Negotiating Quality Concerns in Higher Education amidst Disruptions

Felix Maringe,Otilia Chiramba,2025-06-02 Quality is at the heart of organisational development It is the one single reason organisations make progress or fail dismally when it is absent Disruptions can both be a catalyst for innovation and progress on one hand but when they are not well handled they can cause organisations to spiral into catastrophe and oblivion This book is about how best to safeguard quality both during and beyond disruptions Based largely on research in South Africa the collection of essays will resonate with multiple higher education contexts and audiences Collectively the essays provide compelling reading for practitioners academics researchers and policy makers in higher education The book s central message is that while disruptions can expose our organisational weaknesses they create several opportunities to drive change and transformation The essays here capture the transition from crisis to high performance and ways in which universities can navigate such journeys

Education and Leadership ,2008-01-01 This truly international book brings together authors from different regions of the world including North America South Africa Europe Iran and Russia all of whom are concerned with aspects of the challenges involved in the expansion of higher education both in student numbers and areas of study Some are concerned about the loss of guiding principles which steered university education for centuries The traditional purposes of higher education have come under such pressure that we have achieved conflicting models of the university Claes and ambiguity in regard to teaching and research Simons et al For others the problems are at a different stage Contributions from South Africa look at three challenges Can we provide enough places in higher education How do we deal with institutional mergers How do we make staff development effective in a situation in which English is the first language of less than five percent of the staff Young scholars in Russian regions face formidable hurdles in achieving academic careers while the best law graduates in Canada are faced with the ethical dilemma of personal career advancement or social justice Topsakal The problem of integrating nursing into a traditional Irish university is reviewed by Grant while the role of a university in regional development is addressed from a Greek perspective by Papaelias et al The comparative international approach features in research into teacher job satisfaction in India and Iran while McMahon reviews the impact of the Bologna Process

Decolonising Higher Education in the Era of Globalisation and Internationalisation

Kehdinga George Fomunyam,2019-07-01 Conceived within a context of transdisciplinarity and pluriversalism and in rigorous response to the Eurocentric globalising and nationalising structures of power that undergird and inhabit contemporary praxis in higher education especially in African higher education this collection of essays brings to the on going discourse on decolonisation fresh rich probing and multilayered perspectives that should accelerate the process of decolonisation not only in higher education in Africa but also in the global imaginary A remarkable courageous and potentially revolutionary achievement this book deserves a special place on curricula throughout the world of higher education Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu, 2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change As a result student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape Individually and through the student councils students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship Through student activism and citizenship students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education s decision making processes Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth Campus Student Activism Politics and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives academia public private and civil society sectors It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials sociologists political scientists academicians and researchers In the Event Lotte Meinert, Bruce Kapferer, 2015-05-01 Events are generative moments in at least three senses events are created by and condense larger scale social structures as moments they spark and give rise to new social processes in themselves events may also serve to analyze social situations and relationships Based on ethnographic studies from around the world varying from rituals and meetings over protests and conflicts to natural disasters and management this volume analyzes generative moments through events that hold the key to understanding larger social situations These events including the Ashura ritual in Bahrain social cleavages in South Africa a Buddhist cave in Nepal drought in Burkina Faso an earthquake in Pakistan the cartoon crisis in Denmark corporate management at Bang Olufsen protest meetings in Europe and flooding and urban citizenship in Mozambique are not simply destructive disasters crises and conflicts but also generative and constitutive of the social Global Pandemics and Media Ethics Tendai Chari, Martin N. Ndlela, 2022-11-18 This topical volume illuminates ethical issues brought to the fore by the COVID 19 pandemic Drawing on a broad range of case studies from different regions it provides insights into the multiple and complex ways in which the pandemic has shaped media ethics The chapters employ a wide range of innovative theoretical and methodological approaches to dissect enduring and emerging ethical questions during the pandemic providing lucid accounts of axiological dimensions in pandemic discourses ethics of emotional mood ethical challenges and dilemmas in news reporting propaganda misinformation disinformation and Othering While the case studies in this book are unique the authors have extrapolated common strands from their analysis of ethical issues applicable to any other country or region during the pandemic contributing unique perspectives on how media ethics are circumscribed by global health pandemics The book will appeal to researchers academics and practitioners at all levels in the fields of media studies journalism communication media sociology and public health as well as general readers and policymakers who are keen to learn more about how global health crises illuminate critical ethical issues confronting the media
