The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow, 2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa's bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey's death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss

The Forgotten People Saleem Badat, 2013-01-29 The apartheid state employed many weapons against its opponents imprisonment banning detention assassination and banishment In a practice reminiscent of Tsarist and Soviet Russia a large number of enemies of the state were banished to remote areas far from their homes communities and followers Here their existence became a slow torture of the soul a kind of social death This is the first study of an important but hitherto neglected group of opponents of apartheid set in a global historical and comparative perspective It looks at the reasons why people were banished their lives in banishment and the efforts of a remarkable group of activists led by Helen Joseph to assist them

Careers in Africa Oluwatimilehin Temitope Ologunoye, Chima Mordi, Olatunji David Adekoya, 2025-04-16 As Africa continues to rise as a global economic and cultural force more scholarly attention must be paid to the diverse and dynamic world of careers and professional development on the African continent This edited volume presents a collection of studies written by some of the most prominent career research scholars in Africa shedding light on the multidimensional and ever evolving landscape of careers across the African continent The book advocates for a greater focus on the institutionalist approach to studying career dynamics in Africa and also offers recommendations and directions for future career studies It motivates future scholars to contribute to cross cultural research on career dynamics by providing an African perspective The narrative explores historical and current practices in career guidance and counselling in Africa by addressing pressing matters such as minimum wage policies equity social justice labour market gender dynamics disability and employment intellectual capital and educational development This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of careers and employment HRM international business and African business more generally as well as practitioners and policymakers working on the continent AF Press Clips ,1986-07 Mergers and Alliances in Higher Education Adrian Curaj,Luke Georghiou,Jennifer Cassingena Harper,Eva Egron-Polak,2015-03-31 This volume casts light on mergers and alliances in higher education by examining developments of this type in different countries It combines the direct experiences of those at the heart of such transformations university leaders and senior officials responsible for higher education policy with expert analysts of the systems concerned Higher education in Europe faces a series of major challenges The economic crisis has accelerated expectations of an increased role in addressing economic and societal challenges while at the same time putting pressure on available finances Broader trends such as shifting student demographics and expectations globalisation and mobility and new ways of working with business have contributed to these increased pressures In the light of these trends there have been moves both from national or regional agencies and from individual institutions to respond by combining resources either through collaborative arrangements or more fundamentally through mergers between two or more universities After an introductory chapter by the editors which establishes the context for mergers and alliances the book falls into two main parts Part 1 takes a national or regional perspective to give some sense of the historical context the wider drivers and the importance of these developments in these cases Included are both systemic accounts for countries as France Sweden Romania Russia Wales and England and specific cross cutting initiatives including a major facility at Magurele in Romania and a Spanish programme for promoting international campuses of excellence Part 2 is built from specific cases of universities either in mergers or alliances with examples from different countries such as France UK Romania Spain Germany Denmark Finland Switzerland A concluding chapter by the editors assesses these experiences and indicates the implications and future needs for understanding in this domain Magnetic Nanomaterials Uyiosa Osagie Aigbe,Kingsley Eghonghon Ukhurebor,Robert Birundu Onyancha,2023-08-19 This book explores some of the latest and recent advances in the synthesis characterization and applications of magnetic nanomaterials It starts with an overview of magnetic nanomaterials followed by a list of their synthesis and characterization methods The book shows the potential of magnetic materials in different applications including theranostic nanomedicine heavy metals detection dyes sensing solar cells wastewater treatment decontamination of soil and detection and monitoring of toxic gases Moreover it explores their use as drug and gene delivery agents their biosafety and bioregulation facets tissue engineering applications and their potential for combating pathogens Anchored in Place Leslie Bank,Nico Cloete,2018-11-05 Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges

Grid-locked African Economic Sovereignty Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, Nhemachena,

Artwell, 2019-02-06 The emergent so called Fourth Industrial Revolution is regarded by some as a panacea for bringing about development to Africans This book dismisses this flawed reasoning Surfacing how investors are actually looting and plundering Africa how the industrial internet of things the gig economies digital economies and cryptocurrencies breach African political and economic sovereignty the book pioneers what can be called anticipatory economics which anticipate the future of economies It is argued that the future of Africans does not necessarily require degrowth postgrowth postdevelopment postcapitalism or sharing solidarity economies it requires attention to age old questions about African ownership and control of their resources Investors have to invest in ensuring that Africans own and control their resources Further it is pointed out that the historical imperial structural creation of forced labour is increasingly morphing into what we call the structural creation of forced leisure which is no less lethal for Africans Because both the structural creation of forced labour and the structural creation of forced leisure are undergirded by transnational neo imperial plunder theft robbery looting and dispossession of Africans this book goes beyond the simplistic arguments that Euro America developed due to the industrial revolutions
