University Of Zimbabwe Prospectus:

Prospectus University of Zimbabwe, 1984 African Democratic Citizenship Education Revisited Yusef Waghid, Nuraan Davids, 2017-11-28 This edited collection explores how democratic citizenship education manifests across the African continent A recognition of rights and responsibilities coupled with an emphasis on deliberative engagement among citizens while not uniquely African provides ample evidence that the concept can most appropriately be realised in relation to its connectedness with experiences of people living on the continent Focussing on a diverse collection of voices the editors and authors examine countries that have an overwhelming allegiance to democratic citizenship education In doing so they acknowledge that this concept enveloped by a certain Africanness has the potential to manifest in practices across the African continent By highlighting the success of democratic citizenship education the diverse and varied contributions from across this vast continent address the malaise in its implementation in countries where autocratic rule prevails This pioneering volume will be an invaluable resource for researchers and students working in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in education policy philosophy of education and global citizenship initiatives

Zimbabwe National Bibliography, 1985 International Handbook of Accounting Education and Certification Kwabena Anyane-Ntow, 2018-03-05 This is the first work of its kind Original contributions from leading academicians practitioners and accounting associations from around the world make this handbook a unique source of information on international accounting education and certification processes A uniform format in most of the chapters allows for easy comparison between countries This volume documents the development of accounting education and practice at country and global levels studies the sensitivity of accounting education and practices to the unique socio economic needs of its environment and allows comparative studies at a time when attempts have begun to harmonize accounting education internationally Most importantly it shows how educational programmes around the world are preparing future accounting professionals to deal with the rapid technological and environmental changes of the 21st century Zimbabwean

Periodicals Zimbabwe. National Archives, 1988 Study Abroad / Etudes À L'étranger / Estudios en El Extranjero, 1989-05-03 Accessions List, Eastern Africa Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, Nairobi, Kenya, 1986

Number 6 includes cumulative main and added entry index for the monographs listed in that year Accessions List, Eastern and Southern Africa Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, Nairobi, Kenya, 1994 Widening Access to Education as Social Justice Akpovire Oduaran, Harbans S. Bhola, 2006-07-10 Among the greatest challenges of the twenty first century is that of providing adequate educational opportunities to all citizens of the globe The broad availability of such opportunities and the genuine ability to take advantage of them are fundamental components of any equitable society In examining how widening access to education contributes to social justice this anthology composes a tribute to the life and work of the Nigerian educationist Michael A Omolewa The twenty seven contributions to this volume discuss foundational issues related to the educational dimensions of social justice present overviews of approaches related to widening access and analyze case studies from around the world as well as consider future directions in education policy and research This thematic depth is matched by the geographic representativeness of the work with contributors coming from the global South and North Widening Access to Education as Social Justice speaks with a credible and powerful voice about how making greater formal and informal educational opportunities available to men and women young adults and children everywhere can help bring about more equitable ways of living together thereby fostering the goods of cultural diversity tolerance and respect along with the creativity and responsibility vital to bringing about actual social harmony Speaking for Ourselves Rudo B. Gaidzanwa,2001 Estudios en El Extranjero Unesco,2003 This is the 32nd edition of the publication which contains over 2 500 entries giving information about post secondary education and training opportunities in all academic and professional fields in 147 countries for years 2004 and 2005 It has a special focus on distance education including open and distance learning ODL with an annotated listing of online directories and databases of ODL courses worldwide Information is also given on courses scholarships and financial assistance available to foreign students recognition of studies and diplomas obtained abroad and key issues students should consider before embarking on higher education study The text is written in English French and Spanish Higher Education Review ,1989 Caribbean Journal of Education ,1989 Towards Negotiated Co-management of Natural Resources in Africa L. B. Venema,1999 Within the field of management of natural resources this book focuses on the various approaches of policy formulation and implementation The question central to this book is how to co operate with people the various categories of residents as well as non residents in the rural areas in a top down a participatory or a contractual co management way On the basis of a comparative analysis of 12 case studies in the book these three approaches are thoroughly discussed and their internal and external constraints examined The book starts with an editorial chapter discussing the recent administrative and political developments in Africa as well as the new opportunities which they offer for policies in the field of environment and development The question is brought up whether the recent processes of decentralization democratization and empowerment of local organizations have indeed created new opportunities or that they have only superficially changed the political culture of the countries concerned In the concluding chapter of the book the approaches are contrasted to each other as logical models each with its own potentiality and limitations Conclusions are formulated why the top down approach must result in improvization to escape from failure and why the participatory approach risks to end up into a mixed balance Special attention is given to the conditions and the prospects for the contractual or co management approach which has been introduced into Africa only recently Under certain conditions this approach seems rather promising Administering Education in Namibia Cynthia Cohen,1994 List of Publications Deposited in the Library of the National Archives ,1971 New Serial Titles ,1985 Accessions List, Eastern and Southern Africa ,1993 Encyclopedia of Political Economy Phillip O'Hara,1999-02-04 This groundbreaking
