Milne,Laurence Pierre,1993-05-12 These proceedings contain the papers presented at the Advanced Research Working Conference on Correct Hardware Design Methodologies held in Arles France in May 1993 and organized by the ESPRIT Working Group 6018 CHARME 2and the Universit de Provence Marseille in cooperation with IFIP Working Group 10 2 Formal verification is emerging as a plausible alternative to exhaustive simulation for establishing correct digital hardware designs The validation of functional and timing behavior is a major bottleneck in current VLSI design systems slowing the arrival of products in the marketplace with its associated increase in cost From being a predominantly academic area of study until a few years ago formal design and verification techniques are now beginning to migrate into industrial use As we are now witnessing an increase in activity in this area in both academia and industry the aim of this working conference was to bring together researchers and users from both communities Reader's Index and Guide ,1913 Mothers in Academia Mari Castaneda,Kirsten Isgro,2013-05-21 Featuring forthright testimonials by women who are or have been mothers as undergraduates graduate students academic staff administrators and professors Mothers in Academia intimately portrays the experiences of women at various stages of motherhood while theoretically and empirically considering the conditions of working motherhood as academic life has become more laborious As higher learning institutions have moved toward more corporate based models of teaching immense structural and cultural changes have transformed women s academic lives and by extension their families Hoping to push reform as well as build recognition and a sense of community this collection offers several potential solutions for integrating female scholars more wholly into academic life Essays also reveal the often stark differences between women s encounters with the academy and the disparities among various ranks of women working in academia Contributors including many women of color call attention to tokenism scarce valuable networks and the persistent burden to prove academic credentials They also explore gendered parenting within the contexts of colonialism racism sexism ethnocentrism ageism and heterosexism Establishing the Family-Friendly Campus Jaime Lester,Margaret Sallee,2023-07-03 The impact of changing demographics in higher education and the importance of family friendly policies is well documented There is an urgent need to keep PhDs in the higher education sector to recruit talented scholars into academia and retain them over the course of their academic careers The key is instituting policies to enable all constituencies to balance work and personal responsibilities This book covers the range of issues faced by all generations in academe from PhD students to the sandwich generation those caring for children and aging parents simultaneously through to older faculty and administrators It addresses the causes for women faculty with children leaving the academy at a disproportionately higher rate than men the conflicts women face between academic work and motherhood and the difficulties they encounter in reentering the academy after having left the professoriate In examining the need for family friendly policies this book documents the best practices currently in use at institutions across the United States Each chapter highlights practices and programs from a variety of institutions and institutional types that address the needs of a more inclusive family friendly campus and offers suggestions to others who are implementing similar change on their campuses These examples provide context so that readers no longer have to develop practices in isolation and without evidence of their effectiveness The editors suggest that the most successful campuses are those that utilize a work life systems framework to meet the needs of its employees They also point to future growth trends including expanding the focus from faculty and staff to incorporate all in the campus communityThis book offers guidance to department chairs deans faculty administrators and graduate students on setting a family friendly agenda and models for implementation Contributors include Emily Arms Kathleen Beauchesne Jill Bickett Sharon A Dannels Mariko Dawson Zare Karie Frasch Marc Goulden Jeni Hart Caryn Jung Jaime Lester Sharon A McDade Jean McLaughlin Mary Ann Mason Sharon Page Medrich Kate Quinn Margaret Sallee Randi Shapiro Angelica Stacy David L Swihart Gloria D Thomas Darci Thompson Educational Information and Advisement Services Paul L.
