shifting regional and international dynamics This framework is particularly pertinent in an era when authoritarianism is evolving and liberal democracy is facing a prolonged period of decline In Presidents for Life in Sub Saharan Africa Unpuzzling Authoritarianism in Zimbabwe and Rwanda Pinto examines how Robert Mugabe and Paul Kagame used these strategies in their personalized semi authoritarian and resilient regimes in Sub Saharan Africa as well as how their claims to legitimacy were challenged by opponents and civil society She emphasizes that these strategies are not developed in isolation but have instead emerged from leaders continuous interactions and negotiations in legal political and economic spheres Recognizing that the legitimation of power operates across different dimensions this book adopts a multidimensional approach to show how authoritarian leadership is constructed and challenged Through comparison of these two African leaders this book unveils the tactics used by authoritarian leaders to consolidate power and navigate threats to their authority
