How had her life gotten so complicated? As if grad school wasn't hard enough, Celeste had caught her boyfriend cheating on her and kicked him out of their apartment. Now she's on the hook for all the bills, and she needs a job that will pay her more than a teaching assistant's meager salary. In desperation, she finds herself at a party on the yacht of Andrew Winter, a playboy oil billionaire hoping to land a job as his personal assistant. But the gorgeous stranger she ends up talking to isn't Andrew Winter. In the dim light, she couldn't make out the color of his eyes, but it really didn't matter. They were riveted on her, and that was all she cared about at the moment. What she can see is that he's smoking hot, oozing testosterone, and interested in her. After the hit her ego has taken with her ex, the attention is nice. It isn't going to get him anywhere, but that doesn't mean she can't have fun with it. Who wouldn't take advantage of a little moonlight on a yacht with good company? But no one had bothered to tell Stephen he couldn't have a taste, and now his soft lips are setting her on fire. Why couldn't she enjoy it for just a little while? It wouldn't hurt anything, would it?

Lucas intends to find out, but as with the other incidents of the past days, it proves easier said than done. While he doesn't want to believe that Diane has had any part in the incidents which have plagued him since his return from Macau, does he dare to trust her? He still doesn't know what mysterious hold his brother Marcus has on her. What if Marcus had planted her with Lucas at the house, to fuck with him, knowing he wouldn't be able to refuse her? With Marcus gone back to Louisiana for a few days, Diane finally has a chance to recover some measure of her balance and sanity. More than that, it allows her to spend time alone with Lucas. Her attraction to him is growing stronger every day, and she wants so badly to tell him the truth about her bargain with Marcus. But she has seen how his father treated Lucas's sisters and knows first-hand how ruthless Marcus is. Does she dare trust him with the secrets that could undo her entire family?
