There are more than 350 million professionals on LinkedIn. To stand out, you need to pay great attention to creating a profile. In this section, you'll learn how that's done.

Headline 120 characters

This is the most important aspect of the profile! Be succinct, creative, and include key terms that make it easy for others to define your industry and your role within.

Name

Include your first, last, and middle name (if applicable). This is not the place for nicknames or humorous references to job titles (such as "sales rockstar" or "developer ninja").

Dos and don'ts of LinkedIn profile photos

Do's

Get a professional photographer

It's worth the investment to get a professional headshot. Your profile picture is your first impression.

Look personable

Don't look like a robot. A friendly smile goes a long way. Be yourself.

Use most of the frame

Your face should be centered, taking up most of the frame. Avoid anything that distracts from your face.

Choose a familiar picture

Keep your picture true to life. If you're not comfortable with a headshot, use a recent photo of you in a professional setting.

Don'ts

Be professional

Don't use a photo of you in a social setting, wearing a hat, or with a blurred background.

Balance formality

Don't be too formal or too casual. A professional headshot is the best balance.

Leave fido out

It's a nice touch, but don't let your dog or cat distract from your face.

Keep the background neutral

Don't let a busy background distract from your face.
