Government Gazette ,1902 75 Years After Partition Amit Ranjan,Farooq Sulehria,2025-07-24 This book explores how the 1947 Partition of British India not only divided people and territories but also deepened cultural rifts in postcolonial India Pakistan and Bangladesh especially between Hindus and Muslims The colonial divide and rule strategy which intensified religious divides laid the foundation for ongoing tensions Even as the 75th anniversary of Partition approached in 2022 this cultural segregation remains prevalent Over the years mass media such as films press and television have significantly evolved in India Bangladesh and Pakistan playing a pivotal role in manufacturing disseminating and perpetuating the narrative of cultural differences based on religion These cultural platforms have gained even more influence with the rise of majoritarian nationalism in both India and Pakistan The chapters in this volume analyse how language cinema and textbooks contributed to the divide instead of bridging gaps and why unresolved questions from the Partition continue to affect the region The chapters cover the communalization of Hindi and Urdu how textbooks in India Bangladesh and Pakistan narrate Partition the role of mass media in India and Pakistan in presenting Partition and the portrayal of Partition in films across India Bangladesh and Pakistan This book is aimed at students researchers and scholars interested in postcolonial studies South Asian history cultural studies and media analysis The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of India Review

Locality, Province and Nation John Gallagher,Gordon Johnson,Anil Seal,1973-07-26 With the steady growth of interest in the history of India under the British interpretations have emerged and they may sharply alter much of our thinking about Indian nationalism and British Imperialism Some of these historical revisions and the conclusions which may flow from them are illustrated by the essays in this book All of them grapple with questions of Indian political organization in different parts of the British Raj They enquire how these organizations worked at different level in the towns and in the countryside in the provinces and in the subcontinent itself They examine how these kinds of politics came to be bonded together into what were called nationalist movements They suggest that the interplay between these movements and British Imperialism was very much more ambiguous than has been commonly supposed All these essays are preliminary announcements of findings which will later appear in longer versions
