Stem Strategies Student Ambassadors And Equality In Higher Education:

STEM Strategies Clare Gartland, 2014 More skilled young people are urgently needed in science technology engineering and mathematics STEM in the UK This book indicates how policy can be developed to encourage young people to consider STEM careers It challenges widely held assumptions about how role models help raise aspirations and support progression to higher education and asks whether role models really do encourage pupils particularly girls into STEM careers The book examines New Labour's widening participation policy of encouraging university student ambassadors to work as role models with younger students and school pupils The study of STEM ambassador schemes at two contrasting universities reveals how they are positioned by the surrounding discourses and activities It examines the developing relationships between pupils and ambassadors the learning that takes place and the matching of ethnic classed and gendered identities Gartland questions the assumption that university students are role models for school pupils simply by virtue of their gender or other identities and their status as students But it also provides valuable insights into how encounters between pupils and university students can effectively support and encourage pupils in STEM subjects Publisher description

STEM in Science Education and S in STEM, 2021-01-11 This book presents an international perspective of the influence of cultural issues on STEM reform Effective STEM education is of considerable importance internationally because there is increase pressure by governments to produce technically skilled people from the compulsory education sectors people capable of participating actively in the so called knowledge economy or knowledge society An important and distinguishing feature of the book is that it draws upon the empirical experiences and research of the local experts from an extremely diverse cohort across the world Contributors are Nayif Awad David Barlex Alexandra Bazdar Saouma BouJaoude Heba EL Deghaidy Marwa Eltanahy Sibel Erduran Sufian Forawi Clare Gartland Lilia Halim Ying Shao Hsu Zanaton Haji Iksan Deena Khalil Meredith Kier Nasser Mansour Mohamad Sattar Rasul Seema Rivera Dalene Swanson Paige Teamey Tuan Mastura Tuan Soh Russell Tytler No l Williams and Yi Fen Yeh

Partnering with Student Ambassadors to Create More Inclusive Universities Ruxandra Floștină, Clare Gartland, Albina Khasanzyanova, Ümit Çelen, 2025-05-12 Designed to promote the social and educational inclusion of disadvantaged groups and nontraditional learners this book provides all the information needed to train networks of student ambassadors to improve student diversity and inclusion in higher education Recognising that student ambassadors can play a significant role in addressing inequalities by supporting younger students in developing social and cultural capital the book uses evidence based information and best practices for training student ambassadors to enable them to promote social inclusion and educational progression Packed full of activities covering the topics of STEM the Arts the Social Sciences Humanities and Health each activity is presented in line with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and can be used in the training of student ambassadors themselves or in schools with students aged 11 14 to empower them to become active engaged and involved in their local communities By participating in these activities student ambassadors will be able to effectively engage with more students from disadvantaged or marginalised communities and students from these communities will be better equipped to navigate progression routes into higher education This is a must read book for all those interested in the theory and practicalities of making their universities more inclusive with the help of student ambassadors It is a hands on resource that will be particularly useful for those higher education institutions that are interested in implementing student ambassadors as well as anyone interested in promoting social justice and challenging traditional patterns of progression to higher education

Race, Capital, and Equity in Higher Education Alexander Hensby, Barbara Adewumi, 2024-05-29 This open access book examines the structural and cultural factors that explain the persistence of an attainment gap between white and Black Asian and Minority Ethnic BAME students in UK universities So called deficit approaches have long represented the orthodoxy in higher education strategy making yet they overlook the structural and institutional factors that reproduce attainment gaps Whereas students already in possession of the right academic capital are made to feel validated and empowered in their learning BAME students particularly those from working class backgrounds may feel marginalised by dominant hierarchical cultures on campus This book provides an important and unique contribution to the study of racial equity in higher education Its chapters provide a breadth and depth of analyses which help explain the roots of the attainment gap while offering reflections and commentaries on the necessary steps that universities must take in order to ensure equity for students from all backgrounds This book is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

Achieving Equity and Quality in Higher Education Mahsood Shah, Jade McKay, 2018-07-05 Across the world higher education is witnessing exponential growth in both student participation and types of educational providers One key phenomenon of this growth is an increase in student diversity governments are widening access to higher education for students from traditionally underrepresented groups However this raises questions about whether this rapid growth may in fact compromise academic quality This book presents case studies of how higher education institutions in diverse countries are maintaining academic excellence while increasing the access and participation of students from historically underrepresented backgrounds Including case studies spanning four continents the authors and editors examine whether increasing widening participation positively impacts upon academic quality This volume will be of interest and value to students and scholars of global higher education representation and participation in education and quality in higher education

Purposeful Teaching and Learning in Diverse Contexts Darrell Hucks, Yolanda Sealey-Ruiz, Victoria Showunmi, Suzanne C. Carothers, Chance W. Lewis, 2022-01-01 Teachers have faced serious public critique regarding their effectiveness and professionalism in classrooms At every level their work is often measured solely against student achievement outcomes often on standardized tests Darling Hammond Ravitch 2010 Unfortunately students who are coming from culturally economically and linguistically diverse backgrounds are often occupying the bottom rungs regarding academic achievement Ladson Billings 1995 Milner 2010 Hucks 2014 What are the obstacles and challenges teachers and students face in their respective school settings and how do they grapple with and overcome them Finally what do these teachers and students know that motivates and informs their work The scholars in this volume will take up these questions and share the findings of their research in the field of leadership teacher education and achievement These concerns are not limited to the geographic boundaries of the United States of America Engaging purposeful teaching is an imperative that concerns students teachers teacher educators educational leaders and education policy makers around the globe There are many educators worldwide who are committed to delivering this type of teaching and promoting learning that is engaged and active The four sections of the book capture the work of educators in teaching in diverse global settings such as the Australia United Kingdom Jamaica Turkey and across America As diverse populations of students enter American classrooms it is important for their teachers to have relatable examples of purposeful teaching that are culturally responsive and culturally relevant

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Higher Education Miriam E. David, Marilyn J. Amey, 2020-05-21 Higher Education is in a state of ferment People are seriously discussing whether the medieval ideal of the university as being excellent in all areas makes sense today given the number of universities that we have in the world Student fees are changing the orientation of students to the system The high rate of non repayment of fees in the UK is provoking difficult questions about whether the current system of funding makes sense There are disputes about the ratio of research to teaching and further discussions about the international delivery of courses
