Stellenbosch Application Form For 2015:

The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department, 1918

Pioneers of the Field Andrew Bank, 2016-08-11 Focusing on the crucial contributions of women researchers Andrew Bank demonstrates that the modern school of social anthropology in South Africa was uniquely female dominated The book traces the personal and intellectual histories of six remarkable women through the use of a rich cocktail of archival sources including family photographs private and professional correspondence field notes and field diaries published and other public writings and even love letters The book also sheds new light on the close connections between their personal lives their academic work and their anti segregationist and anti apartheid politics It will be welcomed by anthropologists historians and students in African studies interested in the development of social anthropology in twentieth century Africa as well as by students and researchers in the field of gender studies

The History of Geophysics in Southern Africa Johan H de Beer, 2016-01-25 Geophysics is a comparatively young science which only evolved as a distinct discipline during the 19th century However its phenomena like earthquakes tsunamis volcanic eruptions and lightning had been objects of fear curiosity and speculation since ancient times In this book Johan de Beer and his research team reveal that geophysical activity in South Africa can be traced back to as early as 1488 This is a truly astonishing revelation which deserves to be firmly entrenched as part of the country's proud history The book also discusses the history and formation of South African geophysical institutions that made a huge and seldom acknowledged contribution to the technological development of southern Africa

The Struggle for Teacher Education Tom Are Trippstad, Anja Swennen, Tobias Werler, 2017-04-20 Reform of teacher education is en vogue worldwide today due to the widespread belief that teacher education has the power to change traditional modes of schooling educating new teachers who will be capable of improving the knowledge standard of children and boost the economic power of nations The Struggle for Teacher Education brings together conceptual comparative and empirical studies from Australia England Finland The Netherlands Norway South Africa and South America to explore the ways in which professional education has been positioned in a reactive mode The contributors discuss how teacher education is a contested division in higher education and look at how current reform efforts may limit the potential and work of teacher education highlighting why this point needs more attention Moreover the collection reveals how teacher education's authorship on teacher professionalism may be weakened or strengthened by current reform drives and offers alternative models on how to rethink reforming teacher education

Education as the Driving Force of Equity for the Marginalized Boivin, Jacquelynne Anne, Pacheco-Guffrey, Heather, 2022-01-14 In the USA racism is the most widespread root of oppression Black people in America specifically have suffered from centuries of discrimination and still struggle to receive the same privileges as their white peers In other countries however there are other groups that face similar struggles Discrimination and oppression based on religion ethnicity socio economic status political affiliation and caste are just a few

categories However education is a root for widespread societal change making it essential that educators and systems of education enact the changes that need to occur to achieve equity for the groups being oppressed Education as the Driving Force of Equity for the Marginalized highlights international research from the past decade about the role education is playing in the disruption and dismantling of perpetuated systems of oppression This research presents the context ideas and mechanics behind impactful efforts to dismantle systems of oppression Covering topics such as teacher preparation gender inequality and social justice this work is essential for teachers policymakers college students education faculty researchers administrators professors and academicians

African Public Theology Sunday Bobai Agang, Dion A. Forster, H. Jurgens Hendriks, 2020-04-30 Africa needs leaders and Christians from every walk of life to rediscover their identity and purpose in all spheres of society African Public Theology sounds a clarion call to accomplish this vital task God created all humans equally intending for us to live in community and take responsibility for the world around us a mandate we need to act on Through faithful application of Scripture to contexts common in the continent today contributors from across Africa join as one to present a vision for the Africa that God intended No simplistic solutions are offered instead African Public Theology challenges every reader to think through the application of biblical principles in their own community place of work and sphere of influence If we heed the principles and lessons that God's word has for society culture and public life then countries across Africa can have hope of a future that is free from corruption and self promotion and is instead characterized by collective stewardship and servant hearted leadership

The Responsive University and the Crisis in South Africa, 2021-05-31 Around the world higher education is faced with a fundamental question what is the basis for our claim of societal legitimacy In this book the authors go beyond the classical response regarding teaching research and community engagement Instead the editor puts forward the proposition that the answer lies in responsiveness the extent to which universities respond or fail to respond to societal challenges Moreover because of its intractable legacy issues and crisis of inequality the question regarding the societal legitimacy of universities is particularly clearly manifested in South Africa one of the most unequal countries in the world The Responsive University brings together contributions on the issue of responsiveness from a number of international university leaders half of them specifically addressing the South African situation within the context of the international situation as presented by the other authors In the global discussion about the role of universities in society this book provides a conceptual framework for a way forward

Afterimages of Apartheid Kylie Thomas, 2025-10-29 Afterimages of Apartheid shows how photographs of the past can be mobilised as a critical tool for understanding the ongoing effects of apartheid in contemporary South Africa Through close readings of significant images made during and after apartheid the book shows how photography works as a means of documentation commemoration and resistance Written by one of South Africa's leading scholars of visual history the book considers the ways in which photographs can be used to contest impunity for state violence Afterimages includes chapters on the Sharpeville and

Marikana massacres on the re opening of cases of human rights violations that remain unresolved in the aftermath of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and on contemporary protests against the post apartheid state The book makes a powerful case for the role of photographs in drawing the viewer into the past time they represent issuing a call to the living to remember respond and react This vivid account of the photography of apartheid will be of interest to students and researchers across the fields of South African history visual studies memory studies art history photography studies and transitional justice

Democracy Disconnected Fiona Anciano, Laurence Piper, 2018-10-03 Why is dissatisfaction with local democracy endemic despite the spread of new participatory institutions This book argues that a key reason is the limited power of elected local officials especially to produce the City City Hall lacks control over key aspects of city decision making especially under conditions of economic globalisation and rapid urbanisation in the urban South Demonstrated through case studies of daily politics in Hout Bay Democracy Disconnected shows how Cape Town residents engage local rule In the absence of democratic control urban rule in the Global South becomes a complex and contingent framework of multiple and multilevel forms of urban governance FUG that involve City Hall but are not directed by it Bureaucratic governance coexists alongside market developmental and informal forms of governance This disconnect of democracy from urban governance segregates people spatially socially but also politically Thus while the residents of Hout Bay may live next to each other they do not live with each other This book will be a valuable resource for students on programmes such as urban studies political science sociology development studies and political geography

Decolonisation in Universities Jonathan

Jansen, 2019-08-01 In this collection of case studies and stories from the field South African scholars come together to trade stories on how to decolonise the university Shortly after the giant bronze statue of Cecil John Rhodes came down at the University of Cape Town student protestors called for the decolonisation of universities It was a word hardly heard in South Africa's struggle lexicon and many asked What exactly is decolonisation This edited volume brings together the best minds in curriculum theory to address this important question In the process several critical questions are raised Is decolonisation simply a slogan for addressing other pressing concerns on campuses and in society What is the colonial legacy with respect to curriculum and can it be undone How is the project of curriculum decolonisation similar to or different from the quest for postcolonial knowledge indigenous knowledge or a critical theory of knowledge What does decolonisation mean in a digital age where relationships between knowledge and power are shifting The book combines strong conceptual analyses with novel case studies of attempts to do decolonisation in settings as diverse as South Africa Uganda Tanzania and Mauritius Such a comparative perspective enables reasonable judgements to be made about the prospects for institutional take up within the curriculum of century old universities

Engineering the Plant Factory for the Production of Biologics and Small-Molecule Medicines Domenico De Martinis, Rosella Franconi, Eugenio Benvenuto, Edward P. Rybicki, Kazuhito Fujiyama, 2017-04-27

Plant gene transfer achieved in the early 80s paved the way for the exploitation of the potential of gene engineering to add novel agronomic traits and or to design plants as factories for high added value molecules For this latter area of research the term Molecular Farming was coined in reference to agricultural applications in that major crops like maize and tobacco were originally used basically for pharma applications The concept of the green biofactory implies different advantages over the typical cell factories based on animal cell or microbial cultures already when considering the investment and managing costs of fermenters Although yield stability and quality of the molecules may vary among different heterologous systems and plants are competitive on a case to case basis still the plant factory attracts scientists and technologists for the challenging features of low production cost product safety and easy scale up Once engineered a plant is among the cheapest and easiest eukaryotic system to be bred with simple know how using nutrients water and light Molecules that are currently being produced in plants vary from industrial and pharmaceutical proteins including medical diagnostics proteins and vaccine antigens to nutritional supplements such as vitamins carbohydrates and biopolymers Convergence among disciplines as distant as plant physiology and pharmacology and more recently as omic sciences bioinformatics and nanotechnology increases the options of research on the plant cell factory Farming for Pharming biologics and small molecule medicines is a challenging area of plant biotechnology that may break the limits of current standard production technologies The recent success on Ebola fighting with plant made antibodies put a spotlight on the enormous potential of next generation herbal medicines made especially in the name of the guiding principle of reduction of costs hence reduction of disparities of health rights and as a tool to guarantee adequate health protection in developing countries
