The six chapters in Part II are a resource for reflective practice, introducing theory to address questions policy analysts confront in the course of their work: What is the purpose of politics and public policy? How do I know I am making a difference? How do I tackle working with stakeholders with different competing or conflicting interests? How might I navigate conflicting claims relating to identity and culture? And how can I balance responsiveness to current demands with responsibility to future generations? Every chapter closes with suggestions for group exercises and questions for individual reflection.
