Landmine Monitor Report ,2004 The Oxford Handbook of United Nations Peacekeeping Operations Joachim Alexander Koops,Norrie MacQueen,Thierry Tardy,Paul D. Williams,2015 This volume presents an authoritative and accessible examination and critique of UN peacekeeping operations The Evolution of UN Sanctions Enrico Carisch,Loraine Rickard-Martin,Shawna R. Meister,2017-10-27 Marking the 50th anniversary of UN sanctions this work examines the evolution of sanctions from a primary instrument of economic warfare to a tool of prevention and protection against global conflicts and human rights abuses The rise of sanctions as a versatile and frequently used tool to confront the challenges of armed conflicts terrorism the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and violations of international humanitarian and human rights law is rooted in centuries of trial and error of coercive diplomacy The authors examine the history of UN sanctions and their potential for confronting emerging and future threats including cyberterrorism and information warfare environmental crimes and corruption This work begins with a historical overview of sanctions and the development of the United Nations system It then explores the consequences of the superpowers Cold War stalemate the role of the Non Aligned Movement and the subsequent transformation from a blunt comprehensive approach to smart and fairer sanctions By calibrating its embargoes asset freezes and travel bans the UN developed a set of tools to confront the new category of risk actors armed non state actors and militias global terrorists arms merchants and conflict minerals and cyberwarriors Section II analyzes all thirty UN sanctions regimes adopted over the past fifty years These narratives explore the contemporaneous political and security context that led to the introduction of specific sanctions measures and enforcement efforts often spearheaded for good or ill by the permanent five members of the Security Council Finally Section III offers a qualitative analysis of the UN sanctions system to identify possible areas for improvements to the current Security Council structure dominated by the five veto wielding victors of World War II This work will be of interest to researchers and practitioners in criminal justice particularly with an interest in security as well as related fields such as international relations and political science

Donors, Democracy and Development in Africa Mark Simpson, 2024-12-07 Uganda Ethiopia and Rwanda have figured prominently in the post Cold War relations between Western donors and Sub Saharan Africa Their new leaders were embraced by Western countries as the antithesis of former Cold War era African strongmen and their countries became donor darlings benefitting from regular and significant inflows of Western development assistance To the dismay of African democracy activists and human rights defenders such aid enabled the regimes in these countries to strengthen the repressive political and economic governance systems over which they preside Using a multi disciplinary approach this book examines the role of Western development assistance in supporting these authoritarian African regimes It connects changing Western donor policies and priorities to developments within the three African countries to the past of these ruling parties as armed liberation movements to wider regional and global political economic and strategic shifts and highlights the skillful management by Kampala Addis Ababa and Kigali of Western aid and international aid architecture to ensure regime preservation

United Nations Peacekeeping and the Principle of Non-Intervention Jennifer Giblin, 2024-03-26 Using a unique application of Third World Approaches to International Law TWAIL this book provides a critical interdisciplinary examination of the contemporary practice of UN peacekeeping Is peacekeeping intervention Since its conception in the mid 1950s peacekeeping has significantly evolved from traditional lightly armed passive operations to robust multi dimensional stabilisation peacekeeping operations This raises questions as to whether this is simply a natural evolution of peacekeeping or whether it marks an expansion of the concept beyond its boundaries pushing it into the realm of peace enforcement or intervention In response this book examines the frameworks which govern UN peacekeeping and seeks to understand the relationship between peacekeeping and the principle of non intervention Providing practical examples from the United Nations operations in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and drawing upon interviews with key international actors including UN personnel the book explores the boundaries of peacekeeping contending that peacekeeping at times becomes a form of intervention This the book argues is detrimental both to the concept of peacekeeping and to the host state and it concludes by offering a series of recommendations to re-affirm peacekeeping's boundaries and amplify the effectiveness of contemporary peacekeeping. This book will be of interest to scholars and students in international law, international relations, politics, history, and criminology.

The Political Economy of Civil War and UN Peace Operations Mats Berdal, Jake Sherman, 2023-03-31. This book examines the operational and political challenges facing UN peace operations deployed in countries where civil war and protracted violence have given rise to the complex and distinctive political economies of conflict. The volume explores the nature and impact of such political economies, informal systems of power and influence formed by the interaction of local, national, and region-wide war economies with the political agendas of conflict actors on the course of UN peace operations. It focuses in detail on the UN's long-running peace operations in the Democratic Republic of Congo, South Sudan, Afghanistan, Sierra Leone, Mali, and Somalia. The book is centrally concerned with the interaction of UN missions with the power structures and local conflict dynamics that shape individual mission settings and the challenges these pose for mediation, protection of civilians, and other tasks. It also offers a critical assessment of the various ways in which the UN system, from its headquarters in New York to the field, has confronted the policy challenges posed by political economies of conflict-affected states, societies, and regions. It advances a pragmatic set of policy recommendations aimed at improving the UN's ability to confront predatory and exploitative war economies. At the same time, the volume makes it clear that political and institutional obstacles to more effective UN action are certain to remain profound and are unlikely ever to be fully overcome, let alone eradicated. Despite making some progress since the 1990s to better understand the political economy of civil wars, the UN has struggled with how to tackle informal networks of power and their consequences for efforts to end wars. The book will be of special interest to students of war and conflict studies, statebuilding, political economy of conflict, UN interventionism, and peacebuilding, and IR Security in general.

The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa Guy Arnold, 2009-09-02. Ever since the end of World War II and even more so since 1960 when 17 African colonies became independent of colonial rule, the African continent has been ravaged by a series of wars. These wars have ranged from liberation struggles against former colonial powers to power struggles between different factions in the aftermath of independence. They have ranged from border wars between newly independent states to civil wars between ethnic groups. As with many conflicts, outside forces were drawn into these wars, and major powers outside the continent intervened on one side or the other for a variety of reasons: political ideology, Cold War considerations, ethnic alignments, and stemming the flow of violence. Whether referring to Algeria's struggle for independence from French colonial rule, Nigeria's internal struggles to achieve a balanced state after the British departure the Rwandan genocide of 1994 or the current ethnic cleansing in Darfur
