Un Roman Avec Barbara:

L'écriture du bonheur dans le roman contemporain Ruth Amar, 2011-01-18 Through the ages the pursuit of Happiness has been at the heart of the needs and desires each individual would seek to fulfill while as a concept Happiness has always resonated strongly in poetic as well as philosophical sociological and psychological contexts But what about Happiness today in a world dominated by technology driven by productivity and dictated by efficiency Does Happiness still feature in contemporary fiction in any significant way Or has it perhaps gone underground adopting different guises Would we still call that duty of happiness that Pascal Bruckner saw as present at the second half of the twentieth century a relevant force today Or has it waned perceptibly The articles brought together in this volume seek to work out answers to these and similar questions creatively addressing the imminent risks but also eagerly following up the intriguing possibilities one encounters when interrogating Happiness in the contemporary novel Originally based on an international conference organized at the University of Haifa Israel in May 2010 the volume is structured around the axes we found useful as a basis for the various approaches towards Happiness in Europe and the historical and social events that influenced the writing of Happiness as they defined the 20th century and have impacted on the 21st the Holocaust the Soviet dystopia consumerism postmodernism everyday life the various as yet unarticulated new modes of life they have given rise to and so on A new writing of happiness then At the very least this volume targets the contemporary novel without wanting to solidify works instead taking into account the fluctuations Happiness has been subjected to and the diversity and especially the paradoxes it has created while we have been keen to preserve a precise reading of the texts and have felt compelled to respect and preserve the particular features that make the writings of the authors we focus on stand out Th me philosophique aussi bien que po tique sociologique et psychologique le bonheur s difie la mesure de chacun N est il pas vrai que nous autres hommes nous d sirons tous tre heureux Platon Or dans notre monde actuel domin par la technique la recherche outrance du productif et de l efficacit qu en est il du bonheur Est il encore pr sent aux critures romanesques contemporaines Sous quelles formes se pr senterait sa recherche Ce devoir de bonheur propre la deuxi me moiti du XXe si cle dont parle Pascal Bruckner continue t il toujours tre d actualit S est il renforc ou au contraire s est il affaibli Le projet d un questionnement du bonheur dans le roman contemporain comportait de gros risques mais il offrait en m me temps des possibilit s stimulantes A la suite du colloque international organis l universit de Ha fa en mai 2010 les textes r unis dans ce livre cherchent laborer des l ments de r ponse ces questions Le volume offre un tat des lieux du bonheur dans le roman depuis 1980 et pr sente une large diversit d approches de d finitions d interrogations sur l criture du bonheur sur trois d cennies Le recueil s articule autour d axes qui ont servi de base aux diff rentes approches du bonheur en Europe et d v nements historiques et sociaux qui ont pu influencer l criture du bonheur aux diff rentes p riodes du XXe et XXe si cles telles que l Holocauste la dystopie en Russie le postmodernisme et le consum risme le quotidien les diff rents paradoxes du bonheur les nouveaux modes de vie Nouvelle

Repair the World Alexandre Gefen,2024-08-19 Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism s heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it s a situated call for a

pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it is upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen's wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature's effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remediative uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre's post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature's mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano's Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen's reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre's political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK
