Research Methods for Educational Leadership and Management Musundire, Austin, 2025-05-13 Various research methods including action case study and experimental research can be tailored for educational leadership and management. Different research designs, data collection techniques and data analysis methods have differing strengths, weaknesses and challenges. As a result, it is crucial to develop the skills and confidence needed to conduct high quality research. Developing a deeper understanding of how to conduct rigorous research may consequently foster more effective and innovative research leading to improved educational policies, practices and outcomes. Research Methods for Educational Leadership and Management illustrates how these methods can be effectively applied to address issues in educational leadership and management. It promotes best practices in educational research by highlighting ethical considerations, addressing common challenges and providing strategies for overcoming these obstacles. Covering topics such as equity, employment practices, high performance culture and professional competencies, this book is an excellent resource for educational leaders, school managers, school administrators, policymakers, researchers, professionals, scholars, academicians and more. Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa Boadu, Gideon, Odhiambo, George, Marandi, Pegah, 2023-09-25 Teacher education is a known variable that impacts the quality of teaching and schooling, yet while research on practices in teaching and teacher education abound in other contexts, there seems to be no comprehensive reference work on teaching and teacher education in Africa. With Africa and the diaspora boasting rich, diverse political and educational contexts and practices, this gap in knowledge requires that attention be focused on investigating issues that shape the pace, course and direction of teaching and teacher education in these contexts. Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa facilitates scholarly discussions among scholars and practitioners about practices, innovations and future possibilities for educating the next generation of competent students and teachers in Africa. Covering topics such as educational reforms, equity, career progression and curriculum development, this major reference work is ideal for administrators, industry professionals, researchers, academicians, scholars, practitioners, instructors and students. Border Jumping and Migration Control in Southern Africa Francis Musoni, 2020-04-07 With the end of apartheid rule in South Africa and the ongoing economic crisis in Zimbabwe, the border between these Southern African countries has become one of the busiest inland ports of entry in the world. As border crossers wait for clearance, crime, violence and illegal entries have become rampant. Francis Musoni observes that border jumping has become a way of life for many of those who live on both sides of the Limpopo River and he explores the reasons for this, including searches for better paying jobs and access to food and clothing at affordable prices. Musoni sets these actions into a framework of illegality. He considers how countries have failed to secure their borders, why passports are denied to travelers and how border jumping has become a phenomenon with a long history, especially in Africa. Musoni emphasizes cross border travelers' active participation in the making of this history.

and how clandestine mobility has presented opportunity and creative possibilities for those who are willing to take the risk

Political Ecology of REDD+ in Indonesia Jonas I. Hein, 2018-11-21 Indonesia's commitment to reducing land based greenhouse gas emissions significantly includes the expansion of conservation areas but these developments are not free of conflicts This book provides a comprehensive analysis of agrarian conflicts in the context of the implementation of REDD Reducing Emissions from Deforestation and Forest Degradation and forest carbon offsetting in Indonesia a country where deforestation is a major issue The author analyzes new kinds of transnational agrarian conflicts which have strong implications for global environmental justice in the REDD pilot province of Jambi on the island of Sumatra The chapters cover the rescaling of the governance of forests privatization of conservation and the transnational dimensions of agrarian conflicts and peasants resistance in the context of REDD The book builds on an innovative conceptual approach linking political ecology politics of scale and theories of power It fills an important knowledge and research gap by focusing on the socially differentiated impacts of REDD and new forest carbon offsetting initiatives in Southeast Asia providing a multi scalar perspective It is aimed at scholars in the areas of political ecology human geography climate change mitigation forest and natural resource management as well as environmental justice and agrarian studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.tandfebooks.com/doi/view/10.4324/9781351066020> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Lost in Mobility? Indre Genelyte, 2018-10-24 This thesis seeks to make both theoretical and empirical contributions to the understanding of intra EU mobility with a focus on labour migration from Lithuania to Sweden Inspired by a critical realist perspective the thesis aims to help to explain the dynamics and individual decision making behind mass labour emigration from the Baltic states its socioeconomic consequences and policy responses Theoretically the thesis proposes a model that synthesizes a social transformation approach with an extended version of Hirschman's analytical framework of exit voice and loyalty The three empirical articles based mainly on semi structured interviews are situated within this framework Two of the articles seek to explain the migrants decision making process of stay exit entrance in the context of the structural institutional social changes that followed 1 independence from the Soviet Union in 1990 2 EU accession in 2004 and 3 the 2008 2009 economic crisis with austerity The third article brings into the debate the perspective of the sending Baltic countries in a broader context of the East West migration debate The dissertation shows that the consequences of the neoliberal policies of the post communist and post crisis transformations together with the construction of formal migration channels after EU accession constitute various migrant categories Individual strategies of actively looking for channels to exit and enter combining them in different ways at various points of the migratory process and establishing informal social networks are re constituting who can be and who is a migrant Furthermore following the economic crisis and austerity measures the decision to emigrate extends beyond individual survival strategies instead becoming bound to an individual's perception of the ine quality of life and pursuit of a better quality of life for oneself and one's family across time and in different places. Finally, as the interviewed Baltic experts agree, the EU's policy of the free movement is socially and economically problematic, although the official Baltic states policy responses focus primarily on talented and needed diaspora members' return or engagement. These policies have proved to be inadequate to address demographic and socioeconomic challenges in part brought about by emigration. The structural institutional conditions states and migrants' strategies engender mobility as a social norm in the sending countries and promote and constitute the perpetuation of migration of both precarious labour migrants and active talented EU mobile citizens. Avhandlingen avser att bidra både teoretiskt och empiriskt till ökad kunskap om den fria rörligheten inom EU med fokus på arbetskraftsmigration från Litauen till Sverige. Inspirerad av kritisk realism som samhällsvetenskaplig metod och syftet att bidra till att förklara såväl dynamiken i som det individuella beslutsfattandet bakom den omfattande arbetsutvandringen från de baltiska staterna samt att diskutera dess socioekonomiska konsekvenser och politiska inverkan. Teoretiskt utgår avhandlingen från en modell som syntetiserar social transformation med en utsträckt version av Hirschmans analytiska ramverk för sorti, protest och lojalitet. De tre empiriska artiklarna som huvudsakligen bygger på semistrukturerade djupintervjuer ligger inom detta ramverk. Två av artiklarna syftar till att förklara migranternas beslutsprocess i fråga om stay exit/entrance mot bakgrund av de strukturella och institutionella sociala förändringarna som följde av 1) självständighetsförklaringen från Sovjetunionen 1990, 2) anslutningen till EU 2004 och 3) den ekonomiska krisen 2008/2009 med följande trestamningar. Den tredje artikeln för in de baltiska ländernas eget perspektiv i den bredare ställningssättiga migrationsdebatten. Avhandlingen visar att följden av den postkommunistiska neoliberala politiken och omvandlingen efter den ekonomiska krisen tillsammans med uppbyggnaden av formella migrationskanaler efter anslutningen till EU bidrar till att skapa olika migrantkategorier. Individuella strategier för att aktivt leta efter kanaler för exit och enter, kombinera dem på olika sätt och utföra på olika stadier i migrationsprocessen samt etablera informella sociala nätverk bidrar till att rekonstituera vem som kan vara och vem som är en migrant. Vidare, efter den ekonomiska krisen och de införda trestamningsåtgärderna, handlar beslutet om att emigrera inte bara om individuella överlevnadsstrategier utan också om individuella uppfattningar om vad som är livskvalitet och inte på engelska: ine quality of life, liksom strävan efter en bättre livskvalitet för sig själv och sin familj, värdighet och rum. Slutligen, som de intervjuade baltiska experterna överens om, är EU:s politik för fri rörlighet socialt och ekonomiskt problematiskt även om den officiella baltiska politiken i första hand fokuserar på begärd och nödvändiga diasporamedlemmars engagemang eller återvändande. Denna politik har visat sig vara otillräcklig för att ta itu med demografiska och socioekonomiska utmaningar som delvis orsakades av utvandring. De strukturella institutionella förhållandena och staternas och migranternas strategier skapar rörlighet som en social norm i länder med framträdande utvandring och bidrar till fortsatt migration både vad gäller prekär arbetskraftsmigranter och aktiva och begärd EU-mobila medborgare.

Transforming Ethnomusicology Volume II Beverley Diamond, Salwa El-Shawan Castelo-Branco, 2021-03-09. This two volume collection

Sept 2016 8 Sept 2016 Theme Sustainable economies in the information economy Purpose To share the quality academic papers presented at the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics ICBMD held from 7 to 8 September 2016 at African Pride Crystal Hotel and Spa in Cape Town As grey literature the proceedings are the contributions made by researchers at the conference and are considered the written record of the work that was presented to fellow conference delegates Methodology The methodology used varies from researcher to researcher but are suitable for the studies conducted Thus on the one hand studies that were subjective in nature used the interpretive paradigm where the qualitative approach adopted made use of the interview method to collect data On the other hand studies that were objectively inclined adopted the positivist philosophy and used survey questionnaires to collect data However there were some academic papers which used mixed methodology because of the nature of the study Whatever methodology used adhered to the ethos of the philosophies underpinning the methodology Contribution made to scholarship The articles come from individual researchers and each article in the proceedings is unique Mostly there is no general argument leading from one contribution to the next However it is interesting to note that in the area of economic performance it was evident that real exchange rate and net foreign direct investment contribute more towards innovations in economic growth With regard to human capital development papers presented evidence that there exists a definite need to explore the phenomenon of personal branding as limited scientific academic research has been done within the field of personal branding or on elements of the topic Thus the outcome argues that personal branding has an influence on leadership style which in turn impacts on organisational performance and related hygiene factors Furthermore it was demonstrated that current methods or strategies for enforcing institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation have not been successful and as such new strategies are needed to reinforce efforts to nurture and invigorate the institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation With regard to technology and big data impact on organisational performance it was evident that system performance memory consumption and CPU utilisation can be used as criteria to compare and evaluate big data technologies to improve organisational performance Most of the articles contribution reemphasised technology education and training as a means of digitising business and improving effectiveness Target audience The target readership is academic researchers and business leaders who require access to the latest developments in the fields of economics information management business education development studies social sciences and technology It is also for policymakers and other stakeholders who need a better understanding of the impact of new developments on existing policies and regulations for their review or amendment

Sociology in South Africa R. Sooryamoorthy, 2016-08-13 This book is the first comprehensive account of the history and current state of South African sociology Providing a holistic picture of the subject both as it is taught in universities and as a field of research it reveals the trajectories of a discipline in a challenging socio political context With the support of historical and scientometric data it demonstrates how the changing political situation from colonialism to apartheid to democracy has influenced the nature direction and foci of sociological research in the country The author shows how during the apartheid era sociology was professionally fragmented and divided along language and race lines It was however able to flourish with the advent of democracy in 1994 and has become a unique academic movement This insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of the social sciences and all those interested in the history and society of South Africa Higher Education

Pathways Paul Ashwin, M. Case, 2018-12-13 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues Indigenous Language for Social Change Communication in the Global South

Tshepang Bright Molale, Abiodun Salawu, Mohammad Sahid Ullah, Enrique Uribe-Jongbloed, 2023-05-22 Indigenous Language for Social Change Communication in the Global South brings together voices from the margins to engage in dialogue about common social change issues in Latin America Africa and Asia This book argues that resistance and social movements expressed in music and songs and exchanged via radio remain fundamental to ensure that the linguistic and cultural diversity of the world progresses despite colonizing pressures Contributors present cases that explore how indigenous communities use mediums such as the radio to help support their language identity and expand their own social change Highlighting the centrality of music in the development of political discussions and language as a central part of collective identity contributors analyze how these mediums function as both a vessel and a link for information and cultural cohesion of those engaging in social change Scholars of communication sociology and development studies will find this book of particular interest

The Politics of Precarity Gediminas Lesutis, 2021-12-30 Based on critical theory and ethnographic research this book explores how intensifying geographies of extractive capitalism shape human lives and transformative politics in marginal areas of the global economy Engaging the work of Judith Butler Henri Lefebvre and Jacques Rancière with ethnographic research on social and political effects of mining induced dispossession in Mozambique in the book Lesutis theorises how precarity unfolds as a spatially constituted condition of everyday life given over to the violence of capital Going beyond labour relations or governance of life in liberal democracies that are typically explored in the literature on precarity the book shows how dispossessed people are subjected to structural symbolic and direct modalities of violence this simultaneously constitutes their suffering and ceaseless desire however implausible to be included into abstract space of extractivism As a result despite the multifarious violence that it engenders extractive capital accumulation is sustained even in the margins historically excluded from contingently lived imaginaries of a good life promised by capitalism Presenting this theorisation of precarity as a framework on and a critique of the contemporary politics of unliveability the book speaks to key debates about precarity dispossession resistance extractivism and development in several disciplines especially political geography IPE global politics and critical theory It will also be of interest to scholars in development studies critical political economy and African politics      Anthropology and Responsibility Melissa Demian, Mattia Fumanti, Christos

Lynteris, 2023-03-31 This book explores the role and implications of responsibility for anthropology asking how responsibility is recognised and invoked in the world what relations it draws upon and how it comes to define notions of the person institutional practices ways of knowing and modes of evaluation The category of responsibility has a long genealogy within the discipline of anthropology and it surfaces in contemporary debates as well as in anthropologists collaboration with other disciplines including when anthropology is applied in fields such as development medicine and humanitarian response As a category that unsettles challenges and critically engages with political ethical and epistemological questions responsibility is central to anthropological theory ethnographic practice collaborative research and applied engagement With chapters focused on a variety of cultural contexts this volume considers how anthropology can contribute to a better understanding of responsibility including the responsibility of anthropology and the responsibility of anthropologists to specific others
