep it abreast of the changes in the country Hundreds of fresh entries cover new political leaders changing governmental cultural and economic developments and scores of place name changes There were also corrections to existing entries and an expanded bibliography Joint Acquisitions List of Africana, 1992 The Relationship of Production Type to Resource Stock Manipulation in Chipinge District, Zimbabwe Arnold Leroy Gray, 1989 Working Together for Endangered Languages Foundation for Endangered Languages. Conference, Foundation for Endangered Languages, 2007 Moto, 1998 Education and Development in Zimbabwe Edward Shizha, Michael T. Kariwo, 2012-01-01 The book represents a contribution to policy formulation and design in an increasingly knowledge economy in Zimbabwe It challenges scholars to think about the role of education its funding and the egalitarian approach to widening access to education The nexus between education democracy and policy change is a complex one The book provides an illuminating account of the constantly evolving notions of national identity language and citizenship from the Zimbabwean experience The book discusses educational successes and challenges by examining the ideological effects of social political and economic considerations on Zimbabwe s colonial and postcolonial education Currently literature on current educational challenges in Zimbabwe is lacking and there is very little published material on these ideological effects on educational development in Zimbabwe This book is likely to be one of the first on the impact of social political and economic meltdown on education The book is targeted at local and international academics and scholars of history of education and comparative education scholars of international education and development undergraduate and graduate students and professors who are interested in educational development in Africa particularly Zimbabwe Notwithstanding the book is a valuable resource to policy makers educational administrators and researchers and the wider community Shizha and Kariwo s book is an important and illuminating addition on the effects of social political and economic trajectories on education and development in Zimbabwe It critically analyses the crucial specifics of the Zimbabwean situation by providing an in depth discourse on education at this historical juncture The book offers new insights that may be useful for an understanding of not only the Zimbabwean case but also education in other African countries Rosemary Gordon Senior Lecturer in Educational Foundations University of Zimbabwe Ranging in temporal scope from the colonial era and its elitist legacy through the golden era of populist universal elementary education to the disarray of contemporary socioeconomic crisis covering elementary through higher education and touching thematically on everything from the pernicious effects of social adjustment programmes through the local deprofessionalization of teaching this text provides a comprehensive wide ranging and yet carefully detailed account of education in Zimbabwe This engagingly written portrayal will prove illuminating not only to readers interested in Zimbabwe s education specifically but more widely to all who are interested in how the sociopolitical shapes education how ideology policy international pressures economic factors and shifts in values collectively forge the historical and contemporary character of a country s education Handel Kashope Wright Professor of Education University of British Columbia LWATI, 2007
