Parcel of Death Gaongalelwe Tiro, 2019-08-01 Parcel of Death recounts the little told life story of Onkgopotse Abram Tiro the first South African freedom fighter the apartheid regime pursued beyond the country s borders to assassinate with a parcel bomb On 29 April 1972 Tiro made one of the most consequential revolutionary addresses in South African history Dubbed the Turfloop Testimony Tiro s anti apartheid speech saw him and many of his fellow student activists expelled igniting a series of strikes in tertiary institutions across the country By the time he went into exile in Botswana Tiro was president of the Southern African Student Movement SASM permanent organiser of the South African Student Organisation SASO and a leading Black Consciousness proponent hailed by many as the godfather of the June 1976 uprisings Parcel of Death uses extensive and exclusive interviews to highlight significant influences and periods in Tiro s life including the lessons learned from his rural upbringing in Dinokana Zeerust the time he spent working on a manganese mine his role as a teacher and the impact of his faith in shaping his outlook It is a compelling portrait of Tiro s story and its lasting significance in South Africa s history

Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela, 2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education The Bright Side of Shame Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2019-04-25 This book provides new ideas on how to work with and constructively transform shame on a theoretical and practical level and in various socio cultural contexts and professions It provides practical guidelines on dealing with shame on the basis of reflection counselling models exercises simulations specific psychotherapeutic approaches and auto didactical learning material so as to transform shame from a negatively experienced emotion into a mental health resource The book challenges theorists to adopt an interdisciplinary stance and to think outside the box Further it provides practitioners such as coaches counsellors therapists trainers and medical personnel with practical tools for transforming negative experiences and emotions In brief the book shows practitioners how to unlock the growth potential of individuals teams and organisations allowing them to develop constructively and positively Knowledge for Justice Halvorsen, Tor, Ibsen, Hilde, 2017-11-28 With the adoption of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and the Paris Agreement the purpose of development is being redefined in both social and environmental terms Despite pushback from conservative forces change is accelerating in many sectors To drive this transformation in ways that bring about social environmental and economic justice at a local national regional and global levels new knowledge and strong cross regional networks capable of foregrounding different realities needs and agendas will be essential In fact the power of knowledge matters today in ways that humanity has probably never experienced before placing an emphasis on the roles of research academics and universities In this collection an international diverse collection of scholars from the southern African and Nordic regions critically review the SDGs in relation to their own areas of expertise while placing the process of knowledge production in the spotlight In Part I the contributors provide a sober assessment of the obstacles that neo liberal hegemony presents to substantive transformation In Part Two lessons learned from North South research collaborations and academic exchanges are assessed in terms of their potential to offer real alternatives In Part III a set of case studies supply clear and nuanced analyses of the scale of the challenges faced in ensuring that no one is left behind This accessible and absorbing collection will be of interest to anyone interested in North South research networks and in the contemporary debates on the role of knowledge production The Southern African Nordic Centre SANORD is a network of higher education institutions that stretches across Denmark Finland Iceland Norway Sweden Botswana Namibia Malawi South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe Universities in the southern African and Nordic regions that are not yet members are encouraged to join Turning and Turning Judith February, 2018-08-01 South Africans often are deeply polarised in our perspectives of the present and the past Our ways of seeing are fraught with division and we fail to understand the complexities when we do not see what lies beneath the surface There is no denying that the Jacob Zuma presidency took a significant toll on South Africa exacerbating tensions and exposing the deep fractures that already exist in our society along the lines of race class and even ethnicity The Zuma years were marked by cases of corruption and state capture unprecedented in their brazenness and increased social protests many of which were accompanied by violence aggressive public discourse lack of respect for reason and an often disturbing resistance to meaningful engagement Importantly those years also placed enormous pressure on our democratic institutions many of which still bear the scars and challenged the sovereignty of the Constitution itself As an analyst and governance specialist at the Institute for Democracy in South Africa IDASA for twelve years February has had a unique perch Turning and turning is a snapshot of her IDASA years and the issues tackled which included work on the arms deal and its corrosive impact on democratic institutions IDASA s party funding campaign which February helped lead as well as work on accountability and transparency Combining analytical insight with personal observations and experience February highlights the complex process of building a strong democratic society and the difficulties of living in a constitutional democracy marked by soaring levels of inequality There is a need to reflect on and learn from the country s democratic journey if citizens are to shape our democracy effectively and to fulfill the promise of the Constitution for all South Africans

Research Anthology on Navigating School Counseling in the 21st Century Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-04-16

School counseling in the 21st century requires a new set of skills and practices than seen in past decades. With a sharper focus on social justice, the experiences and challenges for marginalized groups and more open discussions as to issues students face, school counselors must be best equipped to handle all types of diverse students and situations. School counselors and guidance programs must address multicultural needs, underserved populations, and students with issues ranging from mental illness to family issues to chronic illnesses and LGBTQ identities. Moreover, they must be prepared to guide students to learning success and adequately prepare them for future careers. The challenges students face in the 21st century lead to new ways to prepare support and educate school counselors in modern educational atmospheres with student bodies that are handling vastly different challenges, identities, and lifestyles. School counselors must navigate the profession with information on best practices, techniques, and 21st-century skillsets that can adequately support and help all students. The Research Anthology on Navigating School Counseling in the 21st Century provides emerging research on the best practices in school counseling along with methods, techniques, and professional development initiatives to better understand diverse student populations, needs, and challenges. This book will not only focus on how school counselors must adapt and learn in their own professional careers but also how school counseling is functioning in the 21st century with the new concerns and obstacles students must face and overcome. The chapters provide a holistic view of how counselors are navigating their positions to best serve their students through effective practices, programs, and new tools and technologies. This book is ideal for school counselors, therapists, school psychologists, counseling educators, administrators, practitioners, researchers, academicians, and students who are interested in school counseling in the 21st century. Public Administration and Governance in Democratic South Africa Izimangaliso Malatjie, Busani Ngcaweni, Thanyani S. Madzivhandila, Mzukisi Qobo, 2024-07-08. There is a national emergency, and it has become more pronounced as South Africa faces challenges of ethical leadership in both the private and public sector. Recently, the Zondo Commission, Public Investment Corporation (PIC) Commission, and Courts of Law released reports that cast light on the conduct of public officials. There have also been several reports by the Special Investigating Unit (SIU) dealing with the same matter. This phenomenon is not only unique to South Africa. Reports of multinational companies that have been implicated in unethical and corrupt abound. These include corporate scandals such as those of Enron, WorldCom, Nortel, and AIG. These malfeasances have demonstrated abundantly that corporate leaders are not immune to unethical behaviour. Bedi Alpasla Naidoo 2012a. What this showed is that the issue of ethics is important in the public sector. Joining the Dots Jonathan Ancer, Chris Whitfield, 2021-09-21. PRAVIN GORDHAN has been at the centre of many of the political storms that have torn through South Africa's political landscape. He has been investigated by the Hawks, fired as finance minister, accused of running a rogue unit at SARS, and come up against the public protector, to name a few. Seasoned journalists Jonathan Ancer and Chris Whitfield take a magnifying glass to someone at the centre of this tumultuous period to try to understand the man behind the public image They go back to Durban in 1949 when Gordhan was born tracing the significant events and influences that shaped his life and prompted him to become involved in politics as a pharmacy student The authors interview former fellow activists to build a picture of the role Gordhan played in the struggle including his detention and torture It was during this time that he worked closely with Jacob Zuma the man who would become president and Gordhan s nemesis and on the back of a bogus intelligence report fire him as finance minister The book examines why President Cyril Ramaphosa s right hand man has been dragged into major controversies and made enemies such as public protector Busisiwe Mkhwebane Julius Malema and many of those associated with corruption Joining the Dots is an in depth insightful gripping and satisfying read about a man who found the courage to stand up to the dark forces of state capture
