Zimsec History Question Paper 2013

Lawrence Meda

Zimsec History Question Paper 2013:

Refugee Learner Experiences. A Case Study of Zimbabwean Refugee Children Lawrence Meda, 2017-06-27 This study is a presentation of Zimbabwean refugee learner experiences Children escaped political persecution and economic problems which affected Zimbabwe in the year 2008 Many of these children were abused and witnessed traumatic experiences their close relatives and neighbours being executed in cold blood This study was guided by three critical questions i who are the Zimbabwean refugee learners ii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners migration experiences and iii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners school experiences The study employed Bronfenbrenner's Social Ecological Model as its overarching theoretical framework Each stage of the refugee experience was described at each point in time

Education and Development in Zimbabwe Edward Shizha, Michael T. Kariwo, 2012-01-01 The book represents a contribution to policy formulation and design in an increasingly knowledge economy in Zimbabwe It challenges scholars to think about the role of education its funding and the egalitarian approach to widening access to education The nexus between education democracy and policy change is a complex one The book provides an illuminating account of the constantly evolving notions of national identity language and citizenship from the Zimbabwean experience The book discusses educational successes and challenges by examining the ideological effects of social political and economic considerations on Zimbabwe's colonial and postcolonial education Currently literature on current educational challenges in Zimbabwe is lacking and there is very little published material on these ideological effects on educational development in Zimbabwe This book is likely to be one of the first on the impact of social political and economic meltdown on education The book is targeted at local and international academics and scholars of history of education and comparative education scholars of international education and development undergraduate and graduate students and professors who are interested in educational development in Africa particularly Zimbabwe Notwithstanding the book is a valuable resource to policy makers educational administrators and researchers and the wider community Shizha and Kariwo's book is an important and illuminating addition on the effects of social political and economic trajectories on education and development in Zimbabwe It critically analyses the crucial specifics of the Zimbabwean situation by providing an in depth discourse on education at this historical juncture The book offers new insights that may be useful for an understanding of not only the Zimbabwean case but also education in other African countries Rosemary Gordon Senior Lecturer in Educational Foundations University of Zimbabwe Ranging in temporal scope from the colonial era and its elitist legacy through the golden era of populist universal elementary education to the disarray of contemporary socioeconomic crisis covering elementary through higher education and touching thematically on everything from the pernicious effects of social adjustment programmes through the local deprofessionalization of teaching this text provides a comprehensive wide ranging and yet carefully detailed account of education in Zimbabwe This engagingly written portrayal will prove illuminating not only to readers interested in Zimbabwe

s education specifically but more widely to all who are interested in how the sociopolitical shapes education how ideology policy international pressures economic factors and shifts in values collectively forge the historical and contemporary character of a country s education Handel Kashope Wright Professor of Education University of British Columbia History
