Zimsec Geography Past Examination Paper June 24:

Zimbabwe Paul Murray, 2013 As political tension relaxes wildlife enthusiasts and curious tourists are returning to Zimbabwe With some of the finest national parks in Africa the country is blessed with stunning landscapes and an abundance of wildlife The mighty Zambezi River offers adventure holidays and Victoria Falls will leave visitors breathless while the range of birdlife draws enthusiasts year round Game viewing in some of Africa's greatest national parks is a rewarding experience and this guide offers in depth information on the facilities advice on itinerary planning as well as how to select a safari Accommodation is covered with up to date information on everything from luxury safari camps to budget stays for younger travellers who arrive overland heading for the fast flowing waters of the Zambezi gorge Understanding Cultural Landscape at Great Zimbabwe Ashton Sinamai, 2024-12-16 Understanding Cultural Landscape at Great Zimbabwe Realms of Power by Ashton Sinamai engages with archaeology through Karanga Kalanga concepts of cosmology and philosophy to understand the landscape at Great Zimbabwe the medieval city and cultural heritage site Sinamai un disciplines and decolonializes archaeology and highlights aspects of the landscape that have been impacted by colonial legislations nationalization and internationalization This book provides new perspectives on the landscape and it addresses debates among African and Western archaeologists in reforming the practice interpretation and construction of archaeological narratives in Africa Sinamai debunks Western myths by exploring African heritage through diverse knowledge systems to illuminate our understanding of place Each chapter unfurls a variety of facets within Great Zimbabwe discovering what a place can mean how it shapes culture and what emotions and memories can be evoked through local narratives This book goes beyond human memory and shows how the landscape also remembers African knowledge systems are essential to the development and understanding of African archaeology and African heritage management systems Athenaeum, 1892

Sustainable Tourism in Southern Africa Jarkko Saarinen, 2009 The book represents the first accessible examination of the complex connections between tourism and sustainability in southern African context The edited book introduces relationships between tourism sustainability and development with a range of case studies from the region focusing especially on natural resource dependent communities in processes of transition Geography in Britain after World War II Max Martin, Vinita Damodaran, Rohan D'Souza, 2019-12-13 Contemporary anxieties about climate change have fueled a growing interest in how landscapes are formed and transformed across spans of time from decades to millennia While the discipline of geography has had much to say about how such environmental transformations occur few studies have focused on the lives of geographers themselves their ideologies and how they understand their field This edited collection illuminates the social and biographical contexts of geographers in postwar Britain who were influenced by and studied under the pioneering geomorphologist A T Grove These contributors uncover the relationships and networks that shaped their research on diverse terrains from Africa to the Mediterranean highlighting their shared concerns which have profound implications not only for the study of geography and geomorphology but also for questions of environmental history ecological conservation and human security

Geographers Elizabeth Baigent, André Reyes Novaes, 2019-12-26 Women are the exclusive focus of the 38th volume of Geographers For the first time in the series history the entire volume is devoted to important work of distinguished female geographers amply demonstrating how these scholars professional lives enrich the discipline s history It also illustrates how reading and writing their biographies not only expands our understanding of geography s past but points to its more diverse future The collection includes biographies of Doreen Massey winner of geography s Nobel prize the prix Vautrin Lud for her remarkable contribution to geography and neighbouring disciplines which discovered the importance of space through her work Helen Wallis geographer and historian of cartography who for many years had charge of the UK s foremost collection of maps Alice Saunier Se t who applied her geographical training and formidable energy to teaching and educational reform in France Isabel Margarida Andr who lived through a turbulent political period in her native Portugal and meticulously investigated its effect on women and political geography and the many women who helped to create the UK s first Geography department the University of Oxford s School of Geography including Fanny Herbertson Nora MacMunn Marjorie Sweeting Mary Marshall Barbara Kennedy and other women geographers who are memorialised in a group article

Fiction of Imperialism Philip Darby, 1998-05-01 The Fiction of Imperialism attempts to promote dialogue between international relations and postcolonialism It addresses the value of fiction to an understanding of the imperial relationship between the West and Asia and Africa A wide range of fiction and criticism is examined as it pertains to colonialism the North South engagement and contemporary Third World politics The book begins by contrasting the treatment of cross cultural relations in political studies and literary texts It then examines the personal as a metaphor for the political in fiction depicting the imperial connection between Britain and India This is paired with an analysis of African literary texts which takes as its theme the relationship between culture and politics The concluding chapters approach literature from the outside considering its apparent silence on economics and realpolitik and assessing the utility of postcolonial reconceptualisations

Building a House in Heaven Mona Atia, 2013-11-01 Charity is an economic act This premise underlies a societal transformation the merging of religious and capitalist impulses that Mona Atia calls pious neoliberalism Though the phenomenon spans religious lines Atia makes the connection between Islam and capitalism to examine the surprising relations between charity and the economy the state and religion in the transition from Mubarak era Egypt Mapping the landscape of charity and development in Egypt Building a House in Heaven reveals the factors that changed the nature of Egyptian charitable practices the state s intervention in social care and religion an Islamic revival intensified economic pressures on the poor and the subsequent emergence of the private sector as a critical actor in development She shows how when individuals from Egypt s private sector felt it necessary to address poverty they sought to make Islamic charities work as engines of development a practice that changed the function of charity from distributing goods to empowering the poor Drawing on interviews with key players Atia explores the geography of Islamic charities through multiple neighborhoods ideologies sources of funding projects and wide social networks Her work shifts between absorbing ethnographic stories of specific organizations and reflections on the patterns that appear across the sector An enlightening look at the simultaneous neoliberalization of Islamic charity work and Islamization of neoliberal development the book also offers an insightful analysis of the political and socioeconomic movements leading up to the uprisings that ended Mubarak s rule and that amplified the importance of not only the Muslim Brotherhood but also the broader forces of Islamic piety and charity

Zimbabwe Research Index ,1980 Register of current research in Zimbabwe The European Union , Tourism, Change and the Global South Jarkko Saarinen,Jayne M. Rogerson,2021-06-16 This significant volume is the first to focus on both the changing nature of tourism and the capacity of tourism to effect change especially in the Global South Geographically this changing nature of tourism is based on the transforming relationships between demand supply and location While this is nothing new in tourism recent decades have intensified the changing characteristics of global tourism From another perspective tourism represents a change and nowadays many localities and regions aim to use tourism as a tool for positive change i e development However this has turned out to be a challenging task in practice especially in the Global South context where the relationship between tourism growth and local development has often been controversial This book looks at a host of critical concepts in one volume such as growth and development adaptation and resilience sustainability and responsibility governance and planning and heritage and destination management strategies By understanding the drivers of change this book sheds new insight into the promise and role of sustainability and responsibility in tourism development This book will be of great interest to all upper level students academics and researchers in the fields of Tourism Geography and Cultural and Heritage studies Joint Acquisitions List of Africana ,1992 Alternative Irrigation Christopher J Barrow,2014-02-04 An introduction to runoff agriculture a form of agricultural irrigation this text describes how the use of surface and subsurface water often overlooked and wasted enables both small farmers and commercial agriculturists to improve yields and the security of harvest even in harsh and remote environments The text introduces the techniques and strategies as well as the challenges and the potential of the crucial approach which can contribute so much to reducing land degradation and improving conservation and sustainability Farm Debt in the CIS
