

STEPS TO WRITE AN ARGUMENTATIVE ESSAY

01. Choose a topic for your essay

The best approach to select a topic is to go for contradictory ones on which there is polarization in opinions. Never select a moral issue as your topic.

02. Collect data

Before starting, you should collect all the necessary data related to your topic. All the claims and arguments should be backed by supportive evidence.

03. Create an outline

Create a proper outline for your essay and divide it into necessary parts. The three components are the introduction, body paragraphs and the conclusion.

04. Introduction

Start your essay with an impressive hook that can capture the attention of your readers. The introduction of your essay should be compelling.

05. Write a strong thesis statement

The thesis statement is the crux of any essay and reflects the main idea. Generally, a thesis statement constitutes the last few lines of the introduction.

06. Body Paragraphs

Your body paragraphs include the arguments before your reader. Present an issue before your reader by analyzing all the angles associated with that topic.

07. Conclusion

The conclusion should be concise and logical. You can restate the thesis statement in conclusion, which can be your side of the argument too.

08. Proofread before submitting

Always proofread your essay before submitting and look out for minor mistakes like typing errors, spelling mistakes or grammatical mistakes.
