United Nations Gaza Report:

Palestine Membership in the United Nations Mutaz Qafisheh, 2014-10-16 This book aims to bridge the scientific gap that exists with regard to Palestine's membership of the UN as a State. As international law cannot operate outside the context of the global political atmosphere, the book focuses on the international legal dimension as well as the political practical aspects of UN statehood recognition. With chapters written by leading international scholars, this collection is directed to those concerned with the strengthening of international law and the UN. Complex issues of representation and the confusing situation of citizenship given the multiple residential circumstances in which Palestinians are forced to live are explored with unsurpassed clarity. This invaluable contribution to the scholarly literature offers an ideal point of departure for understanding the core issues as they exist at this time. In this volume, Dr Qafisheh and eighteen other contributors go beyond the direct implications of Palestinian statehood within the UN to consider the prospects for a resolution of one of the longest conflicts in history. The UN statehood resolution of November 2012 reaffirms the two-State consensus which increasingly seems to be a desert mirage without any prospect of being realized. What self-determination might mean in light of this background where the two-State solution seems to be nearing the end of its sunset phase is explored in creative ways throughout the book. The book consists of three parts. Part I presents the framework of Palestine's UN membership: its legal and political foundations, its implications for PLO representation, Palestinian refugees and population status, and its impact on concerned parties. Part II focuses on selected issues that arise in relation to Palestine's UN membership, including human rights, humanitarian law, international criminal law, prisoners, Jerusalem, water, and the accession to the WTO. Part III connects the history with future solutions for the Palestinian-Israeli conflict. The United Nations United States: Congress, House, Committee on Foreign Affairs, 2011

The United Nations Principles to Combat Impunity: A Commentary Frank Haldemann, Thomas Unger, 2018-03-21 The fight against impunity has become a growing concern of the international community. Updated in 2005, the UN Set of Principles for the Protection and Promotion of Human Rights Through Action to Combat Impunity is the fruit of several years of study developed under the aegis of the UN Commission on Human Rights and then affirmed by the Human Rights Council. These Principles are today widely accepted as constituting an authoritative reference point for efforts in the fight against impunity for gross human rights abuses and serious violations of international humanitarian law. As a comprehensive attempt to codify universal accountability norms, the UN Set of Principles marks a significant step forward in the debate on the obligation of states to combat impunity in its various forms. Bringing together leading experts in the field, this volume provides comprehensive academic commentary of the 38 principles. The book is a perfect companion to the document setting out the text of the Principles alongside detailed analysis as well as a full introduction and a guide to the relevant literature and case law. The commentary advances debates and clarifies complex legal issues, making it an essential resource for legal academics, students, and practitioners working in fields such as human

This year's ARUNA includes excerpts from the Report of the Commission of Experts of the President of the United Nations General Assembly on Reforms of the International Monetary and Financial System 21 Sept 2009 and from a slightly edited version of a Preface to that report written by Professor Joseph E Stiglitz. However, the roster of distinguished experts who have contributed this introduction in the past is also worthy of mention. Jose Antonio Ocampo, ARUNA 2008 2009 edition, Professor Jose Antonio Ocampo is Co President of the Initiative for Policy Dialogue. He is also Professor in the School of International and Public Affairs and Fellow of the Committee on Global Thought at Columbia University. In 2009, he was a member of the Commission of Experts of the President of the United Nations General Assembly on Reforms of the International Monetary and Financial System. Professor Jeffrey D Sachs is Director of the Earth Institute at Columbia University and Special Advisor to the Secretary General of the UN on the Millennium Development Goals. Professor Sachs's introduction to ARUNA 2007 2008 was titled Towards a New Global Protocol on Climate Change, in which he argued that solving the climate change problem will demand four steps: scientific consensus, public awareness, the development of alternative technologies, and a global framework for action. He dealt in particular with the science underpinning the negotiations for a new global protocol on climate change as a successor to the Kyoto Protocol. Professor Sachs argued that climate change crises can only be solved through the goals, leadership, and treaty mechanisms of the UN. Edward C Luck, ARUNA 2006 2007 edition. Professor Edward C Luck is UN Special Advisor on the Responsibility to Protect and Vice President and Director of Studies at the International Peace Academy. From 1984 to 1994, he served as President and Chief Executive Officer of the UN Association of the USA. UNA USA Professor Luck's introduction to ARUNA 2006 2007 covered The responsible sovereign and the responsibility to protect, in which he addressed the scope and content of what was agreed at the 2005 World Summit, the implications of the responsibility to protect (RtoP) for notions of state sovereignty, and some of the conceptual, architectural, and policy challenges then facing UN Secretary General Ban Ki-moon's commitment to operationalizing the responsibility to protect and translating it from words to deeds. Louise Frechette, ARUNA 2005 2006 edition. Ms Louise Frechette is Distinguished Fellow at the Centre for International Governance, Innovation, Waterloo, Ontario. Sovereignty or Submission John Fonte, 2011-09-06 The Twenty First Century is witnessing an epic struggle between the forces of global governance and American constitutional democracy Transnational progressives and pragmatists in the UN EU post modern states of Europe NGOs corporations prominent foundations and most importantly in America's leading elites seek to establish global governance Further they understand that in order to achieve global governance American sovereignty must be subordinated to the global rule of law The U S Constitution must incorporate evolving norms of international law Sovereignty or Submission examines this process with crystalline clarity and alerts the American public to the danger ahead Global governance seeks legitimacy not in democracy but in a partisan interpretation of human rights It would shift power from democracies U S Israel India to post democratic authorities such as the judges of the International Criminal Court Global governance is a new political form a rival to liberal democracy that is already a significant actor on the world stage America faces serious challenges from radical Islam and a rising China Simultaneously it faces a third challenge global governance that is internal to the democratic world is non violent but nonetheless threatens constitutional self government Although it seems unlikely that the utopian goals of the globalists could be fully achieved if they continue to obtain a wide spread influence over mainstream elite opinion they could disable and disarm democratic self government at home and abroad The result would be the slow suicide of American liberal democracy Whichever side prevails the existential conflict of global governance versus American sovereignty and democratic self government in general will be at the heart of world politics as far as the eye can see
