Meteorite, Track 291 Gary Paulsen,1979 As a monstrous meteorite moves inexorably toward a major American city a veteran satellite tracker realizes that military officials want to exploit disaster rather than averting it Speaking of Sadness David Allen Karp,1997 Combining a scholar's care and thoroughness with searing personal insight Karp brings the private experience of depression into sharp relief drawing on a remarkable series of intimate interviews with 50 depressed men and women This important book pierces through the terrifying isolation of depression to uncover the connections linking the depressed as they undertake their personal journeys Goner Louis Brawley,2011-05-16 Louis Brawley met UG Krishnamurti in 2002 and spent the following five years travelling with him in the USA India and Europe keeping a record of this remarkable non teacher and documenting his own inner struggles as his ideas about life love and Enlightenment were constantly tossed around and demolished Louis fell into the role of foil and sidekick to UG's bizarre interactions with his friends and audience and as UG's health deteriorated he became his informal caregiver Louis Brawley doesn't use honeyed platitudes to tell the story of a sage and his devoted follower instead he tells an often unflattering story of his own struggles and shortcomings and the dynamic uncertainties of life with a man who tore apart everything human beings have built up inside and out for centuries Goner will teach you the meaning of the phrase paradoxical truth UG Krishnamurti gave up everything for truth but delighted in ridiculous fabrications he was a teacher who refused to teach a man who mocked do gooders but was deeply kind he was chaste but foul mouthed he was a man who decried the supernatural yet there were strange coincidences around him the way he lived his living quarters and his mode of expression were one continuous movement a three dimensional living book of teaching If you were observant you could learn from him on contact with no need for explanation
