University Of Fort Hare Application Forms 2015:

Citizen, Territory and Technologies: Smart Learning Contexts and Practices Óscar Mealha, Monica

Divitini, Matthias Rehm, 2017-06-21 This book gathers a selection of the articles accepted for presentation and discussion at the 2nd International Conference on Smart Learning Ecosystems and Regional Developments SLERD 2017 held 22-23 June. What characterizes smart learning ecosystems? What is their role in city and regional development and innovation? How can we promote the engagement of citizens in smart learning ecosystems? These are some of the questions addressed at SLERD 2017 and documented here. The proceedings include scientific papers that endeavor to understand, devise and promote innovative human-centric design and development methods, education training practices, informal social learning and citizen-driven policies. The individual papers elaborate on the notion of smart learning ecosystems, study the relation of smart learning ecosystems with, as such, they help to foster the social innovation sectors. Information and Communication Technology (ICT) and economic development and deployment strategies alongside new policies for smarter, proactive citizens making them a valuable resource for researchers and policymakers alike.

On the Critique of Identity Ivo Ritzer, 2025-01-07 With the rise of identity politics both in right-wing extremism as well as in activist academia, arts and feuilleton, major differences between the traditional left and the right have become blurred. This book addresses the ideological shifts from a vantage point of critical theory, psychoanalysis as well as Marxist interventions. Discussed are prevailing ideologies of identitarianism, putting the latter into social and historical as well as philosophical and epistemological context. The chapters offer theoretical elaborations on the myriad connections of identitarianism and counter-enlightenment, analyzing in particular the role of ethnocentric populism, antisemitism as well as conformist and conservative rebellion.

Paradise Lost, 2022-06-13 Paradise Lost: Race and Racism in Post-apartheid South Africa is about the continuing salience of race and persistence of racism in post-apartheid South Africa. The chapters in the volume illustrate the multiple ways in which race and racism are manifested and propose various strategies to confront racial inequality, racism and the power structure that underpins it while exploring how, through a renewed commitment to a non-racial society, apartheid racial categories can be put under erasure at exactly the time they are being reinforced.

Pan-African Aesthetics Lena Dallywater, 2025-11-17 Pan-Africanism has been a global project aiming to unite people of African descent since the late nineteenth century. Notions of Black and African arts and aesthetics have functioned as a bridge and brought positive identification across national, ethnic or class divides even when rifts have appeared unbridgeable. They were able to mediate Africanity positively both prior to and during the struggle for liberation and at times when the dream of a unified African nation died. This study explores central aspects, proponents and opponents of Pan-African aesthetics and shows that conceptualizations of Black African and Afrocentric aesthetics form a kaleidoscope that is constantly changing. Based on historical sources, in-depth reading and qualitative interviews, the study illustrates what happened to the discussions in the postcolonial era The story of unfolds along the life paths and approaches of four intellectuals from Anglophone and Francophone Africa Their framings can tell us more about the underlying themes contestations and contradictions of emancipatory projects in the mid twentieth century and show us that the study of Pan Africanism is not yet exhausted neither is the history of the idea and the movement Higher Education and Capacity Building in Africa Hanne Kirstine Adriansen, Lene Møller Madsen, Stig Jensen, 2015-11-06 Higher education has recently been recognized as a key driver for societal growth in the Global South and capacity building of African universities is now widely included in donor policies The question is how do capacity building projects affect African universities researchers and students Universities and their scientific knowledges are often seen to have universal qualities therefore capacity building may appear straight forward Higher Education and Capacity Building in Africa contests such universalistic notions Inspired by ideas about the geography of scientific knowledge it explores what role specific places and relationships have in knowledge production and analyses how cultural experiences are included and excluded in teaching and research Thus the different chapters show how what constitutes legitimate scientific knowledge is negotiated and contested In doing so the chapters draw on discussions about the hegemony of Western thought in education and knowledge production The authors own experiences with higher education capacity building and knowledge production are discussed and used to contribute to the reflexive turn and rise of auto ethnography This book is a valuable resource for researchers and postgraduate students in education development studies African studies and human geography as well as anthropology and history Arming Black Consciousness Toivo Tukongeni Paul Wilson Asheeke, 2023-06-08 Since 1994 as the ruling party in South Africa the ANC have become synonymous with and indivisible from the fight against apartheid rule This has left little space for competing accounts visions and political projects to find their appropriate place in the historical narrative In this innovative book Toivo Asheeke moves beyond these well trodden histories to tell the previously neglected story of the Black Consciousness Movement BCM a militant revolutionary nationalist wing of the anti colonial struggle Using archival sources from four countries and interviews with former veterans of the movement Asheeke explores the BCM s engagement with guerrilla warfare community feminism and Black Internationalism Uncovering the personal and political histories of those who have previously received scant scholarly attention Asheeke both illuminates the history of Africa s decolonization struggle and that of the wider Cold War The PhD Experience in African Higher Education John Mashayamombe, Ruth Murambadoro, uMbuso weNkosi, 2022-11-08 The PhD Experience in African Higher Education edited by Ruth Murambadoro John Mashayamombe and uMbuso weNkosi addresses the growing call to invest in the humanities and social sciences by exploring the nature of doctoral training in select institutions of higher learning in South Africa In the past two decades South Africa has become a key player in the global higher education landscape and dubbed the hub for doctoral training in Africa because of its developed educational infrastructure and highly ranked universities Given South Africa s positioning the contributors in this volume argue that the government donors universities and faculty have a socio legal duty to ensure that doctoral programs in the humanities and social sciences are not offered to amass numbers of African graduates but are grounded on equipping students with both hard and soft skills necessary to succeed This is achieved by offering skills training and research apprenticeships fostered in communities of practice because as the contributors show the humanities and social sciences are the backbone of society Furthermore they argue that treating doctoral candidates as equal partners is emancipatory because intellectual projects are best nurtured through collaborative learning

Understanding Global Cultures Martin J. Gannon,Rajnandini Pillai,2015-02-16 In the fully updated Sixth Edition of Understanding Global Cultures Metaphorical Journeys Through 34 Nations Clusters of Nations Continents and Diversity authors Martin J Gannon and Rajnandini Pillai present the cultural metaphor as a method for understanding the cultural mindsets of individual nations clusters of nations continents and diversity in each nation A cultural metaphor is any activity phenomenon or institution that members of a given culture consider important and with which they identify emotionally and or cognitively such as the Japanese garden and American football This cultural metaphoric approach identifies three to eight unique or distinctive features of each cultural metaphor and then discusses 34 national cultures in terms of these features The book demonstrates how metaphors are guidelines to help outsiders quickly understand what members of a culture consider important

Museum Times Leslie Witz,2026-03-01 Museums flourished in post apartheid South Africa In older museums there were renovations on the go and at least fifty new museums opened Most sought to depict violence and suffering under apartheid and the growth of resistance These unlikely journeys are tracked as museums became a primary setting for contesting histories From the renowned Robben Island Museum to the almost unknown Lwandle Migrant Labour Museum the author demonstrates how an institution concerned with the conservation of the past is simultaneously a site for changing history

A Social History of the University Presses in Apartheid South Africa Elizabeth Le Roux,2015-10-14 In A History of the University Presses in

Apartheid South Africa Elizabeth le Roux examines scholarly publishing history academic freedom and knowledge production during the apartheid era Using archival materials comprehensive bibliographies and political sociology theory this work analyses the origins publishing lists and philosophies of the university presses The university presses are often associated with anti apartheid publishing and the promotion of academic freedom but this work reveals both greater complicity and complexity Elizabeth le Roux demonstrates that the university presses cannot be considered oppositional because they did not resist censorship and because they operated within the constraints of the higher education system but their publishing strategies became more liberal over time Like Family Ena Jansen, 2019-04-01 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa More than a million black South African women are domestic workers Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include Andr Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Es kia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie
