Baron,Christine Van Geyn,Ernest Preston Manning,2023-11-07 In October 2022 the economist Emily Oster wrote a plea for a pandemic amnesty After detailing various ill conceived public health policies throughout the pandemic Oster concluded that The standard saying is that those who forget history are doomed to repeat it But dwelling on the mistakes of history can lead to a repetitive doom loop as well She reasoned that many admittedly poor public health decisions were made in an information vacuum and that the salubrious thing to do going forward would be to forgive and forget Oster was concerned about the fraying social fabric because of polarizing online discourse and urged the need to move forward However our anecdotal experience has shown a second common response to pandemic mishaps going blank entirely on what occurred during the pandemic We have observed a phenomenon of the surreal sometimes inane often unprecedented and unusual public health measures taken over the roughly three year pandemic period being a memory hole where the mind completely fogs over Many times in the course of writing this book we have messaged one another upon unearthing one public policy absurdity upon another the City of Toronto taping off cherry blossoms Quebec requiring unvaccinated people to be chaperoned in plexiglass carts through the essential aisles of big box stores We are not psychologists but no doubt there is an evolutionary benefit to allowing a collective trauma to dissolve into the slip stream it is unproductive to dwell on how we got by and how our government coped in real time Our memories are warped first by the primacy effect our tendency to remember firsts exemplified by people universally naming George Washington when asked to recall former U S presidents Most people have a crystal clear memory of the moment their plague year started in earnest for us and many others it was March 11 2020 the day the NBA suspended games for the rest of the season Machinists Monthly Journal ,1915 Vols 42 57 1930 45 include separately paged reports of secretary treasurer auditor roster of officials and other documents dealing with the activities of the association *Machinists' Monthly Journal.
