The College Buzz Book, 2006-03-23 In this new edition Vault publishes the entire surveys of current students and alumni at more than 300 top undergraduate institutions as well as the schools responses to the comments Each 4 to 5 page entry is composed of insider comments from students and alumni as well as the schools responses to the comments The College Buzz Book Carolyn C. Wise, Stephanie Hauser, 2007-03-26 Many guides claim to offer an insider view of top undergraduate programs but no publisher understands insider information like Vault and none of these guides provides the rich detail that Vault s new guide does Vault publishes the entire surveys of current students and alumni at more than 300 top undergraduate institutions Each 2 to 3 page entry is composed almost entirely of insider comments from students and alumni Through these narratives Vault provides applicants with detailed balanced perspectives Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Of Essays and Reading in Early Modern Britain S. Black, 2006-11-03 This study focuses on the co evolution of the essay and the mode of literacy it enabled and the interactive processes of reading with a new approach to early modern textuality It shows how the genre served to record test and disseminate the skills required and how the essay was adopted as a mechanism by various intellectual disciplines

Reading Faces Edward Higgs, 2025-10-20 Reading Faces is the first book to discuss the historical contexts and theoretical underpinnings of the artificial intelligence AI systems that identify individuals or purport to ascribe emotions and characteristics to them based on their facial features It examines the direct impact of past research on the development of AI systems the way in which the past provides contexts which have predisposed people to accept outputs of AI systems as common sense how the role of politics and the changing nature of the state have led to the introduction of AI systems and their precursors how previous technologies led to the acceptance of the introduction of superficially similar AIs and how the outputs and biases such as purported associations between race and criminality of facial biometrics systems have been determined by the historical nature of the underlying datasets they analyze Reading Faces approaches these issues within the sweep of Western History how it has shaped conceptual categories about the application and ethics of AI and tried to foist those ideas and values on the Global South This book is essential reading for postgraduates scholars as well as non specialist readers such as booksellers and librarians interested in modern AI technology Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Nineteenth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 With contributions from over 100 scholars the Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Nineteenth Century provides essays on the careers works and backgrounds of more than 100 nineteenth century poets It also provides entries on specialized categories of twentieth century verse such as hymns folk ballads spirituals Civil War songs and Native American poetry Besides presenting essential factual information each entry amounts to an in depth critical essay and includes a bibliography that directs readers to other works by and about a particular poet

Logan, 2017-03-02 In uncovering the origin of the designation University Wits Bob Logan examines the characteristics of the Wits and their influence on the course of Elizabethan drama For the first time Christopher Marlowe is placed in the context of the six University Wits where his reputation stands out as the most prominent and the impact of his university education on his works is clarified The essays selected for reprinting assess the most significant scholarship written about Marlowe including biographical studies challenges to familiar assumptions about the poet playwright and his works compositions on groupings of his works on individual works and on subjects particular to Marlowe Unique in its perspective and in the collection of essays this book will interest all students and scholars of Renaissance poetry drama and specialized cultural contexts

Dead Masters Anthony W. Lee, 2011-11-21 Dead Masters Mentoring and Intertextuality in Samuel Johnson examines the dual issues of mentoring and intertextuality as an integrated phenomenon Through a series of fresh and novel readings of Johnsonian and Boswellian texts the book offers insight not only into these two issues but further advances our awareness of the formal complexities of Johnson's writings and the psychological substratum from which they issue Lee utilizes a variety of critical perspectives for example the tools of Bloomean anxiety of influence post colonial and deconstructive criticism and explicative analysis under the generalized and flexible rubric of mentoring to explore the processes of textual influence mentoring relationships and cultural authority within Johnson's work The goals of this book include the consolidation of mentoring as a fruitful critical perspective from which to understand Johnson the establishment of an intertextual framework for understanding Johnson and the effort to offer a series of readings of Johnson that more fully divulge the power and complexity of his writing The book further seeks to effect via the mediation of a series of pragmatic readings a rapprochement between the theoretical divide separating psychological interpretations of Johnson interpersonal mentoring encounters and linguistic and formal interpretations especially intertextuality Arden Shakespeare Third Series Complete Works Ann Thompson, David Scott Kastan, H.
