The Classics and South African Identities

Michael Lambert, 2013-12-12 The teaching and research of the Classics in South Africa are deeply rooted in the racial political and educational inequalities which have characterised its turbulent history In this original study Michael Lambert opens three windows on to this history using the creation of identities as his theoretical lens The foundation of the Classical Association of South Africa in 1956 and the cultural reinforcement of Afrikaner nationalist identity the deployment of British colonial identity in public discourses about the role of the Classics in apartheid South Africa at an English speaking university and the exploration of black African identities in response to the teaching of the Classics at missionary institutions where vocational training was locked in combat with a classical education regarded by an educated black elite as the means for upward social mobility in a highly stratified colonial society The book will be of interest to students of many subjects including Classics Cultural Studies African Studies and History of Education Walking the Path Robert Mazibuko,2024-02-28 About the Book Dr Michael Frederick Walker was born in Australia and moved to the United States to study for a Ph D in Mathematics In the United States he met the Bah Faith Soon after graduating he moved to South Africa as a pioneer for the Bah Faith At his pioneering post he served as a Coordinator on the Literature Committee translating Bah Writings into South African languages During that time Dr Walker or Mike Walker as he was known to his friends also served as the Recording Secretary of the National Spiritual Assembly of South Africa an administrative body in the Bah Faith Michael Walker passed on at his pioneering post in 2021 and is buried in South Africa as one of several pioneers whose many efforts played a crucial role in establishing the Bah Faith in that country This book is written by a friend who met him on his arrival in South Africa in 1969s Retracing Steps Robert Mazibuko,2022-05-25 Retracing Steps By Robert Mazibuko About the Author Robert was born and raised in Port Elizabeth South Africa There he received his early education until his second year at university He later completed university in the United States For several years Mazibuko served as a traveling teacher for the Bah Faith in South Africa and later in Swaziland teaching the Faith in city and rural environments He was elected and served on the Bah National Spiritual Assembly of South Africa for ten years While in South Africa Robert also served as a translator translating two major works of the Bah Faith the Kit b i Iq n The Book of Certitude and the Hidden Words into Xhosa an African language as well as other booklets and documents He became a citizen in the United States in 1992 where he currently resides with his family Mazibuko has also written and published five other books Voices of Conflict Reitumetse Obakeng Mabokela,2002-05-03 Examines how programs and structures at historically white universities have responded to the increasing enrollment of black students since the enactment of the Universities Amendment Act in 1983 The Next Twenty-five Years David Lee Featherman,Marvin Krislov,Martin Hall,2009-12-08 A penetrating exploration of affirmative action s continued place in 21st century higher education The Next Twenty five Years assembles the viewpoints of some of the most influential scholars educators university leaders and public officials Its comparative essays range the political spectrum and debates in two nations to survey the legal political social economic and moral dimensions of affirmative action and its role in helping higher education contribute to a just equitable and vital society David L Featherman is Professor of Sociology and Psychology and Founding Director of the Center for Advancing Research and Solutions for Society at the University of Michigan Martin Hall is Vice Chancellor of the University of Salford Greater Manchester and previously was Deputy Vice Chancellor at the University of Cape Town Marvin Krislov is President of Oberlin College and previously was Vice President and General Counsel at the University of Michigan 100 Years of Struggle - Mandela's ANC Heidi Holland,2012-09-28 Despite the African National Congress being at the height of its powers its future is today less certain than at any time in its long history In the past the liberation movement went through two huge transformations with remarkable agility the first at the instigation of the hot headed young rebel Nelson Mandela He brought about changes that drove the organisation from gentlemanly petitions to armed resistance The second great shake up in the ANC occurred twenty two years ago as Mandela emerged from prison when the movement transformed itself from deep socialist militancy to centre left political conformity But it was at the time dominated by realistic courageous leaders like Mandela Sisulu and Tambo who are no longer steering the vast juggernaut through the third revolution that is under way now The ANC s struggle for freedom was supposed to have ended with its election to office in 1994 when it defeated apartheid But rampant unemployment income distribution as skewed as anywhere on earth catastrophic corruption inferior education and lingering racial tensions cast shadows that lengthen with each passing year Whether the ANC with its current leadership still has the flexibility to transform itself and survive the anarchistic onslaught of politicians like Julius Malema remains to be seen

Systemic Racism in South Africa Rupert Taylor, 2024-12-06 This book takes a critical macro level political sociological perspective to understanding South African politics and society Applying systemic racism theory to South Africa the author argues that South African society through its exclusionary social mechanisms has assumed a systemically racist form that deeply compromises questions of truth and justice Constitutive of and embedded in the structure of South African society racism has a reach and a durability that runs deep through the successive stages of segregationism apartheid and liberal democracy Showing the limits of the rule of law in a racist society the author offers a theoretically informed interpretation as to why the national liberation struggle has fallen short of its promise to deliver a better life for all and as to why truth and justice remain so deeply compromised in South Africa today The arguments advanced are supported by over thirty semi structured interviews conducted by the author with high profile South African politicians jurists and intellectuals as well as by using Truth and Reconciliation Commission hearing transcripts both public and top secret This thought provoking book is driven by the imperative to offer a compelling and sustained argument for taking a systemic racism approach to interpreting South Africa for scholars and students of sociology political science race and ethnic studies law and South African history

Yesterday in Paradise Cyprian Fernandes, 2016-09-15 Author Cyprian Fernandes was born a war baby in 1943 in Kenya Forced to leave school at the age of thirteen because he would not drop his pants for a caning Fernandes experienced a wild and epic childhood In Yesterday in Paradise he tells his story growing up in colonial British East Africa With a history of the region and the people originating from the state of Goa India and the Republic of Kenya East Africa woven in Fernandes shares a host of stories that became a part of his first twenty plus years He was in the middle of the bloodcurdling Mau Mau rebellion and was arrested with thousands of others He was there when Pio Gama Pinto was murdered He embarked on an adventure that eventually took him to the four corners of the Earth He travelled the length and breadth of Africa the United Kingdom and Europe as an investigative reporter Providing a look at

Fernandes eventful past Yesterday in Paradise narrates a memoir filled with prejudice murder conflict and more He shares the events the people and the many many places that fashioned his life Bechuanaland Great Britain. Colonial Office,1956 The Evolution of Liberal Arts in the Global Age Peter Marber,Daniel Araya,2017-03-16 Advanced and developing countries across the globe are embracing the liberal arts approach in higher education to foster more innovative human capital to compete in the global economy Even as interest in the tradition expands outside the United States can the democratic philosophy underlying the liberal arts tradition be sustained Can developing countries operating under heavy authoritarian systems cultivate schools predicated on open discussion and debate Can entrenched specialist systems in Europe and Asia successfully adopt the multidisciplinary liberal arts model These are some of the questions put to leading scholars and senior higher education practitioners within this edited collection Beginning with historical context international contributors explore the contours of liberal arts education amid public calls for change in the United States the growing global interest in the approach outside the United States as well as the potential of liberal arts philosophy in a global knowledge economy Affirmative Action Matters Laura Dudley Jenkins,Michele S. Moses,2014-04-04 Affirmative Action Matters focuses specifically on affirmative action policies in higher education admissions the sphere that has been the most controversial in many of the nations that have such policies It brings together distinguished scholars from diverse nations to examine and discuss the historical political and philosophical contexts of affirmative action and clarify policy developments to further the meaningful equality of educational opportunity This unique volume includes both well established and emerging policies from the Americas Europe Africa and Asia policies which developed under a variety of political systems and target a range of underrepresented groups based on race ethnicity gender class social background or region Accessible and thought provoking case studies of affirmative action demonstrate that such policies are expanding to different countries and target populations While some countries such as India have affirmative action policies that predate those in the United States affirmative action is a recent development in countries such as Brazil and France Legal or political pressures to move away from explicitly race based policies in several countries have complicated affirmative action and make this assessment of international alternatives particularly timely New or newly modified policies target a variety of disadvantaged groups based on geography class or caste in addition to race or sex International scholars in six countries spanning five continents offer insights into their own countries experiences to examine the implications of policy shifts from race toward other categories of disadvantage to consider best practices in student admission policies and to assess the future of affirmative action different types of loads on a structure structural designing and - Jul 24 2022 web a load is a force that a building or structure needs to be able to resist loads cause stresses and deformations to a structure the structure or part of the structure does not fail when these loads are applied loads can be applied vertically or laterally on a structure determining the total load acting on a structure is very important and complex

pdf loading for buildings part 1 code of practice for dead - Feb 28 2023

web the approach to the calculation of the structure of a building apart from the geometry and its peculiarities always in the first instance the first approach is to analyze the state of loads according to current legislation cte 1 to which the building will be subjected and in their respective plants and areas these loads are defined in any load types building construction information - Jun 03 2023 web loads on buildings load types the determination of the loads acting on a structure is a complex problem the nature of the loads varies essentially with the architectural design the materials and the location of the structure loading conditions on the same structure may change from time to time or may change rapidly with time types of loads on building construction how - Oct 27 2022 web apr 28 2020 loading is the act of applying force to an object the performance of a material depends on the loading conditions and can be subjected to a wide range of loading scenarios tension compression bending shear and torsion are the five basic types of loading wind loads on buildings a code of practice perspective - May 22 2022 web nov 1 2020 realistically the wind load induced on cladding and components of an enclosed or semi open building is the net combination of the external and internal pressure coefficients i e the difference between the wind pressure on both surfaces therefore the external and internal pressure coefficients assigned for building components and different types of loads in buildings and structures - Oct 07 2023 web jul 8 2021 loads in buildings and structures a structural load is a force deformation or acceleration applied to structural elements a load causes stress deformation and displacement in a structure structural analysis a discipline in engineering analyzes the effects of loads on structures and structural elements how it works building loads fine homebuilding - Jan 30 2023 web a building load is simply a force that a house frame needs to resist the frame must be designed to withstand eight of these loads which include wind earth and snow without catastrophic stress on the structure loads on structures basic concepts of structural design for - Aug 25 2022 web buildings are not designed for all the possible loads that may affect them but rather a reasonable combination of loads buildings will rarely be impacted by the dead load maximum of live load snow load earthquake load wind types of loads on structures buildings and other structures - Jul 04 2023 web the types of loads acting on structures for buildings and other structures can be broadly classified as vertical loads horizontal loads and longitudinal loads the vertical loads consist of dead load live load and impact load the horizontal loads comprises of wind load and earthquake load
