over the world and may threaten the democracy of the United States Ward follows their trajectory from New Jersey and New York City to the White House where the couple's many forays into policy making and national security have mocked long standing U S policy and protocol They have pursued an agenda that could increase their wealth while their actions have mostly gone unchecked In Kushner Inc Ward holds Jared Kushner and Ivanka Trump accountable she unveils the couple's self serving transactional motivations and how those have propelled them into the highest levels of the US government where no one the President included has been able to stop them

It's about Time Gabriel Constans, 2008-03 Medicine and Western Civilization David J. Rothman, Steven Marcus, Stephanie A. Kiceluk, 1995 This fabulous anthology is sure to be a core text for history of medicine and social science classes in colleges across the country In order to demonstrate how medical research has influenced Western cultural perspectives the editors have collected original works from 61 different authors around nine major themes among them Anatomy and Destiny Psyche and Soma and The Construction of Pain Suffering and Death The authors range from Aristotle the Bible and Louis Pasteur to Masters and Johnson Ernest Hemingway and Simone de Beauvoir The primary sources selected to illustrate the themes are well chosen and contrast with each other nicely However the brief background material for the selections center around the authors and offer little or no discussion about the selections relevance to the topics at hand This book would be best read in a class or group where the texts meaning in relation to each other can be discussed but the book can stand alone if the reader is prepared to do some critical thinking

What It Feels Like Stephanie R. Larson, 2021-10-22 What It Feels Like interrogates an underexamined reason for our failure to abolish rape in the United States the way we communicate about it Using affective and feminist materialist approaches to rhetorical criticism Stephanie Larson examines how discourses about rape and sexual assault rely on strategies of containment denying the felt experiences of victims and ultimately stalling broader claims for justice Investigating anti pornography debates from the 1980s Violence Against Women Act advocacy materials sexual assault forensic kits public performances and the MeToo movement Larson reveals how our language privileges male perspectives and more deeply how it is shaped by systems of power patriarchy white supremacy ableism and heteronormativity Interrogating how these systems work to propagate masculine commitments to science and hard evidence Larson finds that US culture holds a general mistrust of testimony by women stereotyping it as emotional But she also gives us hope for change arguing that testimonies grounded in the bodily material expression of violation are necessary for giving voice to victims of sexual violence and presenting accurately the scale of these crimes Larson makes a case for visceral rhetorics theorizing them as powerful forms of communication and persuasion Demonstrating the communicative power of bodily feeling Larson challenges the long held commitment to detached distant rationalized discourses of sexual harassment and rape Timely and poignant the book offers a much needed corrective to our legal and political discourses Gender Through the Prism of Difference Maxine Baca Zinn, Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, Michael A. Messner, 2016 Gender Through the Prism of Difference adopts a global transnational perspective on how race class and sexual diversity are central to the study of sex and gender In contrast with other books in this area which tend to focus on U S or European viewpoints this wide ranging anthology features many articles based on research done elsewhere throughout the world Now in its fifth edition the book opens with a revised and updated Introduction that sets the stage for understanding gender as a socially constructed experience Featuring twenty eight new readings this edition covers compelling subjects like transgendered people intersex issues men and masculinity sexual and gender violence disabilities obesity reproductive technologies educational testing aging and ageism and Occupy Wall Street
