Asian Responses to the Global Financial Crisis Jehoon Park, T. J. Pempel, Geng Xiao, 2012-01-01 This book takes account of the global financial crisis from Asian perspectives considering Asian responses to the crisis via two key arenas regionalism in Asia and the G20 The expert contributors both Asian and Western illustrate that as G20 members many Asian countries are now able to showcase their increasing powers and influence on global issues Within this context and via multidisciplinary economic and political science perspectives the book deals with various issues such as World System analysis the debate between the Washington Consensus and the Beijing Consensus roles within the G20 and the contribution of middle powers such as Korea and Australia The application of European experiences to Asia is also considered as are perspectives from the US The book concludes that the key to resolving the current global economic crisis lies in how quickly a new global governance and monitoring system can be constructed and that there are multiple roles for Asian countries to play in its development Written with a uniquely multidisciplinary approach this book will prove a fascinating read for a wide ranging audience encompassing academics students researchers and policymakers in a number of fields including Asian studies economics public policy and regional studies

The Shape of a Swiss-US Free Trade Agreement Gary Clyde Hufbauer, Richard E. Baldwin, 2006 At first sight a free trade agreement FTA between Switzerland and the United States seems implausible but this important new study concludes that an FTA between the two countries would be highly worthwhile to both As leading advocates of market capitalism Switzerland and the United States are well situated to conclude an FTA that breaks new ground in dismantling barriers The study finds that the annual GDP gains to each partner from expanded trade could be on the order of 1 1 billion

Sustaining Reform with a US-Pakistan Free Trade Agreement Gary Clyde Hufbauer, Shahid Javed Burki, 2006 This Policy Analysis previews the case for more decisive US economic engagement of Pakistan and suggests that a US Pakistan FTA could reinforce existing reforms and push the envelope in economic areas where Pakistan and South Asia more generally have lagged In keeping with the Institute s extensive research agenda on prospective US FTAs we present a detailed analysis of the costs and benefits of a US Pakistan FTA for the signatory countries for regional integration and for the world trading system Preface

Grave New World Stephen D. King, 2018-05-22 A controversial look at the end of globalization and what it means for prosperity peace and the global economic order Globalization long considered the best route to economic prosperity is not inevitable An approach built on the principles of free trade and since the 1980s open capital markets is beginning to fracture With disappointing growth rates across the Western world nations are no longer willing to sacrifice national interests for global growth nor are their leaders able or willing to sell the idea of pursuing a global agenda of prosperity to their citizens Combining historical analysis with current affairs economist Stephen D King provides a provocative and engaging account of why globalization is being rejected what a world ruled by rival states with conflicting aims might look like and how the pursuit of nationalist agendas could result in a race to the bottom King argues that a rejection of globalization and a return to autarky will risk economic and political conflict and he uses lessons from history to gauge how best to avoid the worst possible outcomes

Case Studies in US Trade Negotiation: Resolving disputes Charan Devereaux, Robert Z. Lawrence, Michael Watkins, 2006 Between 1992 and 2000 US exports rose by 55 percent By the year 2000 trade summed to 26 percent of US GDP and the United States imported almost two thirds of its oil and was the world s largest host country for foreign investors America s interest in a more open and prosperous foreign market is now squarely economic These case studies in multilateral trade policymaking and dispute settlement explore the changing substance of trade agreements and also delve into the negotiation process the who how and why of decision making These books present a coherent description of the facts that will allow for discussion and independent conclusions about policies politics and processes Volume 2 presents five cases on trade negotiations that have had important effects on trade policy rulemaking as well as an analytic framework for evaluating these negotiations The Right Place Arturo Bris, 2021-07-28 The Right Place explains why firms succeed in one country and fail in another irrespective of their inner drivers and suggests potential initiatives that governments can take to help the private sector create jobs and consequently make their countries more prosperous The competitiveness race is not unlike a cycling race If you want to ride fast you need three things a good bike to be in good shape and a smooth and fast road In a collaborative model you might say the business is the bicycle the business leader is the cyclist and the road is the government and the external environment The responsibility of a government is to design and build the best possible road It turns out that when the road is good good cyclists suddenly appear and want to race on it In this book competition and macroeconomics expert Arturo Bris provides the analysis of country competitive performance based on 30 years advising countries on this topic The typical mistakes that countries make are revealed and the pillars necessary in building a competitive economy economic performance as a necessary condition for prosperity government efficiency so the public sector can create the conditions for a productive economy business efficiency so companies can create jobs and infrastructure both tangible and intangible so businesses and individuals can operate efficiently With contemporary case studies throughout the book provides an illuminating read for politicians business leaders and students of macroeconomics British Books ,1908 Case Studies in US Trade Negotiation: Making the rules Charan Devereaux, Robert Z. Lawrence, Michael Watkins, 2006 Volume 1 of this series presents five cases on trade negotiations that have had important effects on trade policy rulemaking and an analytic framework for evaluating these negotiations Jacket Current Law Index ,2006 Resources in Education ,1994-03

Intellectual Property, Antitrust and Cumulative Innovation in the EU and the US Thorsten Kåseberg, 2012-06-08 For decades the debate about the tension between IP and antitrust law has revolved around the question to what extent antitrust should accept that IP laws may bar competition in order to stimulate innovation The rise of IP rights in recent years has highlighted the problem that IP may also impede innovation if research for new technologies or the marketing of new products requires access to protected prior innovation How this cumulative innovation is actually accounted for under IP and antitrust laws in the EU and the US and how it could alternatively be dealt with are the central questions addressed in this unique study by lawyer and economist Thorsten Kåseberg Taking an integrated view of both IP and antitrust rules in particular on refusals to deal based on IP the book assesses policy levers under European and US patent copyright and trade secrecy laws such as the bar for and scope of protection as well as research exemptions compulsory licensing regimes and misuse doctrines It analyses what the allocation of tasks is and should be between these IP levers and antitrust rules in particular the law on abuse of dominance Article 102 TFEU and monopolisation Section 2 Sherman Act while particular attention is paid to the essential facilities doctrine including pricing methodologies for access to IP Many recent decisions and judgments are put into a coherent analytical framework such as IMS Health AstraZeneca GlaxoSmithKline in the EU Apple France Orange Book Standard Germany Trinko Rambus NYMEX eBay US Microsoft and IBM T3 both EU and US Further topics covered include IP protection for software interoperability information and databases industry specific tailoring of IP antitrust innovation market analysis and the WTO law on the IP antitrust interface Executive
