Paris Médical, 1916 Each half year consists of two volumes Partie médicale and Partie paramédicale Fronsperger and Laffemas Leonhard Fronsperger, Barthélemy de Laffemas, 2023-05-02 This volume introduces two unique and hitherto largely unknown contributions to the making of modern economic knowledge and makes them available internationally for the first time in full English translation The messages of the books are seemingly contradictory one focuses on the role of individual interests and the other on the role of government but together they form two important pillars for the economics profession self interest and industrial policy Written in 1597 Barthélemy de Laffemas General regulation for the establishment of manufactures originally in French Règlement général pour dresser les manufactures is one of the earliest voices in the history of political economy emphasizing the necessity of manufacturing and large scale industry as the source of the wealth of nations Located somewhat at the cross roads between medieval Scholasticism and early mercantilism the book presents a basic version of the infant industry argument and European standard model of economic development which evolved into the works of Enlightenment thinkers such as Colbert and Friedrich List and of the nineteenth and twentieth century industrial policy in all the countries that followed England's path to industrialization including the post WW II Marshall Plan Leonhard Fronsperger's On the praise of self interest German original Von dem Lob des Eigen Nutzen 1564 is the first documented instance of the Mandeville paradox a theorem in modern economics usually associated with much later writings including Bernard de Mandeville's Fable of the Bees 1705 14 and Adam Smith's Wealth of Nations 1776 La Faculté des lettres de Lille de 1887 à 1945 Jean-François Condette, 1999 La Faculté des Lettres de Lille participe activement à la rénovation des études supérieures entreprises par les dirigeants de la Troisième République après 1880 Bien intégré dans un véritable quartier latin lillois elle connaît un développement important entre 1887 et 1914 La formation d'étudiants plus nombreux et l'accentuation de la recherche originale deviennent les deux missions fondamentales de l'institution qui n'oublie pas pour autant la formation d'un citoyen actif et responsable La première guerre mondiale vient compromettre sérieusement l'essor engagé Au milieu des pires difficultés une vie universitaire minimale réussit à se maintenir dans une ville saignée blanc par l'occupant De 1919 1939 la Faculté tente de retrouver l'esprit de rénovation qui l'animait avant guerre mais une partie du dynamisme semble perdu On reproduit surtout les structures anciennes même si l'institution connaît ensuite un nouvel essor de ses effectifs étudiants et enseignants La seconde guerre mondiale une nouvelle fois vient briser l'élan La Faculté doit alors vivre l'heure allemande mais refuse de se compromettre Sans entrer dans la résistance active la plupart de ses membres refusent l'idée de collaboration et affirment par leur travail la survie de la culture française En 1945 après les joies de la libération une nouvelle reconstruction s'impose cependant Dictionnaire héraldique contenant Charles de Grandmaison, Louis-Nicolas-Henri Chérin, 1861 Dictionnaire encyclopédique des sciences médicales publié sous la direction de M^{me}. les docteurs Raige-Delorme et A.
