Rule of Law Barbara Faedda, 2021-08-25 Edited by Barbara Faedda Based on a division of powers and the supremacy of a constitution the rule of law is not invulnerable as was demonstrated in the violent attack against the U S Capitol on January 6 2021 It can be used but also abused it can be respected or exploited exalted or undermined It can even arouse skepticism because it is not always effective against the realities of political life In a world facing social division polarization poverty climate change and pandemics it is crucial to understand the roles of those who manage control or are touched by the rule of law This book s primary goal is to showcase the variety of perspectives cases and methodologies of the people and institutions that bring a range of expertise to bear in many fields The essays here which encompass various geographic areas and social groups as well as several historical periods address racism misinformation human rights the status of women the treatment of indigenous peoples the environment and more The rule of law is not merely a set of principles that guarantee a just society It must be more than a tool in the hands of legal experts it cannot be a concept out of the reach of ordinary people It is essential that every citizen feel a clear responsibility to protect and promote the rule of law to denounce inequalities and oppose imbalances of power if the common goal is to enjoy freedom democracy and justice for all Barbara Faedda is the executive director of the Italian Academy for Advanced Studies at Columbia University and adjunct associate professor in Columbia s Department of Italian where she teaches courses on contemporary Italy Among her publications are the books Elite Cultura italiana e statunitense tra Settecento e Novecento Ronzani 2020 From Da Ponte to the Casa Italiana A Brief History of Italian Studies at Columbia Columbia University Press 2017 Present and Future Memory Holocaust Studies at the Italian Academy editor Italian Academy Publications 2016 and essays including An Italian Perspective on the U S Italy Relationship The White House Historical Association 2016 Neurolaw come le neuroscienze potrebbero cambiare l antropologia giuridica and We are not racists but we do not want immigrants In 2016 Dr Faedda conceived the International Observatory for Cultural Heritage IOCH dedicated to all issues relating to the survival protection and conservation of cultural heritage In 2019 she was appointed ambassador permanent observer for the European Public Law Organization to the United Nations

Critical Issues in Nigerian Property Law Agbe Utuama,2016-07-25 Critical Issues in Nigerian Property Law a collection of writings in honour of Professor Jelili Adebisi Omotola SAN a former Vice Chancellor of the University of Lagos who died on the 29th of March 2006 has ten chapters that closely examine not only the current state of Property Law in Nigeria but also recent developments and other challenges that have surfaced since the infamous Land Use Act of 1999 The book is clearly a useful contribution to a growing body of knowledge on property law and practice in Nigeria

Colonial Legacies and the Rule of Law in Africa Salmon A Shomade,2021-12-30 This book focuses on the continued impact of British colonial legacy on the rule of law in Ghana Kenya Nigeria South Africa and Zimbabwe The legal system is intended to protect regular citizens but within the majority of Africa the rule of law remains infused with Eurocentric cultural and linguistic tropes which can leave its supposed beneficiaries feeling alienated from the structures intended to protect them This book traces the impact effect opportunities and challenges that the colonial legacy poses for the rule of law across Ghana Kenya Nigeria South Africa and Zimbabwe The book examines the similarities and differences of the colonial legacy on the current legal landscape of each nation and the intersection with the rule of law This important comparative study will be of interest to scholars of Political Science International Studies Law African Politics and British Colonial History

Human Rights and the Environment under African Union Law Michael Addaney,Ademola Oluborode Jegede,2020-08-21 This book brings together original and novel perspectives on major developments in human rights law and the environment in Africa Focusing on African Union law the book explores the core concepts and principles theory and practice accountability mechanisms and key issues challenging human rights law in the era of global environmental change It thus extend the frontier of understanding in this fundamental area by building on existing scholarship on African human rights law and the protection of the environment divulging concerns on redressing environmental and human rights protection issues in the context of economic growth and sustainable development It further offers unique insight into the development domestication and implementation challenges relating to human rights law and environmental governance in Africa This long overdue interdisciplinary exploration of human rights law and the environment from an African perspective will be an indispensable reference point for academics policymakers practitioners and advocates of international human rights and environmental law in particular and international law environmental politics and philosophy and African studies in general It is clear that there is much to do study and share on this timely subject in the African context

Rule of Law through Human Rights and International Criminal Justice Charles Riziki Majinge,2015-10-05 This project was undertaken not so much as a farewell to the contribution Adama Dieng has selflessly offered to humanity but mainly as a token of appreciation to his dedication and contribution to the rule of law and human rights especially in his native continent Africa As a high ranking international civil servant diplomat teacher activist and accomplished jurist Adama Dieng has inspired and indeed continues to inspire a generation of men and women both in Africa and beyond with his unqualified commitment to the advancement of the ideals reflected in the United Nations Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights Through his work and commitment to the cause of international justice and conflict prevention he has consistently placed the interests of his fellow men and women and indeed those of his continent before his own interests It is therefore in recognition of his efforts that his fellow jurists friends and colleagues decided to honour his contribution through a collection of essays on a life dedicated to the advancement of international peace and justice through the rule of law The contributions gathered here represent in good measure the values and beliefs in rule of law and human rights that have characterized Adama s commitment to work towards a better Africa and a better world

Adriaan M. Anderson,2006 Migration Vulnerability Marius Olivier,Avinash Govindjee,Evance Kalula,2024-09-10 This title explores the urgent and often overlooked issue of social protection for migrant workers focusing on Africa s rapidly evolving migration landscape As international labour migration continues to surge due to both push and pull factors this book delves into the social protection deficits experienced by three key migrant groups high skilled professionals informal economy workers and those impacted by climate change Organised into 15 insightful chapters the book offers a cross disciplinary examination of these challenges drawing on perspectives from law economics social development and environmental studies By highlighting the limited access to social security benefits faced by these groups it presents a compelling case for the need for robust policy interventions This authoritative volume not only fills a critical gap in this research but also serves as a vital resource for policymakers researchers and practitioners dedicated to improving the welfare and security of migrants in Africa and beyond

Son-in-Law of the Boere Nape ' a Motana,2011-03-28 When KK falls in love with fellow teacher Katryn van der Merwe he invokes the wrath of his whole family dead and alive For KK is short for Kgoroto Mashobohlang which surely signals a mismatch Besides which he dumped his childhood sweetheart whom the forefathers had earmarked for his bride Not only is Katryn very white and very Afrikaans she is also very much a vegetarian Soon rumours are flying about KK s village that a white woman is pulling him by the nose and made him stop eating meat His family is horrified What will he slaughter when they commune with the gods A tomato The path of love is never easy but worse for KK as he ventures into bigoted terrain One thing is certain if a wedding comes of this some nervous inlaws will be lining up on both sides of the aisle

Making Open Development Inclusive Matthew L. Smith,Ruhiya Kristine Seward,2020-08-25 Drawing on ten years of empirical work and research analyses of how open development has played out in practice A decade ago a significant trend toward openness emerged in international development Open development can describe initiatives as disparate as open government open health data open science open education and open innovation The theory was that open systems related to data science and innovation would enable more inclusive processes of human development This volume drawing on ten years of empirical work and research analyzes how open development has played out in practice Focusing on development practices in the Global South the contributors explore the crucial questions of who is allowed to participate when an initiative is open and who benefits or not from them finding that processes characterized as open can sometimes be exclusionary in their implementation Examining a wide range of cases they consider the governance of open development ecosystems and the implementation of a variety of applications including open educational resources collaborative science and the uses of crowdsourcing Contributors Denisse Albornoz Chris Armstrong Savita Bailur Roxana Barrantes Carla Bonina Michael Ca ares Leslie Chan Laura Czerniewicz Jeremy de Beer Stefano De Sabbata Shirin Elahi Alison Gillwald Mark Graham Rebecca Hillyer Cheryl Hodgkinson Williams Dick Kawooya Erika Kramer Mbula Paulo Matos Caroline Ncube Chidi Oguamanam Angela Okune Alejandro Posada Nagla Rizk Isaac Rutenberg Tobias Schonwetter Fabrizio Scrollini Ruhiya Kristine Seward Raed Sharif Matthew Smith William Randall Spence Henry Trotter Fran ois van Schalkwyk Sonal Zavaeri
