Catholic Theology of Marriage in the Era of HIV and AIDS Emily Reimer-Barry, 2015-04-09 Marriage for Life begins by listening to the lived experiences of Catholic married HIV positive women in order to better understand their struggles The eight women interviewed in Chicago Illinois USA shared their stories of marriage of family life of church involvement and of living with HIV Their candid reflections offer a fresh and grounded perspective on the challenges of living with HIV in a US context After listening to and learning from these women s experiences Reimer Barry constructs a theology of Christian marriage that is life giving in a world with AIDS While Catholic teachings have developed and now affirm the equal dignity of women and men troubling legacies of women s subordination remain embedded in liturgical practices and theological texts Arguing that self care is an indispensable component of a healthy marriage Reimer Barry constructs a life affirming theology of marriage that is sensitive to the struggles of her collaborators She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners respect wives as equal partners with their husbands and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic Building on the wisdom of her collaborators lived experiences Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church communities She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice marriage preparation programs sexual education programs and family ministries Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life

Transfiguration and Hope D. Gregory Van Dussen, 2018-09-17 To read and visualize the transfiguration of Christ is to enter its mystery and encounter its hope Like the Gospel writers and the disciples who climbed the mountain with Jesus we struggle to tell the story and explain its meaning

Yet this astounding event reveals God's ultimate purpose in sending his Son the complete restoration of humanity and all creation our transfiguration in Christ The light and glory of that moment reveal a destiny that is infinite and eternal made possible by the power of grace Transfiguration is the trajectory and goal of our spiritual journey Across time and space Christians have reflected on the mystery and hope epitomized in the transfiguration yet their voices have been heard primarily within their own cultural and ecclesiastical contexts This study gathers many of those voices from the panorama of Scripture and church history and finds in them the common theme of radical transformation in Christ The point of this theological conversation is spiritual transfiguration and hope for each of us as we reach toward the future Christ has shown us in himself

The Upper Room Disciplines 2015 Rita Collett, 2014-07-01 The Upper Room Disciplines 2015 is a devotional guide for Christians who want to delve deeper into scripture and apply it to their daily lives Fifty three writers from diverse Christian backgrounds share messages of hope challenge and joy Each daily reading includes a focal scripture passage from the Revised Common Lectionary a meditation related to the scripture and a prayer or suggestion for reflection Writers for 2015 include Trevor Hudson Marjorie Hewitt Suchoki Michael W Waters Eileen Campbell Reed Paul Lynd Escamilla J Dana Trent James Howell Kristen Vincent Thomas Thangaraj and more

Preaching and Praying as Though God Matters Ronald P. Byars, 2022-10-14 We in mainline churches are uneasy maybe even scared Why are our voices not heard After all we are the reasonable Christians the updated Christians the respectable ones who have dominated the cultural landscape since colonial times This book presumes that trying to reverse the loss of our traditional status in society is both futile and beside the point What's called for when we find ourselves in a state of crisis is to rediscover the big picture the Christian hope projected on a large screen This requires the courage to revisit the sources from which all Christian hope springs rediscovering their life giving power That power rises from the counterintuitive affirmations of the gospel represented in Christ's incarnation his healing the afflicted his raising the dead his vulnerability his cross resurrection and universal restoration Acts 3:21 Preaching and worship that embodies and lifts up the hard parts the life giving parts is neither fundamentalist nor an exercise in nostalgia It is rather evidence of confidence in the triune God who makes the unknowable known The Good Shepherd promised My sheep hear my voice I know them and they follow me John 10:27 And when they do they will
