Recalibrating teacher training in African higher education institutions Sifiso Sibanda, Gideon (Deon) P. van Tonder, Washington T. Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimagined to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark

China's Provinces and the Belt and Road Initiative Dominik Mierzejewski, 2021-03-30 This book discusses the Belt and Road Initiative at the provincial level in China It analyses the evolution of the role of local governments in Chinese foreign policy since the opening of China's economy in 1978 showing how the provinces initially competed with each other and how the central government was forced to react developing more centralised policies Unlike other books on the Belt and Road Initiative which focus on the international aspects of the initiative this book demonstrates the importance of the Belt and Road in reinforcing China's unitary status and for managing and coordinating development at the local level as well as centre province relations and province to province relations inside China

Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magesa Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa

Rhetorics of Value Corinne A.

Kratz,2025-03-28 In Rhetorics of Value Corinne A Kratz explores how exhibition design creates and conveys values that have the potential to touch educate and engage visitors Drawing on case studies from the Victoria and Albert Museum museums in South Africa and Kenya a Hawaiian resort hotel and the Smithsonian s National Museum of African American History and Culture among others Kratz shows how exhibits help shape and narrate cultural categories values and histories while provoking questions and evoking memories and experiences She crosses contexts to consider ethnographic history and art exhibits in national and community museums and other display settings Through these examples Kratz traces how exhibition designers combine objects texts images lighting audio space and narratives to craft a complex multilayered communicative form that visitors experience as they move through museums By investigating the relationship between audience reception and exhibition design strategies Kratz contends that through design exhibits can shape the ways we know the stories we tell and our contours of meaning and engagement

The Anthropology of White Supremacy Aisha M. Beliso-De

Jesús,Jemima Pierre,Junaid Rana,2025-01-28 White supremacy has shaped cultural anthropology from its inception yet the discipline also offers powerful tools for understanding how this corrosive force structures societies around the world The Anthropology of White Supremacy explores how this phenomenon works around the globe and within anthropology itself Gathering original essays from a diverse international group of anthropologists this collection illustrates that white supremacy far from being only a fringe belief of white nationalists and fascists is a core mainstream ideology The book includes essays about many countries including Brazil Mexico Nigeria Norway Senegal South Africa and the United States and takes up such topics as American advertising the Belgian Congo South Asian philosophies police cadets U S immigration courts Guantanamo memoirs Palestinian feminism Hollywood paparazzi and how Indigenous anthropologists can counter the damage of settler colonialism The result reveals not only how anthropology can help us to better comprehend white supremacy but also how the discipline can help us begin to dismantle it With contributions by Omolade Adunbi Samar Al Bulushi Aisha M Beliso De Jes s Michael Blakey Mitzi Uehara Carter Subhadra Mitra Channa Celina de S Vanessa Diaz Britt Halvorson Faye Harrison Sarah Ihmoud Anthony R Jerry Darryl Li Krist n Loftsd ttir Christopher Loperena Keisha Khan Y Perry Jemima Pierre Jean Muteba Rahier Laurence Ralph Renya K Ramirez Junaid Rana Joshua Reno Jonathan Rosa Shalini Shankar and Maria Styve Assembly Codes Matthew Hockenberry, Nicole Starosielski, Susan Zieger, 2021-08-02 The contributors to Assembly Codes examine how media and logistics set the conditions for the circulation of information and culture They document how logistics the techniques of organizing and coordinating the movement of materials bodies and information has substantially impacted the production distribution and consumption of media At the same time physical media such as paperwork along with media technologies ranging from phone systems to software are central to the operations of logistics The contributors interrogate topics ranging from the logistics of film production and the construction of internet infrastructure to the environmental impact of the creation distribution and sale of vinyl records They also reveal how logistical technologies have generated new aesthetic and performative practices In charting the specific points of contact dependence and friction between media and logistics Assembly Codes demonstrates that media and logistics are co constitutive and that one cannot be understood apart from the other Contributors Ebony Coletu Kay Dickinson Stefano Harney Matthew Hockenberry Tung Hui Hu Shannon Mattern Fred Moten Michael Palm Ned Rossiter Nicole Starosielski Liam Cole Young Susan Zieger Public Procurement, Corruption and the Crisis of Governance in Africa Nirmala Dorasamy, Omololu Fagbadebo, 2021-02-17 This book establishes a nexus between corruption in public procurement and the prevailing crisis of governance in Africa The African continent is characterised by the growing concern for the deteriorating human security In the midst of these woes African political leaders are known for their stupendous wealth and riches through expropriation of national resources for personal benefits This growing inequality in the continent has become a major driver for a series of violent and criminal activities which have added to the worsening governance crisis Thus the abuse of public power for advancing private gain constitutes an impediment to effective public service delivery thereby engendering a crisis of governance The consequence of this is not limited to the socio economic growth and welfare of citizens but it often also jeopardizes the democratic credentials and objectives of the state Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 1, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world s economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on The Perspectives of Higher Education COVID as a Catalyst for Change Embracing Online Learning as a Response to COVID and Post Covid The Way Forward It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic

Enterprise and Economic Development in Africa Dina M. Nziku, John J. Struthers, 2021-06-11 Presenting a topical analysis of the challenges and achievements of enterprise Enterprise and Economic Development in Africa examines contributions to economic development on the continent as well as exploring implications for policy dimensions The Greatest Beach Ethan Carr, 2019-06-01 In the mid nineteenth century Thoreau recognized the importance of preserving the complex and fragile landscape of Cape Cod with its weathered windmills expansive beaches dunes wetlands harbors and the lives that flourished here supported by the maritime industries and saltworks One hundred years later the National Park Service working with a group of concerned locals then senator John F Kennedy and other supporters took on the challenge of meeting the needs of a burgeoning public in this region of unique natural beauty and cultural heritage To those who were settled in the remote wilds of the Cape the impending development was threatening and as the award winning historian Ethan Carr explains the visionary plan to create a national seashore came very close to failure Success was achieved through unprecedented public outreach as the National Park Service and like minded Cape Codders worked to convince entire communities of the long term value of a park that could accommodate millions of tourists Years of contentious negotiations resulted in the innovative compromise between private and public interests now known as the Cape Cod model The Greatest Beach is essential reading for all who are concerned with protecting the nation's gradually diminishing cultural landscapes In his final analysis of Cape Cod National Seashore Carr poses provocative questions about how to balance the conservation of natural and cultural resources in regions threatened by increasing visitation and development Rough Diamonds

Hendrik Snyders, 2025-08-22 Starting in the late 19th century South African baseball has established a fascinating and multi layered history Initially established by a small group of dedicated pioneers the sport benefited from the contributions of a diverse and multi national group of enthusiasts and opponents including sailors cricketers missionaries activists businessmen and bureaucrats Established at a time of social and political segregation the South African game eventually developed into a system of legislated racism under apartheid Through its willing participation in official race based events the sport was stripped of its innocence and South Africa was formally expelled from the world game only to be readmitted in 1992 following the country's slow transition to democracy This book presents the history of South African baseball from its inception to its liberation from apartheid Based on extensive archival research this is the first integrated history of South African baseball's eventful past

Environmental Policy and Governance in China Hideki Kitagawa, 2017-03-24 This book focuses on how to create an environmentally friendly society in China from the viewpoint of environmental law and policy The authors accessed a great number of valuable sources not available in English and interviewed various scholars and public officials in order to analyze the environmental policies in China while comparing some of the features to Japan The book stresses the importance of introducing a brand new policy of central and local government and analyses why these policies have not been executed effectively in the local society In addition to the economy oriented policy and spirit of the Chinese nation which are the main causes this book also highlights shortcomings in the inspection system information management and the extremely low degree of public participation as important aspects to focus on in order to tackle the current problems The individual chapters will help readers to understand the environmental issues in China in depth and provide guidance on resolving the issues in China and in developing countries that are now or soon will be facing the challenge of combining economic growth and environmental improvement Air water and soil pollution are serious challenges in China The deterioration of the environment often leads to rioting that influences social stability which is also a great concern to foreign investors This book will be of interest to a professional audience such as policymakers journalists members of environmental NGOs managers and employees who do business with China as well as academic researchers and students

Belonging Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2025-09-23 What does it mean to belong Across oceans and centuries this sweeping narrative shuttles between the corridors of the Colonial Office in London the contested streets of Durban and the changing power dynamics within the British Raj The first boatload of indentured Indians arrived in Natal in 1860 Thousands were to follow In haunting detail the book captures the plight of these labourers as well as the vicious onslaught faced by the merchant class for daring to outpace their colonial rivals At its core are the untold struggles of Indian South Africans as they confront the ever present threat of repatriation Sensitive to shifting political terrains the book weaves together seismic events the independence of India the coming of apartheid and the threat once more of mass expulsions with the texture of everyday life The granting of citizenship in 1961 is accompanied by mass relocations as the Group Areas Act rips communities from their roots Yet out of this despair barren townships on the edges of cities are turned into places of hope In the final chapters the fall of apartheid offers a moment of transcendence Yet it also asks what does it mean at last to belong It is a fascinating story of the global and the local of resistance and collaboration and undefeated optimism This is a book for anyone who has ever sought a place to

The Changing Space Economy of City-Regions Koech Cheruiyot, 2017-10-30 This book addresses the South African Space Economy and its stark disparities and dualisms through an assessment of the Gauteng City Region the largest economic agglomeration in the country and on a continent bedevilled by a myriad of development challenges The book s focus on understanding the overall character of Gauteng City Region s Space Economy through data mining analysis and mapping comprehensively supplements the Space Economy literature on the region It covers the disparities exacerbated by an overlay of apartheid planning ideology and top down regional development based on selective encouragement of manufacturing investments in growth points or poles and how implementation of past policies intended to cure these disparities have yielded mixed results This book further offers the Gauteng City Region as a microcosm of the national economy in the form of evident significant placed based variations in the intensity and character of economic structure that on the one hand enjoys massive agglomeration economies while on the other has high levels of poverty and large numbers of people living below the Minimum Living Level This book should appeal to urban studies specialists economists and development studies researchers in the Global South

Quilt Arts of South Africa Marsha MacDowell, 2025-05-27 In the southernmost region of the African continent women have been piecing together materials textile construction techniques commonly used in quilting to create bed coverings throughout the history of the San and Khoi peoples. From the late seventeenth century through the early nineteenth century, an influx of Dutch, French, Indian, and British military personnel, traders, miners, and missionaries came to South Africa, bringing with them their own cultural traditions, including making and using quilts. Today, the making of quilts in South Africa is flourishing. Quilt Arts of South Africa stitches together the history, production, and significance of quilt making from its earliest appearance in the continent's southernmost region to the twenty-first century. With input from curators, linguists, art historians, activist artists, and folklorists, this book presents disparate yet connected inquiries into a wide-ranging history of the quilt. These perspectives connect a rich, expressive art to place, showing how the quilting traditions in South Africa together reflect a unique cultural history and natural landscape. Itself pieced together from diverse voices, Quilt Arts of South Africa offers glimpses into the histories and meanings of quilting in South Africa.
