Jesus' Words on Salvation Douglas J. Del Tondo, 2008-02. A Christian attorney argues that Bonhoeffer was correct when he said we have developed a Christianity without Christ and exchanged Jesus' gospel of costly grace for one of cheap grace. Del Tondo reviews all the major salvation statements and parables by Jesus. He then compares them to the prevalent doctrines of faith alone, which Bonhoeffer called cheap grace. Del Tondo demonstrates that Jesus' doctrines on salvation insisted upon repentance from sin and obedience to His principles, thereby falsifying faith alone doctrine. The Cambridge History of Judaism: Volume 4, The Late Roman-Rabbinic Period William David Davies, Louis Finkelstein, William Horbury, Steven T. Katz, John Sturdy, Mitchell B. Hart, Tony Michels, Jonathan Karp, Adam Sutcliffe, 1984. This fourth volume of The Cambridge History of Judaism covers the period from 70 CE to 640 CE, the rise of Islam. It deals with the major historical, political, and cultural developments in Jewish history and the history of Judaism in this crucial era during which Judaism took on its classical shape. It provides discussion and analysis of all the essential subjects pertinent to an understanding of this period and is especially strong in its coverage of the growth and development of rabbinic Judaism and of the major classical rabbinic sources such as the Mishnah, Jerusalem Talmud, Babylonian Talmud, and various Midrashic collections. In addition, it surveys the early encounter of Judaism and Christianity from both the Jewish and Christian sides and describes the rise of Jewish mystical literature, the liturgical literature of the developing synagogue, the nature of magical practices in classical Judaism, and Jewish folklore.

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975. Explaining Law Larry D. Barnett, 2015-08-04. Sociologist lawyer Larry D. Barnett advances the macrosociological thesis that in nations that are structurally complex and democratically governed, concepts and doctrines of law on society's central social activities are fashioned by society-level conditions, not by particular or even prominent individuals. Because a substantial body of social science research has found that law in a modern nation does not have a large permanent effect on the frequency of such activities, the book contends that the content of law on the activities is a product, not a determinant, of the society in which the law exists. Explaining Law bolsters this contention with several original studies and illustrates types of quantitative evidence that can be used to build a macrosociological theory of law.

The Hermeneutical Spirit Amos Yong, 2017-11-06 In the contemporary biblical studies climate proposals regarding the theological interpretation of Scripture are contested particularly but not only because they privilege encourage and foster ecclesial or other forms of normative commitments as part and parcel of the hermeneutical horizon through which scriptural texts are read and understood Within this context confessional approaches have been emerging including some from within the nascent pentecostal theological tradition This volume builds on the author's previous work in theological method to suggest a pentecostal perspective on theological interpretation that is rooted in the conviction that all Christian reading of sacred Scripture is post Pentecost meaning after the Day of Pentecost outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh in anticipation of the coming reign of God In that respect such a pentecostal interpretative perspective is not parochially for those within the modern day movement bearing that name but is arguably apostolic in following after the scriptural imagination of the earliest disciples of Jesus the messiah and therefore has ecumenical and missional purchase across space and time The Hermeneutical Spirit thus provides close readings of various texts across the scriptural canon as a model for Christian theological interpretation of Scripture suitable for the twenty first century global context
