Steal Away Home Study Guide for Assignment 1: Chapters 1-6

- Steal Away Home's genre is historical fiction. This means it is a made-up story with true history from fiction.
- Steal Away is a small black book hidden in the crate near the station. It turned out to be a slave story that was owned by Clara Weaver.
- James is from the present day, writing and James is from the 1800s (from the past). The story takes place in Alabama.
- James wanted to go on patrol from looking down the wellpost on the walls because other didn't think this was getting past enough. Steal is a hidden meaning word which means it has more than one meaning. In this sentence, it means to stop doing something to make someone do what you want. James wanted to stop taking down the wellpost and he further passed her down.
- Be ready to APPLY Do you think it's more important to do what is right or to follow the law? You will need to explain your answer by giving details and examples from the text.
- Be ready to APPLY How were things different in 1800s than they are today? FOUR ANSWERS the point will count FOUR in the book. FOUR facts. Give each what are best discussed in class.

You will need to be able to spell the vocabulary words. I will put them in a sentence that makes sense (this shows you know the meaning of the word).

The Write to Read Lesley Roessing, 2009-07-30 Use reader response strategies to achieve Common Core goals in reading and in writing. Response journals: brief personal writing in response to reading can significantly improve reading comprehension. What's more, when scaffolded over the year, reader response strategies promote engagement, build understanding of complex literary and informational text, and even help students provide supporting evidence in their writing. All goals of the Common Core. For educators eager to use reader response strategies, veteran teacher Lesley Roessing presents a unique step-by-step approach that inspires thoughtful reading and skillful writing in Grades 5-12. Based on research and her own classroom experience, Roessing's innovative writing exercises encourage students to read more deeply, develop questions, and participate actively in class. Beginning with simple response tasks and moving toward more complex assignments, the book provides a scaffolded curriculum for the full academic year. Developed for language arts and content area teachers as well as literacy specialists, this resource includes:

- Examples of response journals for a wide range of genres, including fiction, nonfiction, poetry, and students' personal reading.
- Strategies for using reader response to guide classroom discussions, group work, book clubs, and journal writing at home.
- Adaptations for students with diverse abilities.
- Numerous classroom-ready templates and samples of student work.

Discover a well-structured writing curriculum that promotes confident learning and the joy of reading.
