Acaricides Resistance in Ticks Sachin Kumar, Raquel Cossio-Bayúgar, Estefan Miranda-Miranda, Anil Kumar Sharma, Ashok Kumar Chaubey, 2025-02-25 This book discusses the significance of the chemical acaricides resistance in ticks as a global problem. Resistance is the ability of a tick population to survive and reproduce in the presence of a pesticide that would otherwise be lethal. This resistance threatens the efficacy of a range of acaricides used to control tick populations and consequently has a negative impact on the effectiveness of various pest management strategies. This resistance is caused by the selection of resistant tick genotypes and enhanced metabolic detoxification. To address this problem, the book explores an integrated approach that is needed to identify and manage tick populations that are resistant to acaricides as well as identify and develop novel acaricides that are effective against resistant tick species populations. It describes the complex issues associated with this phenomenon using cutting edge advancement in Bioinformatics and Bioinformation Discovery. The chapters provide current information pertaining to the types of protein protein complexes homodimers heterodimers multimer complexes in context with various specific and sensitive biological functions. The significance of such complex formation in human biology in the light of molecular evolution is also highlighted using several examples. The book serves as a valuable resource for students academicians and researchers studying about tick resistance. SADC Gender Protocol

2018 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Glenwright, Danny, 2018-08-20 The SADC Protocol on Gender and Development is the only sub regional instrument in the world that brings together global and continental commitments to gender equality in one instrument used to enhance accountability. The Southern African Gender Protocol Alliance is a network of country and regional NGOs that campaigned for the Protocol its updating implementation and tracking. Originally aligned to the Millennium Development Goals that expired in 2015 SADC Gender Ministers updated the Protocol and aligned it to the Sustainable development Goals SDGs Beijing Plus Twenty and the Africa Agenda 2063 in 2016. In July 2017 the Ministers adopted a Monitoring Evaluation and Results Framework MERF that is now the basis of reporting. 2018 marks the tenth anniversary of the SADC Gender Protocol and the Barometer. Moving with the times the Alliance has expanded the two yardsticks in the Barometer the SADC Gender and Development Index SGDI and the Citizen Score Card CSC. The Barometer incorporates many MERF and SDG indicators as well as its own unique measures of voice choice and control. The Barometer also introduces the Gender Responsive Assessment of Constitutions and Laws conducted by Alliance experts and networks around the region. A wealth of data insights and analysis awaits all readers of the Barometer that will also be made available online and in multi media formats. The SADC we want is one in which citizens engage step it up for gender equality and make sure we achieve Planet 50 50 by 2030. Academic Libraries Anette Janse van Vuren, 2022-06-27 As we begin to

Emerging Constitutionalism in South Sudan Mark Deng, 2025-08-21 This book offers the first ever in depth analysis of the emerging constitutionalism in South Sudan and the challenges it faces The book critically analyses the constitution making processes that occurred in South Sudan between 2005 and 2011 finding among other things that there was a failure of constitutional discourse particularly in relation to the 2011 drafting process of the Transitional Constitution It goes on to analyse how the constitution is being implemented It finds that despite the clear division of powers and functions between the national government and the sub national governments what has emerged in South Sudan in the post constitution making period is a form of coercive centralism where the national government controls much of the political decision making process This has had serious implications for democracy constitutionalism and the rule of law Finally bearing in mind the failure in both how the transitional constitution was made and how it is being implemented the book undertakes a critical analysis of the proposed process for drafting a new constitution for South Sudan It identifies serious shortcomings and proposes how these could be addressed to enhance the process

Transformative Innovation for Sustainable Human Settlements Andrew Emmanuel Okem, Sithembiso Lindelihle Myeni, Tshepang Mosiea, 2024-11-18 This book uses the transformative innovation policy TIP as a lens to show how innovative processes practices and systems could address critical challenges and facilitate the delivery of sustainable human settlements in South Africa The TIP approach shows that addressing societal problems is not a function of a technical solution within a government department but one that requires partnership with multiple stakeholders The book argues that it is essential to understand and embrace innovation policy that is transformative and responds to the social and environmental needs at local provincial and national levels It demonstrates that innovation policy should focus on transforming the socio technical systems that demand embracing notions such as experimental delivery and learning directionality and inclusivity Chapters explore the ability of the state to transform its organisational processes and capacity to improve and align its planning implementation monitoring and evaluation systems to high levels of efficiency and sustainability targets Bringing together various theoretical and empirical perspectives on innovation in the context of sustainable human settlement this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of Housing Human Settlements Architecture Public Policy Development Studies Civil Engineering Political Science and Public Administration

J.P. Rossouw, Elda de Waal, Johan Beckmann, Johan Botha, Franciska Bothma, André du Plessis, Elize Küng, Nicholas Mollo, Ewelina Niemczyk, Louise Postma, Erika Serfontein, Marius Smit, Charl C. Wolhuter, 2019-12-12 The focus of this publication is on answering the central research question How can Human Rights be advanced with regard to different kinds of diversities and in different educational settings The publication pays special attention to the advancement of human rights in a variety of education related contexts in keeping with human rights as a declared national priority for both society at large and the education system One strategic priority of the Faculty of Education is research based on market requirements and needs This book strives towards meeting this expectation by directly aiming at building human rights and social justice in the South African society public schools and higher education institutions Adjudication in the education context of the constitutional values of dignity equality and freedom focusses regularly on learners The book highlights the value of education for full fledged citizenship by delineating what schooling should entail to inspire learners towards both claiming equal freedoms and rights and taking accountability for the responsibilities attached to citizenship The Role of Architects in Informal Settlements Nastaran Sedehi, Seyed Hossein Iradj Moeini, 2024-10-17 With over one billion people worldwide living in informal settlements and enduring substandard housing conditions these areas present one of the greatest urban challenges of our time The existence of informal settlements is deeply intertwined with global issues such as climate change war induced displacement and colonialism As sustainability becomes a central focus in various disciplines including architecture the path to sustainable urban development lies in addressing the problems of informal settlements Architecture s relevance to this discourse is paradoxically highlighted by its perceived irrelevance Informal settlements are often overlooked as legitimate sites for architectural practice This neglect stems from two assumptions first architecture s traditional dependence on power and capital isolating the marginalised who rarely have the chance to receive architectural services and second architecture s perceived incapability to address urban scale infrastructural problems and thereby its reduction to aesthetic creativity and form making This book challenges architecture s focus on the centre and its lack of ambition for creating a pervasive impact on cities Instead it highlights the profession s potential to serve the common good and address urban scale infrastructural issues and proposes the effective engagement of architects in informal settlements Drawing on Henri Lefebvre s dichotomy of margin versus centre in urban spaces informal settlements are interpreted as spaces on the city s periphery created by the marginalised with limited access to power capital and authority By revisiting interrelated concepts such as the production of space the right to the city social architecture and spatial agency within the context of informal settlements the book claims a space for architectural practice in these areas It incorporates discussions on insurgent citizenship and critiques of the self help approach contextualising its arguments with architectural intervention precedents from around the world The book concludes with a brief manifesto on practising architecture in informal settlements The book aspires to inspire architecture students practitioners and researchers to explore the profession s potential in social problem solving and to push the boundaries of practice towards inclusiveness for all urban inhabitants

Proceedings of the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics 2016: Sustainable economies in the information economy Joy E. Akahome, Michael Twum-Darko, Cyril Ogbokor, Nyaniso Mfusi Zonke, T. Sethibe, R. Steyn, Esme Mohammed, Renier Steyn, L.B. Nguenang, Mamorena Lucia Matsoso, Henry N. Ozuru, Julius Akaba, Patient Rambe, Edem Korku Agbobli, Henri-Vincent Ndjave-Ndjoy, Regis Muchemwa, Andre de la Harpe, Konosoang Mpiti, Ayodeji Afolayan, 2016-12-31 Cape Town South Africa 7 Sept 2016 8 Sept 2016 Theme Sustainable economies in the information economy Purpose To share the quality academic papers presented at the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics ICBMD held from 7 to 8 September 2016 at African Pride Crystal Hotel and Spa in Cape Town As grey literature the proceedings are the contributions made by researchers at the conference and are considered the written record of the work that was presented to fellow conference delegates Methodology The methodology used varies from researcher to researcher but are suitable for the studies conducted Thus on the one hand studies that were subjective in nature used the interpretive paradigm where the qualitative approach adopted made use of the interview method to collect data On the other hand studies that were objectively inclined adopted the positivist philosophy and used survey questionnaires to collect data However there were some academic papers which used mixed methodology because of the nature of the study Whatever methodology used adhered to the ethos of the philosophies underpinning the methodology Contribution made to scholarship The articles come from individual researchers and each article in the proceedings is unique Mostly there is no general argument leading from one contribution to the next However it is interesting to note that in the area of economic performance it was evident that real exchange rate and net foreign direct investment contribute more towards innovations in economic growth With regard to human capital development papers presented evidence that there exists a definite need to explore the phenomenon of personal branding as limited scientific academic research has been done within the field of personal branding or on elements of the topic Thus the outcome argues that personal branding has an influence on leadership style which in turn impacts on organisational performance and related hygiene factors Furthermore it was demonstrated that current methods or strategies for enforcing institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation have not been successful and as such new strategies are needed to reinforce efforts to nurture and invigorate the institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation With regard to technology and big data impact on organisational performance it was evident that system performance memory consumption and CPU utilisation can be used as criteria to compare and evaluate big data technologies to improve organisational performance Most of the articles contribution reemphasised technology education and training as a means of digitising business and improving effectiveness Target audience The target readership is academic researchers and business leaders who require access to the latest developments in the fields of economics information management business education development studies social sciences and technology It is also for policymakers and other stakeholders who need a better understanding of the impact of new developments on existing policies and regulations for their review or amendment

Territorial Governance and Spatial Transformation in Post-apartheid South Africa Daniel du Plessis, 2025-07-05 The book provides a reflective account of the evolution of the territorial governance structures and processes in South Africa over a period of 30 years after the transition to a post apartheid society in 1994 It also considers the role and influence of these changing governance institutions and processes and their associated outputs in the form of policies and plans on several priority dimensions of urban spatial transformation The synthesis of the experiences and lessons learnt provides the bases for contemplating important future focus areas for territorial governance such as spatial transformation towards smart cities an African perspective for future South African cities and transitioning towards a streamlined integrated territorial governance system The lessons and experiences are not only of local significance in South Africa but also globally in countries and regions faced with territorial governance and spatial transformation challenges
