The Transnational State Thomas

Lacroix, 2024-05-23 This work in two parts examines the relations between transnational societies and states The second volume of this work contends that current policies meant to control or enhance transnational flows have led to the emergence of a transnational policy apparatus coined the transnational state This book proposes an innovative conceptual framework to grasp the transformations of the contemporary state in both sending and receiving countries It shows how states expand beyond national territorial limits by reaching out to migrants where they are In response to the migrants endeavours to circumvent the constraints imposed by selective migration policies public authorities expand the reach of their control beyond externalisation within internalisation and at expansion borders A totalitarian temptation seems to have seized contemporary state bureaucracies affecting the very nature of borders and societies The core argument of this research is that the development of the transnational state is not random It is a process shaping and shaped by the structures of the transnational society

Remembering French Algeria Amy L. Hubbell, 2015-06

Colonized by the French in 1830 Algeria was an important French settler colony that unlike its neighbors endured a lengthy and brutal war for independence from 1954 to 1962 The nearly one million Pieds Noirs literally black feet were former French citizens of Algeria who suffered a traumatic departure from their homes and discrimination upon arrival in France In response the once heterogeneous group unified as a community as it struggled to maintain an identity and keep the memory of colonial Algeria alive Remembering French Algeria examines the written and visual re-creation of Algeria by the former French citizens of Algeria from 1962 to the present By detailing the preservation and transmission of memory prompted by this traumatic experience Amy L Hubbell demonstrates how colonial identity is encountered reworked and sustained in Pied

Noir literature and film with the device of repetition functioning in these literary and visual texts to create a unified and nostalgic version of the past At the same time however the Pieds Noirs compulsion to return compromises these efforts Taking Albert Camus's Le Mythe de Sisyphe and his subsequent essays on ruins as a metaphor for Pied Noir identity this book studies autobiographical accounts by Marie Cardinal Jacques Derrida Hélène Cixous and Leïla Sebbar as well as lesser known Algerian born French citizens to analyze movement as a destabilizing and productive approach to the past
