University Of Kwazulu Natal 2016:

ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 ICIE 2016 Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship Dr Kenneth A. Grant and Dr Sean Wise, 2016 University Community Engagement and Lifelong Learning Julia Preece, 2017-07-13 This book offers a conceptual re think of how university community engagement functions as a lifelong learning resource for communities While having a specific focus on the South African context it has important implications for other universities which are concerned with their communities and makes a compelling argument for the university as a public good in spite of current trends towards marketization and commodification of higher education The book draws on a theoretical framework of capabilities asset based community development and the adult learning concept of dialogue to propose a model whereby the boundary walls of the university become metaphorically porous so that community members feel free to interact with the university as equal members of society A historical outline of African universities is provided as well as an exploration of the evolution of terms for community engagement service learning and learning cities and an examination of the policy and practice implications for the ideological model of a porous university The Decolonization of Knowledge Jonathan D. Jansen, Cyril A. Walters, 2022-06-30 A timely and innovative study on how the decolonization movement is transforming universities curricula and campuses African Democratic Citizenship Education Revisited Yusef Waghid, Nuraan Davids, 2017-11-28 This edited collection explores how democratic citizenship education manifests across the African continent A recognition of rights and responsibilities coupled with an emphasis on deliberative engagement among citizens while not uniquely African provides ample evidence that the concept can most appropriately be realised in relation to its connectedness with experiences of people living on the continent Focussing on a diverse collection of voices the editors and authors examine countries that have an overwhelming allegiance to democratic citizenship education In doing so they acknowledge that this concept enveloped by a certain Africanness has the potential to manifest in practices across the African continent By highlighting the success of democratic citizenship education the diverse and varied contributions from across this vast continent address the malaise in its implementation in countries where autocratic rule prevails This pioneering volume will be an invaluable resource for researchers and students working in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in education policy philosophy of education and global citizenship initiatives ECRM2016-Proceedings of the 15th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business Management " Vladlena Benson, Fragkiskos Filippaios, 2016-05-20 Emerging States at Crossroads Keiichi Tsunekawa, Yasuyuki Todo, 2018-11-30 This book is open access under a CC BY NC ND license This volume analyzes the economic social and political challenges that emerging states confront today Notwithstanding the growing importance of the emerging states in global affairs and governance many problems requiring immediate solutions have emerged at home largely as a consequence of the rapid economic development and associated sociopolitical changes The middle income trap is a major economic challenge faced by emerging states This volume regards interest coordination for technological upgrading as crucial to avoid the trap and examines how various emerging states are grappling with this challenge by fostering public private cooperation voluntary associations of market players and or social networks Social disparity is another serious problem It is deeply rooted in history in the emerging states such as South Africa and many Latin American countries However income distribution is recently deteriorating even in East Asia that was once praised for its high economic growth with equity Increasing pressure for political opening is another challenge for emerging states This volume argues that the economic social and political problems are interwoven in the sense that the emerging states need to build political consensus in order to tackle the economic and social difficulties Democratic institutions have not always been successful in this respect

Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel, 2020-12-25 Human movement has an influence on the socio economic dynamics of people regions and countries The schisms between host and immigrants impact how host countries utilize immigrant skills and expertise to benefit their economies However immigrants are impacted by negative diplomatic relations between countries that limit the free movement of people and the welfare of immigrants In association this brings about social challenges such as Afrophobia racism xenophobia hatred and violence within these countries While these challenges are deeply rooted across the world Africa has its own unique challenges Still struggling with massive underdevelopment Africa needs to remove all the negative factors that could impede its quest of achieving development imperatives Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa analyzes the genesis and evolution of immigration in Africa and how this has resulted in social challenges such as xenophobia within the continent The book focuses on demonstrating how immigrant skills and expertise can be positively utilized to assist African development and asserts the existence of xenophobia in respective countries does not assist Africa s quest of resolving its own challenges The chapters within this book therefore explore how this subsequent output of xenophobia has impacted African development and focuses on the revival of Pan Africanism as a uniting instrument and ideology for Africans This book is a valuable reference tool for activists retired and practicing politicians governments policymakers practitioners stakeholders researchers students and academicians

ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala, 2018-07-05 Economics and Climate Emergency Barry Gills, Jamie Morgan, 2022-08-22 This book explores a series of connected themes focused on the role economics and other influential forms of theory and thinking have played in creating the current predicament and the scope for alternatives and how they might be framed Thirty years have passed since the inception of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change UNFCCC and the beginning of policy on climate change Thirty wasted years To most politicians long term collective interest has been denominated in meaningless units of time a never and forever that has continually delayed action From complacency has come potential disaster and we are now living in a time of climate emergency and ecological breakdown The next decade is a pivotal period requiring fundamental change But numerous impediments remain Continual material energy and economic growth on a planetary scale are manifestly impossible and yet economic theory takes these as a given and political leadership and policy seem unwilling to accept brute reality Instead they offer a series of implausible commitments and pledges rooted in technofixes without addressing the fundamental drivers of the problems the world faces The edited volume explores the issues and offers a variety of ways to think through the problems at hand from postgrowth degrowth and social ecological economics to policy assemblage and transversalism The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Globalizations

Harvesting Plant and Microbial Biodiversity for Sustainably Enhanced Food Security Laurent Laplace, Francesca Sparvoli, Khaled Masmoudi, Charles Thomas Hash, 2018-03-19 The World population will reach 9 billion by 2050 with the majority of this growth occurring in developing countries On the other hand one in nine of the World's population suffers from chronic hunger the vast majority of which live in developing countries We therefore need to find new and sustainable solutions to feed this increasing population and alleviate the predicted negative impact of global changes on crop production This e Book deals with new strategies to improve food security and livelihoods in rural communities reduce vulnerability increase resilience and mitigate the impact of climate change and land degradation on agriculture This collection of 18 articles addresses the major abiotic factors limiting crop production worldwide how to characterize and exploit the available plant biodiversity to increase production and sustainability in agrosystems and the use of beneficial microbes to improve production and reduce the use of fertilizers and pesticides

A Scholarship of Doctoral Education Petro du Preez, Shan Simmonds, 2018-11-21 This edited collection is cohesive by a focus on becoming becoming a doctoral student becoming a researcher becoming an academic and becoming a supervisor This journey of becoming takes us from pre enrolment in a doctoral programme through the many phases of candidature and into the post doctoral environment Both advancing theory and providing very practical examples this book is of immense value to doctoral students and academics not only in South Africa for whom it should be a mandatory read but also for doctoral education researchers doctoral students and supervisors worldwide as the themes covered extend well beyond the borders of South Africa

Challenging Inequality in South Africa Michelle Williams, Vishwas Satgar, 2021-05-13 In Challenging Inequality in South Africa Transitional Compasses leading scholars of South Africa explore creative possibilities to challenge structures of economic social and political power that produce inequality Through concrete empirical examples of movements workers struggles initiatives and politics in challenging inequality the authors illustrate transitional compasses that go beyond protest politics to a generative politics a politics of building the alternatives in the interstitial spaces of capitalism The conceptual framing is oriented around the way in which power is produced and reproduced through intricate relationships between hegemonic projects and everyday life While power underpins all social relations it is often taken for granted as it is frequently hidden behind other social relations Resistance to power emerges through engendering counter hegemonic projects that are intertwined with alternative everyday practices The authors highlight sources of alternative forms of power found in resistance to dominant forms of power through concrete experiences to create transformative alternatives To concretize the conceptual framing the authors look at the emancipatory possibilities of a universal basic income the use of law in tackling inequality in health and education creative initiatives to establish a people centred food system through food sovereignty new forms of organizing led by precarious workers democratic possibilities in local state delivery and attempts at reconceptualizing the good life by looking at issues of happiness and ecosocialism The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Globalizations Redefining Success Patricia M. Flynn,Tay Keong Tan,Milenko Gudić,2017-09-27

Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie

Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country's developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy

The History of Chinese Presence in Nigeria

(1950s-2010s) Shaonan Liu, 2022-06-29 As the first book length work on the history of Chinese presence in Nigeria this book examines how Chinese migrants and the Nigerian state workers traders and consumers interacted with and influenced one another from the mid twentieth century to the early twenty first century Based on a combination of archival sources and oral history interviews this book argues that the significant Chinese presence in Nigeria Chinese owned factories commodities and entrepreneurs is not as recent a phenomenon as it might appear As early as the 1950s an influential yet understudied group of Chinese entrepreneurs moved to Nigeria set up factories and gradually came to dominate some of the country's key manufacturing industries such as textile and enamelware over subsequent decades Such dominance remained unchallenged until the coming of mainland Chinese traders with their made in China goods in the late 1990s dramatically changing the structure and influential pattern of the Chinese in Nigeria The research also emphasizes African Nigerian agency in shaping this Chinese presence both economically and culturally This is a vital read for academics researchers and students of African History African Studies Chinese Studies and those who are interested in contemporary issues relating to Africa China relations

ICEL2016-Proceedings of the 11th International Conference on e- Learning Prof. Dr.

Rozhan M. Idrus and Dr Nurkhamimi Zainuddin, 2016 National Identity and State Formation in Africa Manuel Castells, Bernard Lategan, 2021-03-17 This book examines how the interplay between globalization and the assertion of local identities is reshaping the political landscape of Africa While defending their values against external forces people simultaneously and paradoxically use the interconnectivity of global networks to maximize their particular interests Focusing on the relation between national identity and state formation the authors explore the far reaching consequences of these contradictory dynamics Although Africa shares many common trends with other parts of the world it also displays distinctive features A region characterized by the increased mobility of people goods and ideas challenges some conventional assumptions of statecraft and also highlights the advantages of federalism not merely as a constitutional option but as a pragmatic device for managing diversity and holding fragile states together The book further explores emerging types of state formation in the same political space as exemplified by the combination of elements of a kingdom an independent state and a national power base in the province of KwaZulu Natal and the careful crafting of an alternative state within a state by the Solidarity Movement in South Africa Informed by examples and case studies drawn from different parts of Africa this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Africa politics sociology media studies and the social sciences more generally
