The Proceedings of a Seminar Pertaining to the Limpopo Mobile Belt I. F. Ermanovics,R. M. Key,G. McEwen,1977

Academic Citizenship, Identity, Knowledge, and Vulnerability Nuraan Davids,2023-10-09 This book brings into contestation the idea of academic citizenship as a homogenous and inclusive space It delves into who academics are and how they come to embody their academic citizenship if at all Even when academics hold similar professional standings their citizenship and implied notions of participation inclusion recognition and belonging are largely pre determined by their personal identity markers rather than what they do professionally As such it is hard to ignore not only the contested and vulnerable terrain of academic citizenship but the necessity of unpacking the agonistic space of the university which both sustains and benefits from these contestations and vulnerabilities The book is influenced by a postcolonial vantage point interested in unblocking and opening spaces thoughts and voices not only of reimagined embodiments and expressions of academic citizenship but of hitherto silenced and discounted forms of knowledge and being It draws on academics stories at various universities located in South Africa USA UK Hong Kong and the Philippines It steps into the unexplored constructions of how knowledge is used in the deployment of valuing some forms of academic citizenship while devaluing others The book argues that different kinds of knowledge are necessary for both the building and questioning of theory the more expansive our immersion into knowledge the greater the capacities and opportunities for unlearning and relearning Routledge Handbook of Community Forestry Janette Bulkan,John Palmer,Anne M. Larson,Mary Hopley,2022-06-30 This handbook provides a comprehensive overview and cutting edge assessment of community forestry Containing contributions from academics practitioners and professionals the Routledge Handbook of Community Forestry presents a truly global overview with case studies drawn from across Africa Asia Europe and the Americas The Handbook begins with an overview of the chapters and a discussion of the concept of community forestry and the key issues Topics as wide ranging as Indigenous forestry conservation and ecosystem management relationships with industrial forestry trade and supply systems land tenure and land grabbing and climate change are addressed The Handbook also focuses on governance looking at the range of approaches employed including multi level governance and rights based approaches and the principal actors involved from local communities and Indigenous Peoples to governments and national and international non governmental organisations The Handbook reveals the importance of the historical context to community forestry and the effects of power and politics Importantly the Handbook not only focuses on successful examples of community forestry but also addresses failures in order to highlight the key challenges we are still facing and potential solutions The Routledge Handbook of Community Forestry is essential reading for academics professionals and practitioners interested in forestry natural resource management conservation and sustainable development Urban Infrastructure in Zimbabwe Innocent Chirisa,Abraham R. Matamanda,2023-11-29 The book provides insights into urban infrastructure debates and discourses in Zimbabwe Through an inter disciplinary and multi disciplinary approach the book explores the theoretical conceptual and lived experiences in urban infrastructure The book focuses on case studies relating to urban transport public housing water and sanitation and Geographical Information Systems GIS among other substantive issues relating to urban infrastructure and services Directory of Geoscience Departments 2015 Carolyn Wilson,2015-02-27 The Directory of Geoscience Departments 50th Edition is the most comprehensive directory and source of information about geosciences departments and researchers available It is an invaluable resource for individuals working in the geosciences or must identify or work with specialists on the issues of Earth Environmental and related sciences and engineering fields The Directory of Geoscience Departments 50th Edition provides a state country sorted listing of nearly 2300 geoscience departments research departments institutes and their faculty and staff Information on contact information for departments and individuals is provided as well as details on department enrollments faculty specialties and the date and source of faculty and staff s highest degree New in the 50th edition Listing of all US and Canadian geoscience theses and dissertations accepted in 2012 that have been reported to GeoRef Information Services as well as a listing of faculty by their research specialty Political Economy of Post-apartheid South Africa Gumede, Vusi,2017-05-05 The book made up of three parts covers a wide spectrum of political economy issues on post apartheid South Africa Although the text is mainly descriptive to explain various areas of the political economy of post apartheid South Africa the first and the last parts provide illuminating insights on the kind of society that is emerging during the twenty one years of democracy in the country The book discusses important aspects of the political history of apartheid South Africa and the evolution of post apartheid society including an important recap of the history of southern Africa before colonialism The text is a comprehensive description of numerous political economy phenomena since South Africa gained its political independence and covers some important themes that have not been discussed in detail in other publications on post apartheid South Africa The book also updates earlier work of the author on policy and law making land and agriculture education and training as well as on poverty and inequality in post apartheid South Africa thereby providing a wide ranging overview of the socio economic development approaches followed by the successive post apartheid administrations Interestingly three chapters focus on various aspects of the post apartheid South African economy economic policies economic empowerment and industrial development Through the lens of the notion of democratic developmental state and taking apartheid colonialism as a point of departure the book suggests that so far post apartheid South Africa has mixed socio economic progress The author s extensive experience in the South African government ensures that the book has policy relevance while it is also theoretically sound The text is useful for anyone who wants to understand the totality of the policies and legislation as well as the political economy interventions pursued since 1994 by the South African Government
