Resurgence and Revalorization of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Contemporary Society Masenya, Tlou Maggie, Bhuda, Monicca Thulisile, 2025-05-08 Indigenous knowledge is the comprehensive body of knowledge that locals accumulate from life experience unofficial research and close observation of their surroundings within a particular culture It connects the entirety of nature and the components that sustain life to the survival of every human being Additionally it gives specific community conditions in respect to the environment and offers workable answers to people s problems As a result by preserving indigenous knowledge systems indigenous knowledge may provide value to the community by offering innovative solutions to social environmental and economic issues Resurgence and Revalorization of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Contemporary Society explores the role of indigenous knowledge in the contemporary society Furthermore it discusses the importance of preserving and sharing indigenous knowledge for community development Covering topics such as epistemic diversity traditional load and indigenous curricula this book is an excellent resource for sociologists policymakers government officials environmentalists educators records managers professionals researchers scholars academicians and more Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan, 2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba South African Foreign Policy David R Black, David Hornsby, 2018-04-19 This book considers the identity direction and intentions embodied in post apartheid South African Foreign Policy It aims to deepen the understanding of this evolving post apartheid foreign policy through an exploration of the nature and trajectory of key bilateral relationships from both the global South Brazil China Iran the AU and North Japan and the UK This window on the country s international relations enriches understanding of the normative and structural factors that influence not only South African foreign policy but those of what Jordaan 2003 calls emerging middle powers as they seek to position themselves as influential actors in international affairs By sketching the contours of key South African relationships the contributors offer illuminating insights into the cross pressures shaping South African foreign policy In addition they also add depth to the emerging middle power concept by exploring four areas where the tendencies and tensions of emerging middle power foreign policies are apparent regionalism multilateralism reform of global governance and approach to moral leadership This book was previously published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics Irish University Press Series of British Parliamentary Papers ,1968 The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1929 Michigan Christian Advocate ,1904 AF Press Clips ,1969-07 The Spectator ,1855 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art 1874-1897 James Grant, 1899 Transforming African Food Systems Claire Helen Quinn, Andrew John Dougill, Julian Douglas May, 2025-10-24 Overcoming Africa s development challenges cannot be uncoupled from the need to transform the continent s food systems One in four people in sub Saharan Africa faces food insecurity and Africa will need to produce 80% more food by 2050 The challenge is complicated by the interrelationship between agriculture and environmental sustainability In addition agriculture also remains one of the most effective pathways out of poverty on the continent As agriculture both contributes to and is affected by climate change there is a pressing need for innovation in climate smart agriculture that considers the environment as integral to the food system However access to nutritious safe food and improved livelihoods does not solely depend on boosting agricultural productivity Food systems encompass the activities and actors involved in all aspects of the food supply chain from production through to consumption and disposal of food A food systems research approach recognises the importance of interactions and relationships between activities actors and thus the importance of interdisciplinary approaches for achieving transformative change The concerted and coordinated actions of the food industry agriculture production and processing retail food service sector and waste disposal and consumers are crucial to promote sustainable consumption and production with a focus on reducing all forms of food losses throughout the entire supply chain Food systems transformation needs to focus not just on increasing production but on access to food and markets nutrition diversity and security climate resilience and adaptation of both agro ecological systems and the food system more broadly This Research Topic focuses specifically on transformation of African food systems While comprising many similar activities actors to other food systems African food systems also have activities actors and conditions that are specific to the African context These contextual factors include a shared history of colonisation that creates specific historical demographic political and socio cultural drivers of change value chains that are often short and reliant on informal exchange and small scale operations distinct territorial imbalances that create significant inequalities and normative and cognitive institutions that create diverse cultural beliefs and values while influencing the roles of women and youth in food systems We welcome submission of original research articles case studies systematic reviews or meta analysis that offer new insights and perspectives on African food systems transformation This topic will bring together interdisciplinary research and practice and provide a platform for knowledge exchange collaboration and collective action for transforming African food systems so that they are equitable resilient and sustainable

Educating the Women of Hainan

Kathleen L. Lodwick, 2014-07-15 For Margaret Moninger a brilliant fun loving and dedicated young woman from Iowa a career as a missionary in China promised adventure and the chance for responsibility and authority denied most American women of her time In 1915 she went as a Presbyterian missionary to Hainan Island China's southernmost territory where she remained until repatriated in 1942 During her years in Hainan Moninger played many roles she headed a girls mission school wrote scholarly articles on the Miao aborigines collected botanical specimens for scientists at home and served as mission treasurer She was responsible for communications with American diplomatic personnel and was one of only six women appointed to the Presbyterian China Council which set mission policies for all of China Kathleen Lodwick s biography the first devoted to a single woman missionary is based primarily on the long newsy letters Moninger wrote her family every Sunday of her missionary years and on those of a fellow missionary It will be of interest to scholars in Asian studies religious studies and anthropology

Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1929 The ANC and the Liberation Struggle in South Africa Thula Simpson,2018-10-03
The history of the ANC which is the oldest liberation movement on the African continent is one that has generated a great deal of interest amongst historians in recent years Gone are the days when the history of African nationalism could be relegated to the margins of the study of the South African past Instead with the ANC having ascended to the helm of political power a position it has maintained for over twenty years there can be no question that its history occupies an important and permanent place in the history of the nation This volume gathers together some of the most important contributions to the literature on the ANC s role in South Africa s struggle for liberation Besides important themes such as gender ethnicity and healthcare contributions from leading historians also address why the ANC decided to engage in armed struggle what role the South African Communist Party played in making this decision how the ANC External Mission contributed to the upsurge of mass protest in South Africa in the 1970s and 1980s and the ANC s contribution relative to the other components of the liberation struggle in ensuring the eventual demise of the old racial order The chapters in this book were originally published in the South African Historical Journal the Journal of Southern African Studies and African Studies The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1911 Monograph Series in World Affairs University of Denver.
