Tragovi desitijatskog grada u Sarajevu / Traces of Daesitiates town in Sarajevo Salmedin

Mesihović, On one of the inscriptions that were erected during governor Publius Cornelius Dolabella to commemorate completion of huge infrastructure building project of road network that connected Salona capital of provincia Illyricum Superior with its continental interior toponym castellum Daesitiatium HE is mentioned as the final destination of one of the constructed roads Ever since the earliest publication of the mentioned inscriptions named after the governor Dolabela the search for the location of this castle and probably the settlement has been going on A large number of theories and proposals were offered related to the route of the road from Salona to castellum Daesitiatium HE and its location What was known with certainty until now is that the castle must have been located somewhere in the territory of Upper Bosnia which in the Late Iron Age and early Principate belonged to the Illyrian nation Daesitiates Our proposal is based on route of the road from Salona through the military base 7th legion in Tilurium to Duvanjsko polje and from there via Ravan plain entered region Rama from where it stretched along the upper reaches of the Neretva river all the way to today s Konjic From there the road would rise all the way to the pass on the Ivan mountain from where it would descend into the Sarajevo area where since the final phase of the Neolithic and continuously through all the metal eras there was a developed economic communication demographic socially and politically important settlement complex Debelo Brdo The distance between Salona and the aforementioned settlement complex would also correspond to the distance of 156 Roman miles from Salona to the castellum Daesitiatium HE that is written on Dolabella inscriptions The settlement complex Debelo Brdo shows all the features that qualify it for identification as a castellum Daesitiatium HE On Debelo Brdo itself there are very visible traces of a Roman military fort that existed for a very long time until the very end of 6th century Two objects with engraved monograms probably in Greek letters were also found on Debelo Brdo It may be possible to read the abbreviation HC DES on one of them If such a reading were correct it would be another valuable piece of evidence to confirm the thesis that the settlement complex Debelo Brdo is in fact the settlement with the castle that bears the Daesitiates name By the way name of this nation in Greek language and script also begins with HC for example in historiographic work of Cassius Dio The mentioned reading of one of the monograms would point to this location and identify it with the toponym Desnik which is written in the work of Byzantine emperor Constantine Porphyrogenitus on ruling the empire In the fourth decade of 13th century a cathedral church dedicated to St Peter was erected in this area and in 14th and 15th century there was also an open settlement with a market place Since the last decades of 15th century and during the first decades of 15th century this settlement with its millennial tradition of the village way of life is absorbed into the city named Sarajevo Mord i Central Park Patricia Cornwell,2012-08-23 New York veckan f re jul Kay Scarpetta jobbar dubbelt som kriminalteknisk analytiker f r ett tv program
